

NOTICE.—We have made arrangements with the proprietors of the News and Courier to club their mammoth Weekly with the Democrat at $3 per annum, for both papers, cash in advance.

SAD.—We learn that a little child of Mr. Jacob Cook on Bull Swamp accidentally broke its thigh one day last week. We hope the little sufferer will soon recover.

PERSONAL.—Mr. John Darby, father of Rev. O. A. Darby, and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Roberson, who have been spending some time in our town, left Tuesday for their home in Charleston.

The plates, dishes, &c., left in the Courthouse after the fair unclaimed, may be found at the Methodist parsonage. Friends having lost such articles will please call on Rev. O. A. Darby for them.

HAIL.—There was a light fall of hail on Wednesday last in the eastern portion of our town. We have not yet heard how far in the country the hail reached or what damage, if any, was done to the growing crops.

Twinkle, twinkle little star, and light the way of yonder pedestrian to the drug store of Dr. J. G. Wannamaker to buy a bottle of Coussens Lightning Lincture to cure his rheumatism, lame back. Price 50 cents. 1

RAIN NEEDED.—In several sections of the county we understand the crops are suffering for the want of rain, and fears are entertained that unless reasonable weather come in time the corn crop will be almost a failure.

A Treatise on the Hair published by R. P. Hall & Co., Nashville, N. H., proprietors of Hall's Vegetable Sulfur Hair Renewer, contains valuable information about the hair, which should be read by all. Send to publishers for a copy.

You may not believe it, but try it and you will be convinced that Portline, or Tabler's Vegetable Powder is the best medicine in the world to regulate the stomach and liver. Price 50 cents. For sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker. 1

MOONLIGHT PICNIC.—The ladies of the Lutheran Church propose having another moonlight picnic next Tuesday evening at the Fair Grounds. These entertainments are enjoyable occasions, and we bespeak for the ladies a liberal patronage.

KILLED.—Mr. James M. Kugler and a colored man named Henry Golson were struck by a gallop on the 8th instant in the upper portion of the county. Golson was instantly killed and Mr. Kugler seriously injured, but we learn, is convalescing.

NEW GOODS.—Mr. A. F. H. Dukes, of Branchville, advertises in this issue a large and complete assortment of summer goods, including every thing usually found in a well kept store. He is also agent for the celebrated Brown Cotton Gin. See his advertisement and give him a call.

A bachelor suffering with a cold was bated a dose of Coussens' Honey of Tar by his sister. "What is it?" he asked. "Elixir Asthmaticum," it will make you feel ecstatic." He replied, "You are very systematic." Down went Honey of Tar and cured his cough. Price 50c. For sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker. 2

INTERESTING OCCASION.—The Sunday School Missionary Society of St. Paul's Methodist Church meets on Sunday afternoon at half past four o'clock. The exercises will be interesting and varied, some of the scholars of the school engaging in them. The public are cordially invited to attend.

GOOD APPOINTMENT.—Captain E. J. Felder, census enumerator for our town, is indefatigable in the discharge of his duty and have already, by dint of hard labor, progressed far in completing the work. No better appointment could have been made than that of Captain Felder to this position.

DROWNED.—A colored boy, Dettie Bue ley, about thirteen years of age, was drowned in Mr. David Hauser's mill pond Tuesday evening last. The lad while diving was caught among some logs and was drowned before aid could be rendered. The body was found Wednesday morning and an inquest held. This is a warning that should be heeded.

OFF FOR CINCINNATI.—Hon. Samuel Dibble, delegate to the National Democratic Convention, left for Cincinnati on Tuesday last to be on time for the opening of the session. Mr. Dibble is a Bayard man, but goes with a determination to do the best for the party in securing a Presidential nominee that will defeat the miserably corrupt Republican ticket.

RANDOM SHOTS.—We are having delightful weather now.

Dr. Cooke will preach next Sunday morning at the Lutheran Church.

More money is said to be expended in this town for tobacco than for bread.

Mr. James Cannon, Chief of Police, killed a mad dog in town on Monday.

We think it about time for the men to get up a fair, and issue free tickets to the ladies.

All the news we can gather from our country friends is, "It is exceedingly dry."

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday last were as hot and sultry as mid-summer weather.

The Episcopal Church will be open for divine service next Sunday, morning and afternoon.

We learn that Mrs. Pilot, who lived on the place of a J. H. Hydrick died on Saturday last.

Eureka Chapter, No. 13, R. A. A. M., meets to-night at Masonic Hall. The M. M. Degree will be conferred.

Whitmore's barber shop was closed for non-payment of rent and not for being a nuisance as stated by us last week.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the Tournament at Columbia on Wednesday and had a nice time generally.

The Independent, colored, Fire Company held its monthly parade on Monday last. The turnout was full and the trial satisfactory.

