AFFAIRS CAUGHT BY OUR LOCAL REPORTER AND NOTED.

Written in Condensed Form and Printed in Like Manner for the Sake of Our Busy Readers.

Cotton is quoted to-day in Charleston at 8 1/4.

The time for paying taxes has been extended to March 31.

Mr. A. M. Gordon, of Lanes, was in town a few hours Friday.

Mr. W. T. Wilkins spent Sunday in Charleston with his family.

Mr. W. H. Smith, of Cades, was a pleasant visitor at our office Monday.

Miss Alma Kelley is visiting her friend, Miss Essie Davis, at Manning.

Capt. John A. Kelley made a business trip to Charleston Thursday.

Chief of Police Myers, of Kingstree, was here yesterday for court.—Florence Times.

We were glad to receive a visit from our friend, Mr. C. M. Richburg, of Greeleyville, while in town Friday.

Walter Hazard, Esq., a prominent attorney of the Georgetown bar, was registered at Barr's Hotel Wednesday.

The time for paying town taxes and licenses expires on Saturday, March 1. After that date the penalty will be attached.

Mr. Eugene Hirsch, the affable representative of Herzog & Co., Charleston, is at home for a few days recuperating from an attack of grip.

Mr. W. V. Strong, a substantial young agriculturalist of the Brown's section on Black river, called to see us Saturday.

A report of the closing days of the legislature and a full account of the Tillman-McLaurin "mix up" will be found on our inside pages this week.

The United States court will convene in Florence the first Tuesday in March. Mr. H. B. Johnson, of Cades, has been drawn to serve on the grand jury.

The county teachers' examination was held in the court house last Friday during the usual hours. There were thirty applicants, all but six of whom were colored.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McFadden, of Bethlehem, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. DuBose and Mr. J. E. Cousar, of Sardinia, Clarendon county, passed through town Tuesday on the way to Charleston to visit the exposition.

Luther and Emma Williams, colored, of Salters and Greeleyville, respectively, having been adjudged insane by the medical examiners, were sent to Columbia yesterday to be committed to the lunatic asylum.

Mr. Louis Jacobs lost one of his valuable carriage horses last Friday night. Some of his family drove over to Manning to the dance Thursday night, and the horse was taken sick and died in sight of town on the return trip.

Mr. James F. Cooper, of Fowlers, dropped in to see us Friday and renewed his subscription to The Record. Mr. Cooper is a member of the firm of Cooper Bros., who are among the largest and most successful merchant-farmers of the county.

Our good friend, Mr. L. E. Burkett, of Greens, called in to see us Tuesday. He reports considerable excitement in his neighborhood caused by hydrophobic symptoms among domestic animals. A hog belonging to Mr. W. D. Bryan went mad on the 18th and is supposed to be still at large. During the same week Mr. E. B. Brown's cow developed rabies and died on the 21st inst.

Rev. W. S. Martin, pastor of the Johnston church, with his two bright little daughters, Mellou and Luna, spent last Friday with the family of Prof. Cunningham. In the afternoon he returned taking with him Mrs. Martin, who was spending several days with her double first cousin, whom she had not seen before in sixteen years.—Saluda Sentinel.

Mr. J. J. M. Graham, of Cades, was on our streets Monday.

Mr. Sam Fulton visited the City by the Sea this week.

Mr. J. D. Montgomery of Marion, was in town several days this week.

Rev. J. R. Vanhan, of the North Carolina conference, delivered an able and interesting temperance lecture in the court house last night.

Hon. E. R. Lesesne, of Greeleyville, spent Saturday and Sunday in town the guest of his sister, Mrs. M. J. Porter. While here he honored us with his company for a short while. Mr. Lesesne keeps in touch with current events and is a very entertaining conversationalist. In common with all his friends we should be glad to see him in town oftener.

On Saturday or Sunday last some malicious and evil-minded person wantonly fired a bullet hole through a sash in a rear window of the county treasurer's new office in the addition to the court house. In other parts of the building the walls are already defaced by senseless scribbling and other acts of vandalism. A lookout should be kept for these miscreants and sharp punishment meted out to them when caught.

We were pleased to receive a visit Saturday from Mr. R. C. Marshall. Mr. Marshall has been in Georgia several years engaged in the turpentine business. A few months ago he returned home and this year he will try his hand at farming near Trio. It is always gratifying to see our young men come back home and we hope Mr. Marshall will decide to remain permanently in old Williamsburg.

Mr. Geo. A. McElveen stopped over in town a few hours Monday returning to Timmonsville from a visit to his home folk at Spring Bank. Mr. McElveen left this county four years ago and during that time has made Timmonsville his home. He has been all the while in the employ of one firm and has gained the confidence and esteem of his employers by his diligence and attention to business. Mr. McElveen is well pleased with Timmonsville and its people.

Mr. J. C. Mcelveen, of Spring Bank, returned from Charleston Wednesday night at last week after having taken in the festivities of Pythian day at the exposition. Mr. McElveen enjoyed a delightful visit to the City by the Sea and says that the Pythians were right royally entertained. He was the only representative from Kingstree Lodge, K. of P., but there were present from the county besides him—Messrs. Eugene Hirsch, of Kingstree, S. T. Godwin, J. L. Stuckey and D. B. Knight, of Lake City, and H. Nachman, of Scranton.

Mr. J. P. Hanna, of Lambert, came in Wednesday and accentuated his kind words of hearty good will by a liberal donation of coin of the realm. Mr. Hanna has been a subscriber to THE RECORD since it was first established and says he expects to continue taking the paper as long as he lives. May his tribe increase!

WHERE.

Constipation means dulness, depression, headache, generally disordered health. Dewitt's Little Early Biscers stimulate the liver, open the bowels and relieve this condition. Safe, speedy and thorough. They never gripe. Favorite pills.

Usually the man who drinks champagne economizes on his laundry to make up for it.

SAVED HIM FROM TORTURE.

There is no more agonizing trouble than piles. The constant itching and burning make life intolerable. No position is comfortable. The torture is unceasing. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures piles at once. For skin diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, all kinds of wounds it is unequalled. J. S. Gerall, St. Paul, Ark., says: "From 1865 I suffered with the protruding, bleeding piles and could find nothing to help me until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me." Beware of counterfeits. D. C. Scott.

When you dig into a man's vanity you touch the spot where his hatred for you lies.

THE LAST HEARD OF IT.

"My little boy took the croup one night and soon grew so bad you could hear him breathe all over the house," says F. D. Reynolds, Mansfield, O. "We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved him and he went to sleep. That's the last we heard of the croup. Now isn't a cough cure like that valuable?" One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and acts immediately. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure; very pleasant to take. The little ones like it. D. C. Scott.

Necessity knows no law, and is usually too poor to hire a lawyer.

CLERK'S WISE SUGGESTION.

"I have lately been much troubled with dyspepsia, belching and sour stomach," writes M. S. Mead, leading pharmacist of Attleboro, Mass. "I could eat hardly anything without suffering several hours. My clerk suggested I try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which I did with most happy results.

I have had no more trouble and when one can go to eating mince pie, cheese, candy and nuts after such a time, their digestion must be pretty good. I endorse Kodol Dyspepsia Cure heartily." You don't have to diet. Eat all the good food you want but don't overload the stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests your food. D. C. Scott.
