

Personal Mention.

Miss Bessie Lucas, of Society Hill, is visiting Mrs. Baird. Miss Nettie Williams is visiting Miss Sarah Rose at Florence. Mrs. McMaster, of Wino-boro, is visiting relatives in this section. Mr. G. J. McCown, a former resident, is visiting friends in town. Col. Knox Livingston, of Bennettsville, spent Thursday in town. Miss Mary Scott, of Mars Bluff, is visiting friends in Darlington. Mr. and Mrs. A. Weinberg visited relatives and friends in Florence last Sunday. Bishop Capers will conduct the services at the Episcopal Church on Sunday night. Mr. S. H. Wilds has been quite sick for the past ten days, but is slowly improving. Rev. John Stout is in proving, but it will be several weeks before he is able to return home. Mr. Albert Woods has returned from Bennettsville, Tenn., where he has been attending school. Mr. J. D. Inas, superintendent of the Bennettsville Grand School, has returned to Darlington to spend his vacation.

News of Local Interest.

Don't forget the entertainment for the benefit of the Guards to-night and be sure to patronize it. Mrs. Sullie Coker, widow of the late Mr. Lewis Coker, died this morning at the residence of her brother, Dr. Griffin. She was one of the best and noblest women that has ever lived in this section. There was a pleasant reception at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. A. T. Baird on Friday night, given in honor of Misses Waring and Bissell, of Charleston. The Chesterfield prisoners—two white and eight negroes—who have been confined in this jail until the case at that place was completed, were taken back last Monday by Jailor Scarborough. Prof. P. Bowles has associated with him his son, Mr. E. B. Bowles, and they are better prepared to do interior decorating and paper hanging than ever before. Don't forget that they do house and sign painting also. Call and get your estimates. People who are suffering from the effects of bad drinking water can't do any better than to make a sojourn in Darlington and try our artesian water. Even the horses have learned to drink it and some of them can't be induced to drink any other water. Monday is registration day. Look up your ticket and see if it is correct. If you have moved since you have registered have your ticket changed. Let those who do not read THE HERALD know that only one more day remains—Monday, July 2—which they can register. The Darlington and Sumter baseball clubs crossed bats yesterday afternoon at the park. Sumter defeated Darlington by a score of 10 to 9. The playing was good on both sides. They will play again this afternoon, when it is hoped Darlington will redeem herself. The attendance was good. Mr. J. S. McCreight, who was sentenced at the March term of the court, for breach of trust, to serve twenty months in the penitentiary, was taken over to Columbia on Monday by Sheriff Scarborough. It is understood that he will make application for a pardon, but on what grounds we are unable to state. The interior of the postoffice has been painted in the nicest style by the Messrs. Bowles and presents a very handsome appearance. The postmaster, Mr. Gandy, will have some more combination boxes put in and will supply all demands for them. He is determined to do all in his power for the convenience of the public. The prices for admission to the entertainment to-night will be 25 cents for grown people and 10 cents for children. In the afternoon the armory will be open for children and the admission will be 5 cents. Nurses admitted free. Refreshments sold at both entertainments, and the little folks will be furnished with ice cream at 5 cents per saucer. During the thunderstorm that passed over the town on Thursday afternoon the arrester on the electric light pole, at the corner of the square and Cashua street, was struck by lightning. The arrester was ruined, but no damage was done. The odor penetrated the store of Norment & Co. and was perceptible for some time after. It was also noticed in the rooms above the store. There was an excursion from Sumter to Red Springs on Wednesday. It was run in aid of the Sumter Light Infantry and was well patronized. The following are the names of those who went from Darlington: Misses Lillah Kelly and Anna Rogers, Messrs. Harry Andrews and N. L. Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. Rotholz, Mr. and Mrs. Weinberg, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. G. E. Dargan, Messrs. S. Lewenthal, S. Tombaicher, E. J. Lide, Emil Dargan, W. J. Garner, W. A. Parrott, T. H. Spain, M. Outlaw, J. D. Baird and J. D. East.

A Publishing Company.

The Secretary of State has issued a commission to J. O. A. Moore of Darlington, G. W. Stitt of Lamar, J. W. Davis of Hartsville, J. N. Parrott of Darlington, W. A. Dowling of Philadelphia, S. C., W. J. DuBose of Cypress and W. H. Lowrance of Darlington, as incorporators of the Darlington Publishing Company. The company proposes to do a general publishing business. The capital stock is $3,000, divided into 200 shares.

