AFFAIRS CAUGHT BY OUR LOCAL REPORTER AND NOTED.

Written in Condensed Form and Printed in Like Manner for the Sake of Our Busy Readers. Note legal "ads" this week.

Mr. Emile Arrowsmith came up from Georgetown Sunday.

LeRoy Lee, Esq., went up to Columbia Monday on professional business.

Mrs. M. McMillan and Miss Habrecht, of Charleston, visited friends in town last week.

Hoxie G. Askins, Esq., of Lake City, received his commission last week as notary public. See his card.

Dispenser J. W. Coward went to Columbia Thursday to make his annual settlement with the State dispensary.

THE COUNTY RECORD'S phone number is 21. When you have a nice, fresh piece of news don't fail to ring up 21.

Three papers for the price of one—the Atlanta Constitution, the Sunny South and THE COUNTY RECORD, all three for $2.

The total enrollment of the graded school is now 135 pupils, with an average attendance of 118. All of the classes are progressing nicely.

Dr. A. D. Epps, of Greeleyville, was in town Saturday. It is gratifying to his many friends that Dr. Epps is succeeding so nicely in his profession.

Subscribe to The Commoner, William J. Bryan's great paper, for only 65 cents a year in club with THE RECORD—both papers for $1.65 in advance.

Mr. W. E. Snowden, of Benson, stepped over in town Monday night at the Coleman House. Mr. Snowden is in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Lumber Co., as surveyor.

Rev. Frank M. Hauser, of Augusta, Ga., will preach in the Baptist church Sunday next at 11 a. m. Everybody is cordially invited to attend services.

Capt. Howe, president of the Bank of Florence, and Mr. Willie Anderson, also of Florence, passed through town Monday en route to Capt. Cooper's to take a bird hunt.

Mr. J. J. M. Graham, of Cades, called on us while in town Monday, accompanied by Mr. K. A. Bass, of Halifax county, Va. Mr. Bass is from the tobacco-producing section of the Old Dominion and will take charge of Mr. Graham's tobacco farm this year.

One night last week a little negro girl, the daughter of Newton Singletary, of Benson, was accidentally burned to death. The child, which was quite young, got up early and began to play with fire. Its dress caught and was in flames when the child's screams awoke the parents.

Among the exposition visitors during the past week were noted the following from town and county: Mrs. Lula Brockinton, Misses Edith and Beulah Nelson, Melle and Hattie Snowden, Messrs. J. Y. McGill, M. M. Wilson, S. T. McGrea, P. B. Thorn, P. A. Allbrook, J. S. Frierson, R. W. McCutchen and W. J. Snowden.

Mr. Hugh McCutchen, who has been representing Alex Sprunt & Son, of Wilmington, N. C., as cotton buyer at this point, desires us to state that, as the cotton season is nearly over, he will after this week be in town only on Wednesday and Saturday of each week. On these days he will be pleased to meet his friends at the depot during the remainder of the season.

Mr. R. D. Rollins returned Monday from a visit of several days to the "City by the Sea." While in Charleston Mr. Rollins, of course, went out to the exposition grounds. This was his first visit to the big show, and he expresses himself as being delighted with what he saw. In its scope and elaborateness the Charleston exposition, he says, is way ahead of the one held in Atlanta several years ago.

R. J. Kirk Esq., went down to Charleston Wednesday on business.

Mr. J. W. Josey, representing Melchers & Co., Charleston, was autographed at Barr's Hotel yesterday.

By remembering that one long ring calls up central you will avoid confusion and receive more prompt attention.

Grand Prelate John M. Knight, of Sumter, will be here on February 2, to make an address before Kingstree Lodge Knights of Pythias.

Rev. J. E. Dunlop filled his regular appointment at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, and Rev. H. J. Cauthen preached in the Methodist church morning and evening at the usual hours.

The Scranton News has suspended publication. The outfit has been removed to Kingstree and the paper will be published under the name of the "Weekly Mail," with Messrs. Stoll and Stoll as editors. The first issue will appear this week.

Mr. W. Eugene Cooke has severed his connection with the Scranton News and at the close of the present session of the legislature, where he is employed as journal clerk, will take the law course at the South Carolina College. Mr. Cooke is a very estimable young man and we wish him much success.

Cadet G. O. Epps, of Clemson College, was forced to come home in December on account of a severe attack of pneumonia. Acting on the advice of his physician he has decided not to resume his studies this session, as his illness has left his system in a somewhat reduced state. Cadet Epps is a member of the junior class, and as is the case with most of Williamsburg's collegians, is taking a very creditable stand in his classes, being promoted this year from corporal to sergeant. He intends returning to the college at the beginning of the fall term.

Bring your Watches, Clocks and Jewelry to R. A. Watts, Jr., at once, as I don't know just how long I will be here. Academy Street, opposite the dispensary.

DON'T LIVE TOGETHER.

Constipation and health never go together. DeWitt's Little Early Risers promote easy action of the bowels without distress. "I have been troubled with costiveness nine years," says J. O. Greene, Depauw, Ind. "I have tried many remedies, but little early risers give best results." Drs. D. C. Scott and W. V. Brockington.

Most people believe in the total depravity of somebody else.

CHILDREN ESPECIALLY LIABLE.

Burns, bruises and cuts are extremely painful, and if neglected often result in blood poisoning. Children are especially liable to such mishaps because not so careful. As a remedy DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. Draws out the fire, stops the pain, soon heals the wound. Beware of counterfeits. Sure cure for piles. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my baby of eczema after two physicians gave her up," writes James Mock, N. Webster, Ind. "The sores were so bad she soiled two to five dresses a day." Drs. D. C. Scott and W. V. Brockington.

A cynic is a man who is never happy unless he is unhappy.

A PROFITABLE INVESTMENT.

"I was troubled for about seven years with my stomach and in bed half my time, says E. Demsek, Somerville, Ind. "I spent about $1,000 and never could get anything to help me until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken a few bottles and am entirely well." You don't live by what you eat, but by what you digest and assimilate. If your stomach doesn't digest your food you are really starving. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does the stomach's work by digesting the food. You don't have to diet. Eat all you want. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures all stomach troubles. Drs. D. C. Scott and W. V. Brockington.

CHILD WORTH MILLIONS.

"My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird, of Harrisburg, Pa. "yet I would have lost her by croup had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." One Minute Cough Cure is sure cure for coughs, croup and throat and lung troubles. An absolutely safe cough cure which acts immediately. The youngest child can take it with entire safety. The little ones like the taste and remember how often it helped them. Every family should have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure handy. At this season especially it may be needed suddenly. Drs. D. C. Scott and W. V. Brockington.
