AFFAIRS CAUGHT BY OUR LOCAL REPORTER AND NOTED.

Written in Condensed Form and Printed in Like Manner for the Sake of Our Busy Readers.

Look out for the blue X. Every woman enjoys having a fit—when it is her dress.

Mrs. John S. Cole, of Manning, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Hudnall.

S. I. Till, of Manning, is offering special inducements this week. Read his "ad."

Cotton was quoted in the local market yesterday at 7½, seed at $12.50 to $13 a ton.

Poor crops; dull times; no money, and yet we have a great deal left for which to be thankful.

Mr. Fred Hodge was in to see us yesterday. He is the proud and happy father of a fine baby girl just two days old.

Rev. W. S. Martin left for Columbia Monday afternoon to attend the annual conference in session this week.

Rev. J. A. Graham, pastor in charge of Rome circuit, called in to see us last Monday on his way to conference.

Mail service has been discontinued at Epps postoffice. The package of Records usually addressed to Epps will be transferred to Fowlers postoffice.

New advertisements this week: Buell & Roberts, department store; S. B. Davidson, horse-shoeing. Notices: Superintendent of education, final discharge notice.

Rev. W. S. Martin preached his final sermon of the conference year at the Methodist church Sunday morning. Rev. G. T. Gresham filled the Baptist pulpit Sunday evening.

Mr. Walter B. Logan, M. Drake & Son's popular salesman, was in town Monday. When Walter fails to sell a bill of shoes in this county it's mighty little use for the other fellows to try.

Mr. J. C. Young, of the Hebron section, was in town Tuesday. Mr. Young is a very successful farmer. His corn crop this year will average about 23 bushels to the acre, which is very good indeed for a year like this.

Our streets during the rainy weather last week were in a wretched plight. The sidewalks especially show need of proper drainage. Judge Scott says that a covering of sand and clay makes a sidewalk almost as good as a brick pavement.

Mr. George K. Mitchum was an appreciated visitor at our sanctum last Saturday. "Uncle" George is a universal favorite in town and all over the county for that matter. He has for everyone the inherent courtesy of the true gentleman, and his society is always a genuine pleasure.

Dr. J. A. James, of Cheraw, stopped over at Barr's Hotel Wednesday on the way to Indiantown to attend the meeting of the survivors of Co. G., 15th S. C., regiment, to take place to-day. It is gratifying to the doctor's many friends that he is so hale and hearty at an age when most men begin to fail.

County Treasurer R. D. Rollins as our duly authorized agent. For the convenience of our patrons remote from town, we have arranged with him to receive money and issue receipts for same while on his rounds. When you are paying your taxes don't forget to read the Record.

Court convenes Monday.

You can get all the standard newspapers and magazines for a song by clubbing with THE COUNTY RECORD.

In replying to advertisements you will do a favor and insure special courtesy to yourself by mentioning THE COUNTY RECORD.

We learn with regret of the critical condition of Mr. J. McBride Graham, of Single, resulting from an attack of paralysis with which he was stricken last week.

Mr. Robert Singletary came in to see us Monday and renewed his father's subscription to THE RECORD. He is a son of our esteemed friend, Hon. W. R. Singletary, of Scranton.

The South Carolina Inter-State and West Indian Exposition will be formally opened on Sunday, December 1, with religious services and a musical program at the Thomson auditorium.

Amidst the general complaint of poor crops it is refreshing to hear of an occasional good crop. Mr. D. B. Nexsen, of Boggy Swamp, says that his crop has turned out better than last year. On a two horse farm he made twenty-six bales of cotton besides a plenty of provisions. Our friend "Bush" is too good a farmer to be a bachelor.

The editor acknowledges with pleasure an invitation to the hot supper at Rome Tuesday night next. The hospitality of the people of that section is proverbial and the personnel of the committee is ample assurance that the affair will be well managed. The object of the entertainment is a meritorious one and we bespeak for it the generous patronage of the public.

W. E. Jenkinson, Manning's big merchant, greets his Williamsburg friends this week with a full page advertisement. It is wonderful how pluck, energy and brains will tell. Here is Jenkinson, at Manning, who, from a small beginning, has built up his tremendous business. A drummer who travels over the whole State told us recently that W. E. Jenkinson carried the finest line of goods in eastern Carolina. Go to see him at Manning if you can, or drop him a line and he will send you samples and quote prices. Mail orders are his specialty and receive as prompt attention as John Wanamaker in Philadelphia. When you write or call on him don't fail to mention THE COUNTY RECORD.