A Narrow Escape.

On Tuesday afternoon Mr. George W. Brown and Miss May Ervin had a very exciting experience with a runaway horse, but very fortunately escaped injury. They were driving along very quietly on Cashua street when a horse, perfectly frantic with fright, ran up behind them and tried to jump in the buggy. In order to escape injury they were compelled to get out and while Mr. Brown was trying to protect the lady from injury his own horse got away and dashed off in the direction of home. He was not caught until he reached Mr. Brown's house, but did no damage either to himself or the buggy. The horse that was responsible for the trouble belongs to Mr. S. F. Ervin, who lives on the other side of the creek. Mr. Ervin was trying to accustom him to the plow when in some way he became frightened and struck out for the town with the result above stated. There are usually a good many vehicles on Cashua street in the afternoon and it is extremely fortunate that the runaway only encountered one of them.

Church News.

There being no service at the Baptist and Presbyterian Churches on Sunday the congregation at the Methodist Church was very large and quite a number had to be seated in the gallery. The pastor, Rev. J. E. Carlisle, before commencing his sermon, made an earnest appeal in behalf of the Beaufort sufferers, and had a collection taken up for their benefit. The amount realized was between twenty and twenty-five dollars, which has been forwarded for distribution among those who need help. The pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Rev. J. G. Law, will be absent for several weeks yet, but his pulpit will be filled on Sunday by Rev. S. E. Bishop, of Chesterfield. Rev. John Stout, the pastor of the Baptist Church, is still detained in Texas by sickness and there will be no service in this church on Sunday morning. The union service will be held at the Baptist Church on Sunday night, at which Rev. J. E. Carlisle will preach the sermon. Lay service at the Episcopal Church on Sunday morning.

Keep Up the Agitation.

The Board of Health claim that THE HERALD has been prodding them too severely and want the paper to give the council and police a little scolding also, especially in the matter of allowing hog-pens to be kept in the thickly settled parts of the town. One of the members of the board said that there was one near enough to THE HERALD office for the editor to hear the pig grunt. We hope that the Council, Board of Health and Police will do a little grunting when they read this and all snite their forces against the porker, and induce him to move his residence beyond the limits of the town. It is almost needless to say that THE HERALD, in agitating the matter of keeping the town in good sanitary condition, had no intention to be unjust to anyone, but was determined to arouse public attention to the imperative necessity of keeping all premises in good order, not only in the summer but at all seasons of the year. The council have had several nuisances abated and we hope that they will keep up the good work. Darlington is one of the healthiest towns in the State and every one should take special pride in keeping up its reputation in this respect.

Gone to Richmond.

Mr. E. Keith Dargan left on Monday to attend the unveiling of the Confederate monument at Richmond. The occasion will be an interesting one and will draw a very large crowd. Mr. Dargan served for a considerable time as adjutant of the famous Pegasus Battalion of Artillery, of which the Pee Dee Artillery was a part, and has a good many friends among the old soldiers of Virginia. One of these friends is Capt. W. Gordon McCabe, a man of fine literary attainments and a poet also, now principal of the Petersburg, Va., High School. A few days after the surrender of Lee's army, the writer of this article, in company with Mr. Dargan, was standing near the railroad depot at Greensboro, N. C., and while there had the pleasure of being introduced to Capt. McCabe and Maj. McGrath, the latter of whom was also a friend of Mr. Dargan's. These gentlemen had made their escape with the hope that there might be some chance of retrieving the disaster that had befallen the Confederacy. On being asked by Mr. Dargan what he intended doing now, Capt. McCabe drew himself up and with flashing eyes replied: "Follow the Confederate flag until it sinks in the Gulf of Mexico." But, alas for the high hopes and courage of the speaker, the flag he loved with all the ardor of his chivalrous nature had been furled forever on the historic field of Appomattox, and the warrior poet had struck his last blow for Southern independence.

The Soldiers That Will Attend.

Below we give the names of the Guards that will attend the Spartanburg encampment. There are others that will probably go, but we only publish the names of those who are certain to attend. Quite a number of our citizens have expressed their determination to accompany the Guards, and of course among those who go will be a number of ladies, who will give the soldiers the inspiration of their presence and smiles.

