

Cuffs as Postal Cards.

Well-starched cuffs as correspondence cards is one of the latest fads. A two-cent stamp is placed on one side of the cuff and this side is properly addressed. The message is written on the reverse side. As the required postage is on this rather novel card of course the postal authorities see that it is properly delivered.

Some of the cuff messages, however, are not sent as novelties. They are sent in grim seriousness. One of the most recent of this character was the message sent by a laundress to a customer. It contained the dates and amounts of the various bills for washing his linen which he had neglected to pay.

All sorts and conditions of cuffs are used. The brilliantly colored cuff of a fancy shirt may come in the same bag with a white cuff. The neatly laundered cuff as well as one that has been doing duty at both ends as side by side. The new cuff whose frayed edges have been trimmed by shears can also be found in the mail.

POWERFUL MEN OF THE EAST.

An Interesting Explanation of their Unusual Strength.

The Secret of their Marvellous Vitality and Nerve Force Jealously Guarded.

Women of the Harem Compound a Potion Whose Rejuvenating Effects are Almost Miraculous and Astonished the Most Skeptical.

The fondest hopes of ancient or modern seekers after the Fountain of Perpetual Youth, can scarcely have aimed higher than the results achieved by the marvellous compound, known throughout the East as EL MOKBIR.

Travelers returning to Europe have, from time to time, brought astonishing tales of the rejuvenating effects produced by this Wonder of the Orient.

Crudely compounded by the Women of the Harem, from formulas handed down orally from generation to generation, the secret of this preparation thus jealously guarded and known only to the inmates of the Harem and the Court Physicians, EL MOKBIR has been practically unobtainable, excepting by the favored ones for whom it was intended.

Recently, however, a prominent native Arabian Physician, banished from his country for political offense, and deprived of his vast possessions, has availed himself of his knowledge, to earn a livelihood befitting his station, by supplying this marvellous compound, EL MOKBIR, to the nobility and wealthier classes of all Europe, who have cheerfully paid him large fees in return for the benefits received.

Content with the large income derived from this practice, this aged Physician has repeatedly refused very liberal offers made to him for the formula of his Remedy, but he has finally agreed with the importing house of The Noyes-Fuller Company, of Philadelphia, to put it up in convenient form for sale exclusively in the United States, and this firm having the exclusive agency, now offers it for the first time to the American public.

This Remedy must not be confounded with the numerous nervous exhaustion, lost manhood, and self abuse remedies which are advertised under a variety of names, as there is absolutely nothing which scientific chemistry has been able to produce, which can even approach the peerless EL MOKBIR, a purely vegetable compound, extracted from rare tropical roots and herbs.

EL MOKBIR is a Remedy for one specific purpose, which is to strengthen the vital force and prevent decay in Men, its marvellous effects in arresting decay of the vital principles, especially in the male, being unparalleled and never-failing, and as its use is universal all over the East, where strong, virile men with large families of descendants are the rule, there must be no doubt, either as to its efficiency or benefit to the general system.

While it is an absolute specific and positively guaranteed to cure the worst case of nervous debility, lost manhood, or similar weaknesses due to excesses or youthful errors, it is also used with the greatest success as a vitality, giving power to all weak parts and developing and maintaining the full natural vigor of manhood.

It is put up for the American trade in tablet form, and though extremely powerful, it is perfectly harmless and easily taken, one tablet being a dose and doing the work at once, and so evidently as to leave no doubt in the mind of the patient. It will cure you so as to stay cured.

Every package is opened and carefully examined by the importers when received, and is then repacked under their seal and positive guarantee to cure. It will be sent prepaid, under plain cover, with full and complete directions, on receipt of the price $1.00 per package, or six packages for $5.00, Address The Noyes-Fuller Company, Market and 24th Sts., Philadelphia.

BOERS MAKE APPEAL

Make Formal Representations to The Hague.

ACCUSATIONS AGAINST BRITISH.

Declare That The English Have Violated the Rules of Civilized Warfare.

