

Positively No New Display Advertisements Will be Received, or Old Ones Changed, Later Than Tuesday Morning.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST.

AFFAIRS CAUGHT BY OUR LOCAL REPORTER AND NOTED.

Written in Condensed Form and Printed in Like Manner for the Sake of Our Busy Readers.

Mrs. M. F. Heller is visiting relatives in Georgetown this week.

Messrs. J. F. and T. M. Cooper were in town Tuesday on business.

Mr. Ned Rhodus, of Greeleyville, was in town Monday.

Mrs. J. M. Barineau, of Epps, died last Saturday.

See W. T. Wilkins' new ad this week.

Mr. W. P. Benton, of Wadesboro, N. C. is visiting in town this week.

Messrs. Cooper Bros. and Mr. W. W. Barr each lost a valuable mule last week.

We haven't lost sight of our new feature. Look for it next week.

Mrs. L. J. Master William and Miss Louise Barr spent last Saturday at Benson.

The council says hog must go. People have until 18th to get clear of them.

The many friends of Judge S. McB. Scott were delighted to see him on our streets again.

Mr. M. Cullen, Western Union operator at Barr's Hotel, spent Sunday at Benson.

Two prisoners escaped from the chain gang Sunday. Full account in Lake City correspondence.

We were glad to see Mr. Charley Burgess, of Monzon, on our streets a short while Monday.

Miss Louise Gilland returned from Florence Monday, where she has been visiting the past week.

Strawberries are coming in quite freely now from Lake City. They retail here at 10c per quart.

Miss Fannie Epps visited her parents last Saturday, accompanied by Miss Alice McCullough, of Greens.

Capt. Edwin Harper has resigned from the board of health and Mr. Jno. A. Scotts has been appointed on the Board in his stead.

The following cases came before Judge Stutts last week: State vs. Nell Tharpe, assault and battery, guilty; fine $4.50, paid. State vs. Sam Shaw, malicious trespass, guilty; fine of $15 paid.

If you want a Piano or Organ write to B. O. Bristow, Darlington, S. C.

JOB PRINTING.

With the increased facilities of a completely equipped and up-to-date job office at Georgetown in addition to our Kingstree office, we are now prepared to do any kind of job and book printing in the most correct and approved style. When you want ANYTHING printed—from a visiting card to a newspaper or a book—hand us your order.

Cultivate your tobacco and cotton with a Cotton King. We have them for sale cheap. W. T. Askins.

Our Gold Medal Flour is the best and cheapest. W. T. Askins.

Mrs. W. G. Gamble and son spent the greater part of last week in Columbia.

Rev. Mr. Gresham preached at the Baptist church on Sabbath last, morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Harby, of Sumter, spent last Friday in town visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Heller.

Rev. R. C. Boulware, of Indiantown, will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

It's always best to be on the safe side. An ounce of prevention is worth 100 pounds of cure, some times.

Memorial day was observed here by the ladies with usual ceremonies in decorating the graves of our dead heroes.

Miss Hattie Phelps returned from Charleston Saturday evening where she has been spending some time with relatives.

Superintendent of Education Cooper will be in his office here after every Monday along with all the other county officers.

We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mr. Robt. Bell, son of J. C. Bell, of Indiantown. Dr. Johnson is attending him.

Mr. B. P. Fulton, of Foreston, visited his father, Mr. Robert Fulton, Sr., last Sunday. Mr. Fulton has been quite unwell for some time.

Mr. Jacobi, of Florence, has leased the Atlantic Beach Hotel Sullivan's Island and will throw open doors to the public June 1st. Mr. Jacobi is a good hotel man.

Monday brought very few people to town. It's a busy time with farmers and they have got to stay stay around close by the cotton patch to save it.

There will be a meeting of the citizens Friday night at the Court House to discuss the ways and means of improving the fire system of our town. Those interested are earnestly requested to attend.

The town council met Monday night. Nothing of interest was done except to put a stop to ball playing on the streets; and it was ordered that all persons needing earth to fill up old unused wells could get the same from the hill at the west end of Main Street.

Mrs. J. T. Cohen and her daughter, Miss Tessie, and son, Master Jerome, have returned to their home in Savannah after spending a pleasant visit in Kingstree with Mrs. Cohen's daughter, Mrs. Louis Schultz. Mr. Schultz is one of the rising merchants of Kingstree.

Mr. J. C. McElveen, of Spring Bank, paid us a pleasant call Tuesday. He is anxious to get up a telephone line that will run from Lake City around through their section on to Kingstree. He warmly endorses Mr. Gowdy's proposition. Wake up along the line and lets have the telephone system.

Call and see Wilkins' stock before buying.

Another car-load, nice White Corn. W. T. Askins.

Dixie Mosquito Canopy Frames and Nets at Wilkins.

Miss Rebeca Myers is visiting in Lake City.

Mr. M. F. Heller ran over to Georgetown Monday.

Mr. Sam Brockinton and wife, of Black Mings, are visiting at Mr. Hudnall's.

Dr. Gamble was called to Gourdin's Tuesday to see the children of Mr. A. M. Gordon.

Mr. Jas. F. Johnson representing Pearre Bros., Baltimore, was in town Wednesday.

J. D. Scott, of D. A. Walker & Co., of Charleston, oldest marble yard in America, is in town.

Miss Sally Wilson has been sick for several days, and we were pleased to see her out again yesterday.

