

Friends of Long Ago.
 When I sit in the twilight gloaming, And the busy streets grow still,
 I dream of the wide, green meadows,
 And the old house on the hill.
 I can see the roses blooming About the doorway low, Again my heart gives greeting
 To the friends of long ago—
 Dear long ago!

I can see my mother sitting,
 With life's snowflakes in her hair,
 And she smiles above her knitting,
 And her face is faintly fair.
 And I see my father reading From the Bible on his knee, And again I hear him praying As he used to pray for me—So long ago!

I see all the dear old faces Of the boys and girls at home, As I saw them in the dear old days Before we learned to roam.
 And I sing the old songs over With the friends I used to know, And my heart forgets its sorrows In its dream of long ago—
 Dear long ago!

How widely our feet have wandered From our old home's tender ties, Some are beyond the ocean,
 And some are beyond the skies.
 My heart grows sad with thinking Of the friends I used to know; Perhaps I shall meet in heaven All the loved ones of long ago—
 Dear long ago!

Clippings.
 —Walt Whitman proposes writing an ode to Col. Robert Ingersoll. We always did think Bob would come to a bad end.

—The greater the difficulty the more glory in surmounting it. Skillful pilots gain their reputation from storms and tempests.

—To fill the sphere which Providence appoints is true wisdom; to discharge trusts faithfully and live exalted ideas, that is the mission of good men.

—"What," says an inquisitive young lady, "is the most popular color for a bride?" We may be a little particular in such matters, but we should prefer a white one.

—When a Georgia man gets too weak to split a watermelon open with an ax, his relatives begin to look around and see what's the best they can do on a head stone.

—"Better keep your eyeballs on me, man," said a colored delegate, reaching down into his trousers and producing the basis of a barber shop.
 "I belong to the cavalry, I do."

—It is drawing close to the season of the year when some heretofore unknown and unheard-of college will become temporarily famous by shyning an L.L.D. at some prominent man.

—Forty six members of the Ohio Legislature could not repeat over six of the ten commandments, but when it came down to stealing stationery from the state they just made thinsump.

—A political orator in Michigan can get as much applause by yelling "cum grano salis," as by vociferating "cum grano lupini." As long as it's Latin the natives don't care what it means.

—The first vote ever polled by a Chinaman was cast at the recent municipal election in Indiana. The Chinaman was led to the poll by a colored man, and voted the Republican ticket.

—An old farmer was wondering "why in these days it seems impossible to have an honest horse race," when a neighbor interrupted him with the remark that "it's because we haven't an honest human race."

—Some women are plinks of property. They never question you about your private affairs. But let them get your little ten-year-old in a corner, and they will pump the poor child dry in about five minutes.

—The best answer to the frequent question why there are so many marriageable women who never get married, is made by the Norristown Inquirer, which says it is owing to the fact that there are so many young men worth marrying.

—The Czar gets a salary of $25,000 a day. About two days Czarism would be enough for us. That is about as long as we could do without eating. We would pocket the $50,000, appoint a Czar ad interim, and bid farewell to Russia.

—Attempts on the lives of Presidents of Republics have all been successful. Thus Abraham Lincoln of the United States, Balto of Peru, Morales of Bolivia, Garcia Murena of Ecuador, and Gill of Paraguay have all been murdered within the last fifteen years.

—A demure, diminutive girl, aged 18, is under arrest in Philadelphia for bigamy. She has three living husbands all of whom she has married within two years. When asked why she had done this, she said: "They were all good fellows, and they coaxed me so."

—Colonel Ingersoll says he doesn't see "how it is possible for a man to die worth $5,000,000 or $10,000,000 in a city full of want." Nor do we.
 Editors should club together and resolve not to die worth $5,000,000 or $10,000,000. We would rather not die at all than to leave this world worth that much money.

—It is true, George Washington never told a lie, but then he hadn't the strongly organized opposition to candidature for the Presidency that troubles his successors. In these degenerate and unchristian days the candidate has to lie like a pirate to straighten up his record, and then he has to lie like smoke to keep it straight.

LIGHTNING SEWER
THE NEW WILSON
Oscillating Shuttle
SEWING MACHINE is wonderful in its conception, unprecedented for doing a large range of sewing in textile fabrics and leather. Its motions are continuous, admitting of an extraordinary rate of speed, either by steam or foot power. Every motion of the treadle makes six stitches, thus producing about one-third more work in a day than other Sewing Machines. It has no stop motions, and tightens the stitch with the needle out of the fabric. It uses the well-known Wilson Compound Foot on both sides of the needle. It has two-thirds less parts than any other first-class Sewing Machine.
 Its arm is fully eight and one-half inches long and five and one-half inches high, and the whole Machine is very compactly and scientifically constructed in proportions, elegance, design and appearance. Its simple, powerful and perfect mechanism places it as far in advance of all other Sewing Machines as the telephone is superior to the tin speaking tube. The WILSON READING ATTACHMENT, for repairing all kinds of textile fabrics WITHOUT PATCHING, furnished FREE with all WILSON SEWING MACHINES, together with a Tuckor, Ruffler, Cordor, Set of Stomach Binder, etc.

These Machines are on exhibition and for sale by

The Improved Water Elevator and Purifier.
 ORANGEBURG, S. C.

If you would enjoy good health you must use pure water. To the citizens of Orangeburg, Aiken, Edgefield, Hampton, and Barwell counties: Having purchased the exclusive right of said counties for the Improved Water Elevator and Purifier, we offer the same for sale. This Elevator has no superior. It is simple, cheap and durable, having no wooden tubing to decay and pollute the water. No iron tubing to rust or corrode. No flanges or valves to wear out or to get out of order. It requires no attachment below the platform and will last Three Times as long as any pump. Will make bad water good, and good water better. A thorough investigation is all that is necessary to convince you of its merits.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.
AYER'S
CHERRY
PECTORAL.

Diseases of the pulmonary organs are so prevalent and fatal, and so difficult to cure, that a reliable remedy for them is invaluable to every community. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merited the confidence of the public.
 It is a scientific combination of the finest drugs, chemically united, to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results, which enables it to afford as well as to be used with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has produced. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Sore-throat, Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and millitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

The great popularity of the White is the most convincing proof of its efficiency and superiority over other machines, and in submitting it to the trade we put it upon its merits, and in no instance has it ever failed to satisfy any recommendation in its favor.

The demand for the White has increased to such an extent that we are now compelled to turn out complete Sewing Machines every three minutes in the day to supply the demand.

Every machine is warranted for 3 years, and sold for cash at liberal discounts, or upon easy payments, to suit the convenience of customers.