New York, Special.—Chas. D. Pierce, representative in the United States of the Orange Free State, has received a copy of the proposition made by the Boers to the administrative council of the permanent court of arbitration at The Hague. The appeal, which is dated The Hague, September 10, begins by reciting the fact that The Hague convention had provided a way for the pacific settlement of international differences whereby the jurisdiction of the permanent court could be extended to difference between powers which had not become signatories as agreed between the powers which had become and those who had not become signatories. The appeal continues:

"Now that this war has gone on gaily three years without any prospect of an end thereto except in the way of the recently acknowledged as being most efficacious and at the same time the most equitable means of deciding international differences.

"The States represented by the undersigned therefore consider that they should repeal the proposal already made by them before the war but rejected by England to submit to arbitration the settlement of the differences which arise to the war.

"In this they particularly have in view the question whether England is right in alleging that any act was taken by the republics which had for its object the suppression of the engagement or its expulsion from South Africa and generally whether the republics have been made themselves guilty of any act which according to internationally recognized principles would give England the right to deprive them of their independence.

"The undersigned moreover allege that England already at the outbreak of the war commenced and has ever continued to act in contravention of the rules of war between civilized powers, and has moreover by proclamation issued by Field Marshal Lord Kitchener, virtually notified that she intends shortly to take action in contravention of article 20.

"The governments of the States represented by the undersigned are fully prepared as soon as an opportunity there shall be afforded them, to substantiate the allegations herein made by setting forth and proving the facts to which they refer.

"Since England sees fit to deny this continual violation of the laws of warfare, the States represented by the undersigned consider that they may also ask if a decision of the permanent court of arbitration is not binding. They are aware that in order to obtain such a decision that consent of England is required. They, therefore, take the liberty of asking your council to apply for such consent or to obtain the same by your mediation of that of governments represented by you."

The appeal is signed by W. J. Leyds, A. Fischer and A. D. W. Wolmarans, plenipotentiaries of the South African Republic, and A. Fischer and C. H. Wessels, plenipotentiaries of the Orange Free State.

World Leaders Men of Hardy Physique. If the student of biography will look up the life history of the men who have been the foremost leaders of the world in every branch of service and kind of endeavor, he will find, almost invariably, that they have been men with sound bodies and vigorous minds. Among the men of world-wide fame possessing superior physique may be mentioned Plato, Demosthenes, Charlemagne, William the Conqueror, Martin Luther, Cromwell, Peter the Great, Samuel Johnson, Goeth, and Bismarck, Walter Scott, Robert Burns, and Professor Wilson, of Scotland, were distinguished for their literary achievements. Peel, Brougham, Lyndhurst, Campbell, Bright, Palmerston and Gladstone, and other great political and legal leaders of England, were all men of vigorous health and hardy physiques. So were the great political and pulpit orators, like Fox, Burke, and Chalmers, of England, and Patrick Henry, Webster, Charles Sumner, Beecher, Chapin, Brooks, John Hall, and Dwight L. Moody, of our own country. The great founders and preservers of the nation, like Washington, Franklin, Presidents Jackson and Lincoln, and some of the chief justices, like John Marshall, Lemuel Shaw, John B. Gibson, and Samuel F. Miller, were men of powerful bodies capable of great physical strength and endurance. Our great financiers, manufacturers, and successful men of affairs, like Vanderbilt, McCormick, and Huntington, were of sturdy stock and great constitutional vigor. So are Morgan, Carnegie, and the present-day leaders in the triumphs of gigantic business enterprises.—Professor Dudley A. Sargent, in Success.

Killed His Brother.

Paris, Tenn., Special.—Saturday afternoon, near Connersville, Wallace Ward, son of Frank Ward, a prominent plater, killed his brother, Brown Ward. The brothers were working in a hay field when trouble arose over a trivial matter. Wallace made no effort to escape, but endeavored to take his own life with poison. According to the latest report, however, he still lives.

The Australian commonwealth's new navy—the first line of defense—will cost $5,000,000 a year to maintain. The practical independence of the new commonwealth is proving a costly luxury at this early stage of its existence.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR. "Something New Under The Sun."

All Doctors have tried to cure CATARRH by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up the mucous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of CATARRH, has at last perfected a treatment which when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures CATARRH, by removing the cause, stopping the discharges, and curing inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches the afflicted parts.