As the enumerators are under oath not to divulge any information in taking the census, our young lady friends can give their ages without any fears.

The Rochester Democrat, in deriding the heading of local matters places "Different views of hell." We are glad that the place has been located at last.

"What a woman can do," is the title of an article in an exchange; and what we want to know is what a woman can't do when she makes up her mind.

We found it impossible to get off to Cincinnati, but Mr. Melchiam, of the Times, has gone, and will satisfactorily represent the Orangeburg press.

A young man in town who visits our same young lady nearly every evening has been confined with running a little court of general sessions of his own.

The Atlantic Press and Banner says "the first page of no home printed paper received at this office is better gotten up than that of the Orangeburg Democrat."

We agree fully with Josh Billings when he says, "When a man has found me out at a good turn he can't cross it from his books, I don't care how mean he may be afterward."

A young man advertises in an exchange for a position as son-in-law in a family of means. We think he would meet with better success if he would advertise himself for sale as a "goose."

The editor of the Davton Record, found $4 000 in greenbacks in a field while hunting, but as ill-luck would have it there were four other men with him, and one of them was the owner of the money. Editors never have a show.

"What are the people doing?" exclaims an excited contemporary. Well, some are paying ten cents on the dollar, others are announcing themselves as candidates, some walking six days for a share of the gate money, a few are predicting heavy frosts for July, and not a few are enquiring who is to be the Democratic nominee.

THE FIREMEN.—Our boys who visited Columbia on last Wednesday returned that night highly pleased with their trip. The kind treatment and generous hospitality of the Phoenix Hook and Ladder Company, No. 2, whose guests they were, will ever be remembered by them as one of the many pleasant recollections of their trip.

BIDS INVITED.—It having come to the knowledge of our junior that another moonlight picnic is near at hand, and being desirous of securing the escort of some young lady for that occasion, he hereby gives notice that he is ready to consider proposals from the fair sex to "see" him out to the said entertainment. He reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

IS TROUBLE.—We clip the following from an exchange: "The Rev. W. L. Johnson, a colored school teacher from Orangeburg, was arrested by the Charleston police on Wednesday for carrying four mockingbirds in one cage, in violation of the game laws of the State. He was released on the deposit of twenty dollars for his appearance before the Recorder's Court, but left the city, and so forfeited his bail."

COMPOUND EXTRACT BEECHER, composed of such leaves, dandelion root, acetate potash, juniper berries, parietaria, and castoreum root. All of which are highly valued diuretics, kidney stimulants and depuratives. The failure of the actions of the kidneys is a source of many distressing diseases. This medicine produces a healthy action of the kidneys, it moves from the blood the acids and urea, which if allowed to remain and accumulate would induce rheumatism, gouty affections, pains in back and loins. This valuable medicine is for sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker. Price 75 cents per bottle.

CONSIGNEES.—Consignees for unclaimed freight at South Carolina Railroad for week ending June 16, 1880: J. H. Staley, W. Bennett, R. W. and A. A. McMichael, J. H. Hughes and Bro., J. F. Grambling, B. Livingston, P. D. Tilley, W. H. Dantzer, P. Livingston, A. D. Campsty, J. C. Holman and J. C. Jeffcoat.

FAIR NOTES.—The cake to be voted to the most popular married lady was awarded to Mrs. J. M. Danner, she having received the highest number of votes, the one to the most popular young lady was awarded in like manner to Miss Lucie T. Danner. Mr. Julian A. Salley was the winner of the cake voted to the most popular young man. The fair was a complete success, and the ladies certainly deserve great credit for it.

A GOOD ARTICLE.—We publish to-day on our first page a most excellent article from the pen of Dr. J. W. Summers of Middle St. Matthews called forth by one published two weeks ago by J. C. H. on the subject of Ammonia. Farmers will find it interesting and instructive, especially since the plans recommended come in time for the next crop. We hope to furnish our readers from time to time with other articles from these gentlemen both of whom are eminently practical and successful farmers.

OUR GUN CLUB.—Our Gun Club in the contest at Columbia came out second best. The score standing as follows: Columbia Team, 41; Orangeburg Team, 39; Charleston Team, 38; Wimsboro Team, 24. Columbia won the first, Orangeburg the second and Charleston the third prize. Messrs. M. G. Salley, D. J. Salley, J. A. Salley, W. G. Albertson, P. G. Cannon and W. J. DeTreville composed the Orangeburg team, and a good team it was. Messrs. J. A. and D. J. Salley were also successful in individual matches.

HILL'S HEPATIC PANACEA. The Liver is the king imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action all kinds of ailments are the natural results. The digestion of the food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the liver. To keep the liver in a healthy condition take Hill's Hepatic Panacea. July 50 cents per bottle. For sale by S. A. Reeves.