Mr. C. D. Evans, who is the only active member of the company that served through the war, will also be on hand to show the boys how to sleep on the wet ground and to cook in the open air while the rain is pouring down. If rations are short he can show them how to forage. Some of Mr. Evans's war experience was a little too realistic for comfort and he won't care to show the young soldiers how it feels to have a minie ball shot into some part of their bodies: Captain—H. T. Thompson. Lieutenants—James Lide, Parrott. Sergeants—McCall, Cox, James, Boatwright. Corporals—DuBose, Wells, Vaughn, McCutlough. Privates—Bristow, Coit, Gillespie, Harral, McCutlough, H. Norment, L. Norment, East, Rogers.

Factory Items.

Mrs. Lizzie White, widow of the late Jerry White, died last Saturday and was buried at Grove Hill Cemetery Sunday afternoon. She leaves six small children. The date for the excursion has not as yet been set, but it is hoped that the committee will decide to run one in the near future. Mrs. J. J. Smith is confined to her bed with sickness. Mr. J. E. Hicks taken in the excursion to Red Springs last Wednesday. Mr. James Sweet and family, of Georgia, is visiting Mr. J. M. Melton's family. The Athletics defeated the Factory nine again last Saturday by a score of 12 to 11. The cotton warehouse, which was burned last Christmas is being rebuilt. Mr. A. F. Mixon has had a neat kitchen added to his dwelling on Broad street. Mr. L. F. Yates has left the mill and gone to Columbia to reside. Mr. A. Adams and Miss Henrietta Thomas was married last Wednesday night at the residence of Mr. C. Brazale. Judge C. P. Dargan officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Conicks is visiting at Wadesboro, N. C. this week. Tragic End of a Bad Man. Will Thomas, alias Cuffey McLeod, one of the negroes concerned in the recent acts of incendiarism in Lamar, was caught at 4 o'clock yesterday morning in Mims's store. He was discovered by Mr. Turner clerk and had about forty or fifty dollars worth of goods in his possession when found. He called to Mr. Turner telling him to stand back, at the same time drawing a pistol. Mr. Turner was too quick for him and shot first. After the shot Thomas ran and was shot at by other parties. He was found in a thicket mortally wounded. There was some talk of lynching, but this was not done. The deputy agent sent a dispatch to the sheriff asking him to come at once, but when he reached there the man was dead. Sheriff Scarborough and Coroner Parhett went down the same afternoon to hold an inquest. He was a desperate character, and as has been stated was concerned in the numerous barn burnings that occurred in Lamar sometime ago. A special from Sumter to the Journal of yesterday says: McLeod was supposed to be implicated in the Gayden murder at Eastover and accused of committing robberies and burning of depots on the Charleston, Sumter and Northern Railroad.

The Southern States.

The South has an able and persistent champion and advocate in the magazine Southern States, of Baltimore, Md. The cause of Southern immigration in particular is given intelligent and comprehensive attention. The Southern States is arousing the people of the South and Southern railroads to the need of immigration, and is enlightening its readers in the North as to agricultural and business capabilities and advantages of the South. It publishes illustrated descriptions of Southern localities, articles on industries that are distinctively Southern, on climatic conditions, social life, general resources and advancement, and on all topics pertaining to the South in any of its phases. There is much in every issue to make it interesting and valuable not simply to those who are concerned about the South and about Southern progress and Southern attractions, but to the general reader as well. Its purpose is to set forth accurately and conservatively from month to month the reasons why the South is, for the farmer, the settler, the home seeker, the investor, incomparably the most attractive section of this country. The Southern States is published by the Manufacturers' Record Publishing Co., Baltimore, Md., at $1.50 a year. Sample copies will be sent for 15 cents.

BUSINESS, NOT GAS!

Don't Be Blind, There's Corn in Egypt Yet, and the World Moves on Just the Same.

I am in the procession and take the lead, let those follow who can. No man can sell goods cheaper than I can and stay in business. My goods are arguments, my prices are eloquence itself. My aim is to make both goods and prices satisfactory to all. I succeed when others fail to save you money. Call and see what it means to deal with a progressive wide-awake man and be convinced. Some say I sell goods too cheap, yes I sell cheap because I can do it. I don't bribe the public with cheap goods, everything is a bargain. Compare goods and prices and be convinced. We have but one price and that is
