The Editor and His Wife.

"The editor and his wife disagree with each other very materially. She sets things to rights and he writes things to set. She reads what others write and he writes what others read. She keeps the devil out of the house as much as possible and he detains him and could not go to press without him. She knows more things than she writes and he writes more things than he knows."—Ex.

In recommending it to friends who suffer from indigestion I always offer to pay for it if it fails. Thus far I have never paid." Dr. W. V. Brockington.
