

IN MEMORIAM.

John Redden Scott Formerly of This County.

[Sumterville, Florida Times.] Scott—Brother John R. Scott was born in Charleston county, South Carolina, October 29th, 1839.

He was converted in 1857 under the ministry of Rev. William Jones, of the South Carolina Conference, and united with the Methodist church. He came to Florida in January 1861. He first served as clerk in a store in the town of Sumterville; afterwards he taught school for a short while.

In July 1864 he entered in the Confederate army. He belonged to company G, of the 24th Florida regiment, and held the office of lieutenant, and is said to have been very popular with his comrades in arms and to have been a true and gallant soldier. He was taken prisoner at the last battle of Marfree-berough, and was carried to Fort Delaware, N. J., where he remained until the war closed. He contracted the disease of which he died by exposure during the war. It first assumed the form of catarrh and later developed into consumption. After the war he returned to Sumter county, where he spent the remainder of his life.

He was united in marriage on January the 18th 1870, to Miss Francis C Tompkins of this county. To them were born seven children six of whom are living; his wife, also, survives him.

Brother Scott seems to have enjoyed the implicit confidence and highest regards of all who knew him. He served his county as treasurer for a long term of years, beginning in 1885. In 1898 he refused to be re-nominated as a candidate for office.

I visited him several times during his last sickness and he always expressed himself as being fully prepared and perfectly willing, even anxious, to depart and be with Christ. On Wednesday, February the 28th, he called his family around his bed and exhorted them to prepare to meet him in Heaven, telling them one more week he would be at home.

On the 29th of last October, being his 61th birth day, he exerted himself and went to the table and lined for the last time with his family.

He held family prayers after he was too weak to bow in prayer. He was conscious to the last, and only a very short while before his departure he insisted on his family sending for help that they might not be alone when he died. He passed away peacefully at 10 minutes to 7 o'clock p. m., March the 8th, 1900.

He laid his body to rest in Oak Grove cemetery in this county, on Friday the 9th inst., in the presence of a large gathering of friends and loved ones.

While this is a sad bereavement, yet thank the Lord this man was not as those who have no hope. Dear sleeping ones, look to Him who alone can prepare you for a happy meeting, where good eyes are never sad and sorrow can never enter. R. M. EVANS.

Tortured a Witness.

Intense suffering was endured by witness T. L. Martin, of Dixie, Ky., before he gave this evidence; I coughed every night until my throat was nearly raw; then tried Dr. King's New Discovery which gave instant relief. I have used it in my family for four years and recommend it as the greatest remedy for coughs, colds and all throat, chest and lung troubles. It will stop the worst cough and not only prevent but absolutely cures consumption. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Wallace & Johnson's Drug Store.

Lambert Letter.

The farmers in this section are busily engaged in fighting general green, six days in a week, and are succeeding well this fine weather.

Mr. Henry Newell lost a young horse week before last. It died from indigestion of the lungs.

Mr. James Douglas, his mother, wife and all of his children are down with measles.

Miss Stella Adman, an accomplished young lady of Vero, and her brother, Emory Clinton, came down last Friday on a visit to their sister, Mrs. Bartley Eaddy.

Dr. Walter Hummingway has located at Lambert, to practice medicine. He has repaired the upper story of the Lambert store house where he has a nice office, and quite an assortment of drugs. The people are already patronizing the young doctor, and we bespeak great success for him in his profession.

Mr. Henry Newell's son has been very sick for several weeks. He first had the grip, followed by whooping-cough and measles. He has been very sick, but when last heard from he was better.

Mr. Bartley Eaddy has been wearing a very pleasant smile for three weeks; the cause of which was the advent of a new born son.

Mrs. G. W. Lambert, of Florida, was brought to her mother's, Mrs. A. L. Simmons, after she died in Fla. The burial took place last Friday at Johnsonville church.

We have heard the whistle of Messrs Haselden & Eaddy's new mill on Johnsonville for the past two weeks. E. O.