GREAT SNAKES!—Mr. ROSSON Edwards, who lives in the O'Carroll neighborhood, while lying on a pallet near the bed of his sick wife, heard a noise in a tin reflector near by, and, thinking the noise was caused by rats, punched in the reflector with a stick, when he was astounded to see a large rattlesnake crawling out upon the floor. Before anything could be had with which to kill the dangerous intruder, the snake succeeded in reaching his hole and a place of safety, but not out of sight. Mr. Edwards, determined on getting his family of so dangerous a visitor, shot the snake even in the house and luckily killed it. The snake had six rattles and a button and was well grown for his age. We learn the little child of Mr. Edwards had been playing around the reflector all the evening and doubtless while the poisonous snake was coiled within.

THE FAIR.—The Sunday School Fair of the Methodist Church, as was expected from the generally liberal patronage of our citizens on such occasions, was a most gratifying success. Indeed we have heard it remarked by several persons, that, considering the shortness of time and the simplicity of arrangements, it was the most successful fair of the kind ever held in this community. After deducting all the expenses of every kind, the net profits of the fair amount to the very creditable sum of one hundred and ninety dollars—more than the projections of the enterprise expected, but not more than they can put to profitable use. This success is due directly to the noble spirited ladies who managed the different departments and to the very liberal contributions by our citizens, from both town and country. A session of the school on Sunday morning last resolutions were unanimously adopted returning the thanks of the children to the ladies who gave them such material aid in managing the fair; and to the kind citizens of both town and country for the large contributions to the several departments and for the liberal patronage given throughout the exhibition; to their beloved pastor, Rev. O. A. Darby, and other gentlemen for the active part taken in getting up and conducting the fair so as to yield such noble results; and to the Clerk of Court who placed the courthouse at their disposal when no other suitable place could be obtained. We take this occasion to promise our friends that the money so liberally given will be appropriated in such a way as to yield the best results for the good of the school and the church in the interest of which the fair was held.

SHERIDAN'S SCHOOL.—The examination of Sheridan's Classical School will be held in the Court House, beginning on Tuesday next at nine o'clock A. M. and ending Tuesday 2 o'clock P. M. The branches will be taken up in the following order: Tuesday 9 o'clock.—Spelling, four classes; half past 10.—Geography, three classes; 12 o'clock.—Greek, two classes; 1 o'clock.—English Grammar, (beginners in third grade room.) Wednesday, 9 o'clock.—History, two classes; 10 o'clock.—Latin Grammar, three classes; half past 11 o'clock.—Algebra; half past 12 o'clock.—Reading, three classes. Thursday, 9 o'clock.—Composition and Rhetoric; half past 10 o'clock.—Caesar and Virgil; half past 11 o'clock.—English Grammar, two classes; half past 12 o'clock.—Arithmetic, Mental and Written.

The annual exhibition will take place on Friday evening the 25th instant, in the Court room beginning at half past 8 o'clock. The public are cordially and earnestly invited to attend both the examination and exhibition; the former is intended to be thorough and will be made as near a test of scholarship as possible, while the latter will be a pleasing entertainment in declamation by all the male pupils attending the school at the present time. The Court House has been secured in order that the patrons of the school and the public, who are interested in the cause of education, may find it convenient to attend without much loss of time from business. The Principal hopes, therefore, to increase that interest by bringing the public in close contact with the school and identifying our citizens with its success.

In Memoriam. Dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Caroline Edwards, wife of Rev. R. J. Edwards, of the Charleston Association, who departed this life July 31st, 1880. We saw that death had claimed her for his own. As 'round the solemn altar in awe we stood. And gazed upon the silent form. Whence life had fled, and left all pale and cold. Then rose the mournful music of the dirge. Which found an echo in each anguish ed heart. While sorrow all too deep for tears had set its seal. Upon the youthful brow and o'er the silvered hair. For time and thought had fled, the land unknown. Had opened wide its portals in the night. As the spirit silent stole away. For while we slept the Reaper came. Some faces looked with pity on the prostrate form. Some afar in reverence gazed, with hearts that thrilled responsive to the dirge. Others, with accents almost sad, weeping, and some loving hand had placed. A snowy wreath upon the pulseless breast. O, Life! O, Death! thy mysteries dread. Oppress the soul and chill the throbbing heart. O, Grave! thy dreamless sleep, thy rest profound. Affire each world we yearn for beyond Earth's fever'd slumbers, his joy and his pain. To that domain whence no traveler returns.

We stood at eve beside a new-made mound. We felt the waves of hope were ebbing fast. And as the sun went down we heard the best against the dark shadows. In hollow murmurs, and all was cold and dark. So we came away and left her sleeping. Alone—just the heavens, deep and dusky. Around—only the wide, still air. M. J. E. Orangeburg, S. C. June 5th, 1880.

