ROBBERY AT GREELEYVILLE.

S. J. TAYLOR'S STORE BURGLARIZED AND SAFE BLOWN OPEN.

Seven Hundred Dollars and Valuable Papers Stolen—No Clue to the Perpetrators.

[Special to THE COUNTY RECORD.]

Greeleyville, S. C., Feb. 11.—Mr. S. J. Taylor's store was burglarized early this morning and the iron safe blown open and robbed of its contents. Over $700 in cash was stolen besides a lot of valuable papers. The circumstances are as follows:

About 2 o'clock a. m. the citizens of the town were aroused from their slumbers by a loud explosion, which sounded in the direction of the mill. Thinking the boiler had burst a crowd soon gathered at the mill. Finding nothing wrong there they went to Mr. Taylor's store, which they discovered to have been broken into. The building was filled with smoke and the safe door hung open. To get into the safe the robbers knocked the handle off the door and filled the socket with gunpowder, setting it off by a fuse.

About a half hour had elapsed before Mr. Taylor got to the store and the robbers had time to escape. The money stolen consisted of $400 in silver, $180 gold and $120 greenbacks of $5, $10 and $20 denominations.

Searching parties are out to-day, but there is no definite clue to work upon. It is said that four tramps camped near town last night and were seen to pass Manning early this morning. There is a suspicion that these "birds of passage" might have had something to do with the robbery, which is evidently the work of no prentice band.

As soon as possible blood hounds will be obtained and put on the trail.

Mr. H. McClary, of Georgetown, took in the dance Wednesday night of last week and remained in town several days visiting friends.

Mr. Clarence Jacobs, who is a student of the Charleston Medical College, visited his parents in town last week.

VOTARIES OF TERPSICHORE.

Two Delightful Dances Given by the Young Men's Social Club.

The Young Men's Social Club gave a brilliant masquerade ball at the Coleman House Wednesday night of last week. There was quite a number of dancers present, some coming from a distance to participate. The dancing began at 9.30 p. m. and was kept up until the early hours of the morning. Excellent music was furnished by the Mouzon string band. At 12 o'clock the dancers unmasked and refreshments were served. When the fantastic dominos were removed many strikingly beautiful costumes were noted. The Young Men's Social Club has entertained its friends with a good many dances this winter, but the affair of Wednesday eclipsed them all. Following is a list of the ladies present and their costumes:

Mrs. T. M. Gilland, black silk, red ribbons.
Mrs. M. F. Heller, black silk, opals and diamonds.
Mrs. R. Fichtner, blue and white silk street costume.
Mrs. Louis Jacobs, black satin, diamonds.
Mrs. C. Harper, black silk.
Mrs. B. A. Benjamin, Georgetown, handsome blue chiffon, en traine, lace trimmings, diamonds.
Miss Kelley, blue china silk and chiffon, opals.
Miss Nina Dove, Dovesville, blue liberty silk, opals and pearls.
Miss Barbara Jacobs, yellow chiffon, black velvet trimmings, jonquils.
Miss Virgie Walker, Georgetown; black organdie, diamonds.
Miss Octavia Dove, Dovesville heliotrope chiffon.
Miss Gertrude Jennings, Sumter; street dress.
Miss Louise Gilland, lavender silk.
Miss Mal Stoll, blue chiffon, gold trimmings.
Miss Alice McCullough, street costume.
Miss Mamie Jacobs, blue liberty silk, duchess lace trimmings.
Miss Pauline Dove, Dovesville; pink chiffon.
Miss Annie Ashby, Florence; pink silk and lace.
Miss Charlotte Fichtner, Hartford, Ct.; blue embroidered chiffon.
Miss Bertha Lodge, street costume.
Miss Arrie Rose, red silk, black velvet.
Mrs. M. B. Scott, black silk.
Mrs. W. V. Brockington, street suit.
Miss Lizzie McClary, blue mousseline de soie.
Mrs. V. Brockington, black silk.
Miss Bertha Reardon, white cashmere and blue silk.
Mrs. L. Schultz, Green satin, diamonds.
Miss Esther Gordon, street suit.

The gentlemen present were:

McClary, Georgetown; R. K. Wallace, L. Schultz, L. C. Dove.

Another very enjoyable dance at the Coleman House was given on the following Thursday night.

HOMICIDE AT CADES.

M. D. NESMITH SHOTS AND FATALLY WOUNDS ELI SAULS.

Both Men are Prominently Connected and the Affair Causes General Regret—Verdict of Coroner's Jury.

About sunset Friday afternoon a shooting affray occurred at Cades, resulting in the fatal wounding of Mr. Eli Sauls by Mr. M. D. Nesmith. The trouble took place at the railroad between the depot and the crossing. From what can be gathered the dispute between the two men arose about a load of crossties offered for sale by a negro. While Nesmith was trading with the negro Sauls approached and offered a higher price for the ties. Nesmith resented the interference and an altercation ensued between them, during which Nesmith drew a pistol and fired at Sauls four times in quick succession. Although the men were standing but a few feet apart only one bullet took effect. The ball entered under the lower rib on the left side about the cardiac end of the stomach. The pistol was a 32 calibre Smith & Wesson.

Drs. D. C. Scott and W. J. Harselden were immediately called in to attend the wounded man, but in spite of all that could be done he grew weaker and at 8 o'clock Sunday morning succumbed to the wound.

Sheriff George J. Graham and his deputies arrived at the scene of the shooting as soon as possible after being notified on the night of the occurrence, but Nesmith had disappeared.

Both the men are prominently connected and the affair is universally deplored. Mr. Nesmith is 30 years old and is a member of the firm of Nesmith Brothers, of Cades. He is unmarried. Mr. Sauls' age was 34 and he leaves a wife and seven children.

THE INQUEST.

At 4 o'clock p. m. Coroner H. M. Burrows empanelled a jury and held an inquest over the body of Mr. Eli Sauls. The attending physicians and several witnesses gave testimony. The physicians testified as to the nature of the wound and the immediate cause of death, which they said resulted from the shock of the ball's perforation of the stomach. Mr. Sauls made an ante-mortem statement which is in the hands of the State, but was not placed in evidence at the inquest. The jury rendered the following verdict: That the deceased came to his death by a gunshot wound at the hands of M. D. Nesmith.

Mr. Nesmith is still in retirement, but we are reliably informed that in due time he will come forward and stand his trial. LeRoy Lee, Esq., has been retained to assist in the prosecution, and Capt. John A. Kelley will represent the defense.