Capt. G. P. Nelson spent last Sunday at Indiantown. He reports things down there in fine condition, crops coming to a stand and looking well.

All aboard for Buffalo! The great Pan-American Exposition is now in full blast; doors wide open ready to receive you. Let every person who can go.

We are requested to state that there will be union services at the A. M. E. church in Kingstree on the fifth Sunday in June. Revs. Wm. Steele and J. F. Gillison conducting the same.

Mr. W. P. Hawkins, instead of Mr. McCall, is to be one of the partners in, and manager of the new firm that will soon go into the live stock business at Manning that we spoke of in last week's issue.

LeRoy Lee, Esq., went over to Sumter last week on professional business and expects to go there again to-day, looking after the interests of his clients. Mr. Lee is certainly building up an enviable reputation and ranks here to-day as one of the leading lawyers.

Abraham Lincoln, once said:—"Die, when I may, I want it said of me by those who knew me best that I always plucked a thistle and planted a flower where I thought a flower would grow."

Just received two car loads White Corn. Buy before prices goes higher. Barr & Co. adv.

Patronize Home Industry.

We will duplicate prices on any bill of groceries bought in Charleston or Wilmington. Come and see us before placing your orders. Barr & Co.

I want to say to my friends and the public generally that I am not in business for fun or for my health. I have a large and well selected stock of goods bought at the very lowest prices with the cash, which I desire to sell and will do so at a very close margin. I make a specialty of Shoes and Clothing, and will sell cheap. I do not care to cast a shadow over my competitors by giving prices. I only ask you to come and see for yourselves. I guarantee satisfaction to all. W. W. Grayson.

Come in and see our Men's Summer Clothing. Suits from $3.00 up—Boys Nice Crash Suits $1.00. W. T. Askins.

We are closing out Hay. Come early and get your supply. Barr & Co.

Tapping Gently at the Door.

We intend to tap gently at the door of every home in Kingstree and Williamsburg county with our sledge hammer prices until the shall become a household word in every home in Williamsburg county. Some of the people of Williamsburg have already opened their doors wide and have given us a hearty welcome and are sending us their orders. But now what we need is an entrance into more of the homes of Williamsburg. And, my friends, a trial order will convince you that we are worthy of patronage and confidence. You run no risk in sending us a trial order, for we prepay the express charges on all orders amounting to $5 and over, and you are at liberty to send back anything that is not satisfactory, and as to our responsibility you are referred to the Bank of Manning or any court house official of Clarendon county.

Jenkinson Dry Goods Store

Space will not permit a long description of goods this week, but the following will suffice to show that we intend to gain admittance into the homes of Williamsburg by offering first class goods at sensational values. Nice fast colored Shirting Prints at 3 1/2c per yard; very nice yard wide Madras Percals at 5c a yard; nice white India Lawns at 5c, 10c, 15c, 20c, 25c and 30c a yard; fine Sea Island Percals, 36 inches wide, only 10c, the kind that sells for 12 1/2c; fine figured Lawns and Families at 8c, 10c and 15c a yard; white Pink and Blue Organdies, 2 yards wide, at 35c per yard; fine white Dotted Swisses at 10c, 15c, 25c, 35c, and 50c per yard; black Taffeta Silks, 2 1/2 inches wide, at 60c, 80c and 1 1/2 yard; black Armoir Silks at $1.25 a yard; black Pean de Soir Silks, at $1.25 a yard. A full line of figured Silks and Taffeta Silks in all shades from 75c to $1.50 a yard for dress and waist. A beautiful line of wash silks at 25c a yard. All kinds of black and colored dress goods at the lowest possible prices. Samples sent cheerfully on application.

If you need a nice Spring Hat or Bonnet all you have to do is send us a description of what you need and about what you wish it to cost and we will send it to you, and if it is not just what you need you return it at our expense.

Young gents, if you need a nice Spring Suit, or a nice Negligee Shirt, Collars, Cuffs, or a fine pair of Shoes, just make known what you need to us and we will send them by return express, and if they don't please you why they are our goods and no expense to you. Send us your orders; we pay the express.

W. E. JENKINSON, Manning, S. C.

COMING IN NOW!

A BEAUTIFUL LINE OF

Ladies' Dress Goods,

- Consisting of Lawns from 5c up.
- Organdies from 10c up.
- Percals 7 1/2c, worth 8c.
- Hamilton Prints 5c.

Soliciting your patronage, I am, ladies, yours to command.

H. D. REDDICK

READY FOR SPRING, 1901.

If there is one time in the year when a man wants to look unusually neat and fresh and well-dressed, it is spring. And if there is one year and one store more than another to satisfy this natural desire, it is this year and this store. We present to the particular dresser of this locality our new spring line of Suits, Hats, Neckwear and Underwear.

All of our last year's spring suits, $16, $14 and $12, we have marked down to $8. A peep in our window will convince you. These suits are all hand-made button-holes, and all the canvas in them are well shrunk so that they will not lose their shape on wearing them.

Call and see the new celebrated spring style YOUNG'S HAT, union made, at $3. Sole agent for this city.

In our merchant-tailor department we are the only concern in this city that will make you a suit of clothes from $13 to $45 that is made up by union tailors, having the union label on each suit.

A. H. BROWN'S GRANITE CLOTHING HOUSE,

224 King St. Opposite Academy of Music, Charleston, S. C.
Mall orders promptly attended to!