Epps' Ecloges.

The farmers in this section had their crops in excellent condition when the rain came last week.

Rev. J. J. McConnell delivered an interesting and impressive sermon at Beulah Church last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Bettie Epps, one of our most attractive young ladies, is visiting friends at Indiantown.

Mr. B. W. Bryan, a popular young man from the King-tree section, was in our community last Sunday mingling with his many friends.

Mr. Jim Seary, of Georgetown, spent last Sunday at this place.

Miss Rhoda McConnell, one of Indiantown's fairest young ladies, delighted her friends at this place with a visit last Sunday.

Miss Mollie Epps, of Kingtree, has gone to Chicago to spend the summer. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Beulah Epps. We wish them a pleasant visit. B. W. STAM.

Biggie Horse Book is as full of good sense as an egg is of meat. Its motto, "Always speak to a horse as you would to a gentleman," is the keynote of its treatment of the whole subject. There are twenty-five chapters, including advice on feeding and watering, stable management, whims and vices, ailments and their remedies, harness hints, about stables, colts' education, care of the feet, etc. Many of the illustrations have been made from life. The book is handsomely printed and substantially bound in cloth. The price 50 cents, by mail; address the publisher, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia, Jay, S. C. Z H McDANIEL.

Walking Delegates.

Quite a number of walking delegates will attend the State convention to-day. And they are well known South Carolinians, too. They did not come to Columbia with any small-scale notions, but they became walking delegates after their arrival.

The reason of it is because Columbia has become so popular as a stopping place for traveling men and others that the hotels are filled when in a normal condition. But whenever a convention comes along all the boarding houses which advertise in the State and a good many others fill up rapidly and all accommodations are taxed.

Among the prominent gentlemen walking the street last night at 1 o'clock looking for a place to rest were Senator A. H. Williams and Capt. W. H. Kennedy, of Williamsburg. Both have been coming to Columbia for years, and neither expected to find such a state of affairs, nor well or any other time, although Capt. Kennedy had tough luck here once before—when he belonged to a convention of Democrats assembled to cheer as long as possible the advance of the army of Sherman.—The State.

School Closing.

The closing exercises of the Hebron High school will take place on June 1st, 2nd and 3rd. A very interesting program has been prepared for the occasion and all who attend will be pleasantly and profitably entertained.

The exercises will begin promptly at 8 o'clock on Friday evening, and will consist of recitations, dialogues, etc., and addresses by Hon. C. W. Wolfe and Rev. J. E. Rushton. On Saturday morning, June 2d, at 10:30, Prof. John G. Clinkscades, of Wofford College, will be present and make an address, after which dinner will be served. Prof. Clinkscades will also deliver an address on Sunday morning on the Twentieth Century movement. He is a fluent and instructive speaker, and a real treat is in store for all who hear him on this occasion.

The public is cordially invited to attend all of these exercises. Bring your basket with you on Saturday. P. M. TERRY.

A Woman's Wonderful Fall.

"There's only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lake Park, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed and she constantly grew weaker. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful stomach, liver and kidney remedy. Cures dyspepsia, loss of appetite. Try it only 25c. Guaranteed. For sale by Wallace & Johnson, druggists.

Never marry a girl whose religious belief is different from yours.

A Fast Bicycle Rider.

Will often receive painful sprains or bruises from accidents. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will lift the pain and heal the injury. It's the cyclist's friend. Cures chafing, chapped hands, sore lips, burns, ulcers and piles. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Try it. Sold by Wallace & Johnson, druggists.

The colored paintings of Poultry in Biggie Poultry Book cost $1,000 to paint and reproduce. The work was done by one of the leading live stock artists of the country. Biggie Poultry Book costs but 50 cents, send to the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

LOST.

On Friday afternoon, between Kingtree and Epps' postoffice, a .38-caliber Smith & Wesson pistol. Suitable reward will be paid for same if delivered at the County Record office. Jay, S. C. Z H McDANIEL.