Seen at Smiths.

Kingstree and Lake City and all intermediate points will soon be in telephonic touch with the world. Let the good work go on!

The havoc wrought this year by overmuch rain has taught our farmers a lesson as to the necessity of drainage. Old ditches are being cleaned out and new ones dug in this section. Money spent in this way is a good investment. We learn that a number of the laboring class of this neighborhood will soon leave to seek employment in the Columbia Cotton mills.

Rev. W. B. McKnight is conducting a meeting of some days at the Smith school house. Mr. McKnight is quite a young man to be in the work.

Mr. W. J. Smiley has moved to Seloc, in Charleston county. We are loth to lose such young men as Mr. Smiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will live in Scranton, where Mr. Cannon has been engaged in business for the past few years. The bride is one of Williamsburg's most accomplished young ladies. Along with a host of friends we extend our felicitations to the happy couple.

Before a Norwegian girl may marry in her own country she must demonstrate that she can knit, bake and spin.

Getting Thin

is all right, if you are too fat; and all wrong, if too thin already.

Fat, enough for your habit, is healthy; a little more, or less, is no great harm. Too fat, consult a doctor; too thin, persistently thin, no matter what cause, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

There are many causes of getting too thin; they all come under these two heads: over-work and under-digestion.

Stop over-work, if you can; but, whether you can or not, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, to balance yourself with your work. You can't live on it—true—but, by it, you can. There's a limit, however; you'll pay for it.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the readiest cure for "can't eat," unless it comes of your doing no work—you can't long be well and strong, without some sort of activity.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other. If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE Chemists, 409 Pearl Street, New York. 50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

RELIABLE AND GENTLE.

"A pill's a pill," says the saw. But there are pills and pills. You want a pill which is certain, thorough and gentle. Mustn't gripe. DeWitt's Little Early Risers fill the bill. Purely vegetable. Do not force but assist the bowels to act. Strengthen and invigorate. Small and easy to take. D. C. Scott and Dr. W. V. Brockington.

Usually the newest thing in flannels is a baby.

MODERN SURGERY SURPASSED.

"While suffering from a bad case of piles I consulted a physician, who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve," says G. F. Carter, Atlanta, Ga. "I procured a box and was entirely cured. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a splendid cure for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." Surgery is unnecessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve will cure any case. Cuts, burns, bruises and all other wounds are also quickly cured by it. Beware of counterfeits. D. C. THE CHILDREN'S FRIEND.

You'll have a cold this winter. May be you have one now. Your children will suffer too. For coughs, croup, bronchitis, grip and other winter complaints One Minute Cough Cure never fails. Acts promptly. It is very pleasant to the taste and perfectly harmless. C. B. George, Winchester, Ky., writes: "Our little girl was attacked with croup late one night and was so hoarse she could hardly speak. We gave her a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. It relieved her immediately and she went to sleep. When she awoke next morning she had no signs of hoarseness or croup." D. C. Scott, W. V. Brockington.

A weak minded man is usually the most head-strong.

A PHYSICIAN TESTIFIES.

"I have taken Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and have never used anything in my life that did me the good that it did," says County Physician Geo. W. Scroggs of Hall county, Ga. "Being a physician I have prescribed it and found it to give the best results." If the food you eat remains undigested in your stomach it decays there and poisons the system. You can prevent this by dieting but that means starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. You need suffer from neither dyspepsia nor starvation. The worst cases quickly cured. Never fails. D. C. Scott and W. V. Brockington.

The doctor is often more dangerous than the disease.

The Best Prescription for Malaria. Chills and Fever is a bottle of Groves Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price 50c.

It's often better to be the sole owner of a small dog than a stockholder in a large one.

A VILLAGE BLACKSMITH SAVED HIS LITTLE SON'S LIFE.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For Sale by Dr. D. C. Scott.

After being landed by a girl who has been angling for him a man feels like a fish out of water.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by Dr. D. C. Scott.

The narrow-minded man sometimes makes the broadest assertions.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "I cured me of bloody flux, I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by Dr. D. C. Scott.
