Mr. W. Eugene Cook was in town Friday from Scranton.

Dr. W. S. Lynch and H. G. Askins, Esq., visited friends in town Sunday.

Mrs. E. T. Sweet went to Scranton Monday to visit her brother, Mr. B. C. Whitehead.

A shed is being built over the exposed part of the A. C. L. depot, which fills a long felt need.

Mr. R. D. Rollins went to Columbia Friday to meet the State Democratic executive committee.

Mr. John W. Marshall, of Trio, was in town Monday and shoved up his subscription figures one year.

A large new sign bearing the legend, "County Dispensary," indicates to the wayfarer where his thirst can be assuaged.

Messrs. Bryant and Sam Myers and George Keith came over Sunday from Gourdin's and spent the day with the family of Mr. B. H. Myers.

Mr. R. A. Cart and family, after spending a fortnight visiting friends in Kingstree, returned this week to their home in Charleston.

Mr. Charles J. Epps arrived Tuesday to spend a short vacation with his parents near Kingstree. Mr. Epps now holds a fine position as pharmacist in Newberry.

Appointments to scholarships at the Charleston Medical college have been made by Gov. McSweeney in the 1st and 6th district as follows: First district, Miss Annabella K. Prentiss, of Charleston; sixth district, W. B. Young, of Timmonsville.

Look through the columns of THE RECORD for the announcements of our enterprising, up-to-the-times merchants. Every friend of this newspaper will confer a favor by patronizing those who advertise with us. It will also be to your interest to do this, as those houses which have no bargains to offer can't advertise them.

The following from town and county were among those who took in the Darlington excursion to Charleston Monday: Mrs. J. P. and Miss Beulah Nelson, Messrs. E. L. Hirsch, Jim McCutchen, Hamp Edwards, Ben Mouzon, A. J. Smith, Burgess, Phelps, W. E. Cook, Reardon, Arrowsmith, Burnette, and several others whose names were not ascertained. All the excursionists seem to have had a good time.

I represent United States Mutual and Fidelity Co., of Baltimore, Md., and will be glad to write bonds for county officials needing them. My company is one of the staunchest in the world and the rates as low as any reliable indemnity bond company.

C. W. WOLFE

Miss Estelle Lee, a sister of Mr. LeRoy Lee, has enrolled as a pupil of the graded school.

Mr. Charles Lesesne was in Charleston on business Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Miss Eleanor Hawkins, of Lynchburg, has been visiting the family of her uncle, Mr. W. P. Hawkins, several days this week.

Mr. Burrie Brockinton, of Mouzons, left for Orangeburg Monday to attend the Collegiate Institute at that place.

Mr. W. E. Severance, of Lake City, while in town Wednesday, paid us a short call. Mr. Severance is a genial and popular traveling salesman and has a number of friends here.

Misses Lida and Addie Ferguson, of Laurens, are spending a few days with Mrs. C. M. Chandler. The former will in a few days begin her school near Fowlers, where she taught last session.

Miss Marie Thorn, one of the brightest and most attraction young girls of which our town can boast, took her departure for Raleigh, N. C., Monday afternoon, where she will enter St. Mary's Female College. Miss Marie is sure to achieve a fine record.

Miss Selden Epps, the fortunate winner of the Winthrop scholarship, has gone to Rock Hill to take her place at that popular institution of learning. Those who know Miss Epps feel assured that she will prove a fine representative of Williamsburg's talented young ladies.

Lambert Letter.

Refreshing rains have fallen during the past few days.

A baby girl brought joy to the household of Mr. Mrs. Joe Haselden last Monday.

On Friday of the same week a boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Hughs. But alas! on the following Monday the life of the mother ebbed away. About midnight Mrs. Hughes calmly told her family that she must die. She professed a willingness to meet the dread summons, only regretting to be taken from her loved ones. Thus triumphantly does the true christian conquer the last great enemy, Death. Mrs. Hughes leaves a devoted husband and eight living children bereaved of a devoted wife and mother. The remains were laid to rest at Muddy Creek church Tuesday morning.

Your scribe was at Mr. J. J. Altman's Tuesday grading tobacco. Mr. J. B. Altman, who was to be there also, turned up late in the afternoon explaining his non-appearance by the announcement that a bright little "stranger" of the feminine persuasion had arrived at his house that morning. His explanation was eminently satisfactory, and congratulations were in order.

The holiness brethren are conducting a meeting of indefinite length near this place. We learn that there are ten or twelve preachers in attendance.

Mr. Albert Simmons is behind the counter of Messrs. W. C. Heringway & Co's Lambert store. Much success to THE COUNTY RECORD. Ego.

THE GRADED SCHOOL

Opens on Monday with an Encouraging Attendance.

The graded school opened auspiciously Monday morning with all the teachers in their places and a flattering attendance of pupils. Up to Wednesday the enrolment was increased to eighty, and the prospects of a good school are brighter than ever before. With two rooms added to the building, well equipped with modern facilities for teaching, the accommodations are ample for a large attendance.

The faculty is composed of experienced teachers, chosen especially to meet the requirements of the school, and there is no reason why the present session should not be successful in every respect.

Prof. W. W. Boddie, the principal, is a graduate of North Carolina State University, and comes with an experience of several years in graded school work. He is a young man, full of vim and energy, and with his able assistants, will no doubt bring the school to a high state of excellence.

Miss Amelia Kennedy, of Yorkville, comes highly recommended from the Georgetown graded schools, where she taught last session, after graduation at Erskine College. Miss Kennedy has charge of the intermediate grades.

Miss Nina Riser, the primary teacher, received her educational training at Greenville Female College, where she also took a post graduate course. She has devoted her attention to primary teaching, and is well prepared for that department of work.

The trustees are to be congratulated on the fine corps of teachers they have secured, and now if the patrons will do their part, the opportunity is ripe to build up a school that will be a pride to Kingstree and Williamsburg county.

George P. Logan Esq., a member of the Columbia bar, is visiting his parents in town.

HERE WE ARE AGAIN!

Like old Mother Holle in the delightful folklore of ancient Germany. Old Mother Holle had charge of the wonderful Horn of Plenty, from which, on her occasional visits to earth, she supplied the wants of her favored people with a liberal hand. So the Old Reliable comes to visit you through The Record with his customary store of "Pfanis"—that is, bargains right in the line of your fall needs.

HERE ARE MATCHLESS BARGAINS

One million good school Slate Pencils, worth five times more at other places, our price for the season, 5 for 1 cent.

25 dozen Men's Fine Neckwear, special job, worth 50 cents, our price while they last, 15 cents.

12 dozen ready hemmed 70-4 Bed Spreads worth $1 and $1.25, our special price 75 cents.

25 dozen Men's Standing and Turndown Collars, worth 10 cents everywhere, our price 5 cents.
