

"A missionary in the Great West," by Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady; "The Choir Boys of England," by Julian Ralph; "The Mysteries of the Century," "Singing 'The Messiah' on the Plains," "Behind the Scenes During a Play," "College Girls' Larks and Pranks," give an idea of the varied excellence of the April Ladies' Home Journal. Of course, Rudyard Kipling's "Just So" story, "The Elephant's Child," narrating with delightful humor how the elephant got his trunk, will be sought first and heartily enjoyed. Jan Muehlen identifies "The Genteel Tramps in Our Churches," Edward Bok points out the evils of "The Ease With Which We Marry," and "An American Mother" writes on "The American Woman in the Market-Place." "Bandanna Ballads," by Miss Howard Weeden, and "Fairies in Fannyland" combine rhythmic and artistic beauties. The first of a series of journeys "Through Picturesque America" fills two pages, and "A Successful County House in New England" and "Wellesley Girls in the Play" are also pictorial features. A fair start of the April Journal is filled with matters of interest to women. By The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

Running a Country Paper.
 Lebanon (Ky.) Falcon.
 The supreme court of Mississippi has formally declared that "damn" is not swearing, and we consequently reserve the right to use the expression every time the press breaks, or the water pipes freeze up, or a dead-head beats us out of a dollar. You can't run a country newspaper "as Jesus would," Mr. Sheldon. Some of these institutions are run without cash, and the editor lives on faith and hope and is called on for considerable charity; but further on any other way but the Sheldon plan.

A Cure for Bilious Colic.
 I was troubled with constipation for a long time. Then I began to have bilious colic, and having Ramon's Liver Pills & Tonic Pellets in my house for sale, I took two Liver Pills one week, following with one Tonic Pellet every night for two weeks. My colic spells are no more, and the constipation entirely cured. I give Ramon's Liver Pills & Tonic Pellets credit for my cure, and believe no family should be without them. I send you an order good for $3.00 worth.—H. C. Roberts, Silver Hill, Sevier Co., Ark.

The halo a man sees on a girl's head during courtship evolves into an expensive hat after marriage.

Praise a woman's beauty and she will mildly deny it, she agree with her and she will get angry.

It is hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by Dr. D. C. Scott.

Every woman thinks if a man had good sense he wouldn't marry any other but her.

To err is human—and to stick to it is still more so.

Why does a man look at the face of a bride, and a woman at her clothes.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. Meakle, General Merchant and farmer, Eattie, Bedford county, Pa. For sale by Dr. D. C. Scott.

The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since, and it never fails." For sale by Dr. D. C. Scott.
