In Memory of Little Bessie Laird.

There is no flock, however watched and tended,
But one dead lamb is there.

There is no fireside, however defined,
But has one vacant chair.

Let us be patient. These severe afflictions
Not from the ground arise.

But oftentimes celestial benedictions
Assume this dark disguise.

There is no death: what seems so is Transition.

This life of mortal breath
Is but a suburb of the life elysian,
Whose portal we call death.

Bessie is not dead, the child of our affection,
But gone unto that school

Where she no longer needs our poor protection,
And Christ himself doth rule.

In that great cloister's stillness and seclusion,
By guardian angels led

Safe from temptation, safe from sin's pollution,
Bessie lives whom we call dead.

Not as a child shall we again behold her:
For when with raptures wild

In our embraces we again unfold her,
Bessie will not be a child.

But a fair maiden in her Father's mansion,
Clothed with celestial grace:

And beautiful, with all the soul's expansion,
Shall we behold her face.

We will be patient and assuage the feeling
We may not wholly stay:

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The great grief that must have way.

Lambert Letter.

Farmers are very busy finishing planting. Some are not through planting corn; others are making headway putting in cotton seed.

Mrs. S. L. Altman, of Vox, has been here on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Bartley Haddy, for the past week. She called in to see us last Saturday. Mrs. Altman is always a welcome visitor.

Measles has broken out again; young Mr. Charley Haselden has a well developed case of it.

Mr. Joe Davis Haselden's baby, about seven months of age, has whooping cough, also Mr. L. H. Douglas' little boy, and a number of others. There is some mumps, too, in this section.

Easter Sunday was a very pleasant day here.

Messrs. George and Walter Hemingway were at Lambert, Friday, 13th ult. They are always pleasant visitors at Lambert.

Wishing the Editor of THE CORNER RECORD much success, we will close for this time.

Ego.

Biggle Berry Book, being No. 2 of the Biggle Books, is all about berries. A whole encyclopedia of berry lore boiled down after the manner of the Farm Journal. Tell about varieties, about planting, growing, marketing, cultivating, picking and marketing. It gives practical pointers from the pens of scores of leading berry growers from all parts of the country who have contributed to its columns. It has colored representations of berries true to size and color, thirty-three portraits of practical berrymen, and thirty-five other illustrations, handsomely bound in cloth. The price is 50 cents, by mail. Address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson, Philadelphia, Pa.

Patience is very good, but perseverance is much better. While the former stands as a stoic under difficulties, the latter whips them out of the ring.

A Life and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50¢ and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Wallace & Johnson's drugstore.

It doesn't matter about beauty being only skin deep, as long as it's worn outside.

HE FOOLED THE SURGEONS.

All doctors told Renek Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on earth, and the best Salve in the world. 25 cents a box. Sold by Wallace & Johnson's druggist.

The man who has plenty of gold can put a gilt edge on almost any old thing.

Glorious News.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved.—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Wallace & Johnson, druggist.

Qualification for Voting in the Primary.

The qualification for membership in any subordinate club of the Democratic party of this State, or for voting at a Democratic primary, shall be as follows, viz: The applicant for membership, or voter, shall be 21 years of age, or shall become so before the succeeding general election, and be a white Democrat or a negro who voted for Gen. Hampton in 1876, and who voted the Democratic ticket continuously since. Provided that no white man shall be excluded from participation in the Democratic primary who shall take the pledge required by the rules of the Democratic party.

Indiantown Inklings.

Tobacco transplanting is progressing finely. Most of the "weed" has been set out.

Cotton planting had a set back on account of the rain which has been falling almost incessantly from last Wednesday to Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Stucky, of Darlington are on a visit to their son of this section.

Mad dogs are common; one attacked Mr. S. D. Cunningham the other day in his field but fortunately no damage was done.

Mr. R. D. Gamble of this place made last year 4900 lbs., of tobacco on 2 1/2 acres of land. I do not believe it can be beat in the bright tobacco belt.

Mr. P. A. Albrook is on a visit to his old home, Manning S. C.

Mr. F. L. McCullough passed down on his way to Docks a few evenings ago. Lots of attraction in that part of the country.

NIGHTINGALE.

Death of Kate Cooper.

Kate Cooper, daughter of Ellison Cooper, colored, was born August 26, 1862, and died April 27, 1900. She was a Sunday-school teacher and faithful member of Eli church.

Let us all take courage;
We're not left alone;

The life boat soon is coming,
To bear us to our Fathers' home.

THE APPETITE OF A GOAT.

Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose stomach and liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful stomach and liver remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 50¢ at Wallace & Johnson's drugstore.

PROOF.

It is an easy matter to claim that a remedy has wonderful curative power. The Manufacturers of leave it to those who have been permanently and positively cured of RHEUMATISM to make claims. Among those who have recently written us voluntary letters saying they have been cured are: Rev. J. L. Foster, Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. J. E. Robinson, Editor Goldsboro, N. C.; Daily Argus; Mr. A. Daus, a prominent merchant, Macon, Ga.; and Mr. W. B. Duke, railroad man, Kansas City, Mo.

RHEUMACIDE