OFFICE OF GEO. H. CORNELSON, ORANGEBURG, S. C. The Sensation of the Period! Strange but True! HARD TIMES BE COME! HAVING been watching for some time past the financial pulse of the country and the ever varying events of the trading world with a view to the increase or decrease of our weekly purchases, we are prepared to announce to our numerous patrons that our investigation of these subjects has been perfectly satisfactory and that we have as a consequence forwarded larger orders than ever before to our New York agency. The year 1880 therefore begins with flattering prospects for farmers, mechanics and all other laborers alike. The financial pulse of the country is steadily improving and having returned almost to a hard money basis, we shall gradually but surely recover our former prestige and the so long declining prosperity of our beautiful Southern land, being restored and improved with the forebodings of these approaching events we have made arrangements commensurate with the demands they will disclose. Our Agent in New York is already in receipt of our instructions directing him to be on the alert for every sale and fill-up as well as every honest offer of the bank of bankruptcy, so that he, with cash in hand may take in every bargain and thus enable us during the present year not only to increase our own resources, but to become also a never changing source of assistance to our friends by selling their goods far below the wholesale market of New York. It was the credit system that paralyzed our industries in the past and caused so many interests to droop and wither when every article needed for family consumption doubled in value. Thus while labor was inadequately compensated, goods of every description were sold at enormous discounts and the daily sweat of man's brow barely obtained for himself and family the necessaries of life. Too much credit will always create demands greater than the sources of supply will satisfy, hence everything takes an upward tendency under its operations. On the other hand cash transactions will make the supply larger than the demand and consequently goods fall to bottom prices when this rule prevails. We pay cash for all our goods before they leave the place bought from. Hence our ability (independent of our unrivaled location) to outstrip and undersell all our competitors. The merchant who buys on time, (and who of them doesn't) not only has to pay the highest prices for what they get but also the additional percentage added on all credit sales. Now all this comes out of the consumer, the man who patronizes the cheap merchant or the one who deals in credit. We perceive that the difference between us is vast indeed, and that the buyer on credit system cannot purchase goods at market prices, while we, by paying cash, get the most extraordinary bargains at a large discount on wholesale cash prices. It is therefore quite easy for us to sell below other merchants and guarantee perfect satisfaction in every case. Our system is one of our own, and has many advantages which we shall not explain, but let it suffice that the larger portion of the benefits arising from it are reaped by our friends and patrons, and by us for we have established a reputation near and dear to us. With honesty, fair dealing, quick sales and small profits as our watchwords we have conquered the demon of high prices and forced from him the acknowledgement that he has been systematically swindling and defrauding the people. We have demonstrated to thousands in this and other counties that it is possible when dealing with a fair and honorable merchant who buys strictly for cash, to purchase goods at prices which were current before the war. To buy and sell goods does not necessarily imply that to be successful one must either be a condescending extortioner or a grasping miser. As for every other calling, the merchant can dignify and ennoble his profession or he can sink it into iniquity and trail its costly garments through cesspools of deceit, dishonesty, fraud and double distilled misrepresentations. He can be a blessing or a curse to his country. As for us we prefer a good name with low but steady income, to success to the gouging process which makes one merchant rich to-day and a thousand poor farmers penniless and breadless to-morrow. Ours is the true plan, by adopting it you avoid the Scylla of credit on the one side and the Charybdis of a lenient execution on the other. By trade with us to insure satisfaction, increase your wealth and general prosperity. Week after week during the present year we shall spread daily upon our counters a stock of goods as varied as the leaves of the forest. A cordial invitation is extended to every one who reads this circular to give us a call, or trouble to show goods or answer questions. We will sell for one dollar cash what you will pay three for in October if you buy on credit. We buy direct from the cheapest markets in America for cash less the large discount, and can and will sell as low as the wholesale merchants of this city. By trade with us more, and to those who favor us with their regular custom we offer as rare inducements as were ever offered in this or any other community. Our goods arrive weekly and must be sold, look to your interest and call on us when you visit town. Farmers, look to your own welfare, you do not have such low and lower each succeeding year while the middle men around you have grown rich in comforts and wealth, you have barely lived by working from sun to sun the year round, while others have added thousands to their already plethoric treasures, by selling on credit to you in the spring and collecting in the morning the sweat and blood of many a mercifully organized. Let our farmers eschew this in future and learn to watch as well as pray—let them break from the old beaten paths of credit and ruin, and demand an equivalent for their money. Let them aspire to higher and greater achievements. To this end we therefore cordially invite our friends to give us frequent calls and we guarantee that not one in a thousand will ever leave our counters dissatisfied. Respectfully yours, C. D.
