Tribute of Respect.

In loving remembrance of Samuel Luther, the thirteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McConnell, who died near Greens, S. C., on Sunday, October 14, 1900. He was sick only two days, and in spite of everything that loving hands could do nothing seemed to relieve him. Although of such a tender age he bore his sufferings with great fortitude. Our hearts go out in sympathy to the bereaved parents.

And is thy lovely spirit fled? Yet stop these fruitless tears. He from a thousand pangs is freed, You from a thousand fears.

Tho' lost, he's lost to earth alone, Above he will be found.

Amidst the stars and near the throne, Which babes like him surround.

Look upward and your child you'll see, Fixed in his blest abode.

What parents would not childless be, To give a child to God?

Obituary.

On Wednesday evening, October 10, 1900, the Angel of Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Baxley, near Lambert, S. C., and claimed as his victim their little daughter Olga, aged two years, seven months and twenty-three days. Her malady was a painful one, but she endured it patiently. Although so young her parents had taught her her prayers, and she said them regularly. Why God took away so sweet and innocent a young life we cannot tell, but we know that He does all things for the best. While it is hard to give her up, is a joy to know that she is forever at rest with her Saviour, who while on earth said: "Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

The remains were laid to rest at Johnsonville burying ground Thursday evening following her death. Rev. Daniel Durant, who conducted the funeral services, made some very impressive remarks on the assurance of little children being saved.

WINE of CARDUI

With the exception of a discolored eye, anything hand-painted is fashionable.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whisky in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by Dr. D. C. Scott.
