Among the Churches.

On account of having to conduct the funeral services of a member of his congregation in Florence, Rev. R. W. Barnwell failed to meet his appointment at the Episcopal chapel here Friday morning and evening of last week.

Rev. J. E. Dunlop preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon to an attentive and appreciative congregation. Mr. Dunlop has been spending some time in the up-country for his health, and his parishioners are glad to welcome him back, especially as his health seems to be much better.

As was announced last week, Rev. W. H. Hodges preached in the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Hodges was formerly pastor of this charge and has many friends here. Both his sermons were forcible and impressive and were attentively listened to by his hearers.

EDITOR'S AWFUL PLIGHT.
FM Higgins, Editor Seneca (Ills.) News, was afflicted for years with piles that no doctor or remedy helped until he tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world. He writes, two boxes wholly cured him. Infalible for piles. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by Wallace & Johnson druggists.

When patronizing a Boston hotel don't forget that "culinary symposium" on the bill of fare means hash.

The undersigned, after a successful practice of Dentistry for thirty-four years, is now located at Kingstree, at the Brockinton house, where he is prepared to do anything in the Dental line at cut rate prices. Live and let live, is his motto. No shoddy work shall pass the portals of his office. Satisfaction guaranteed. A trial is solicited Respectfully,

A. M. SNIDER,
Dental surgeon.
