

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

AFFAIRS CAUGHT BY OUR LOCAL REPORTER AND NOTED.

Written in Condensed Form and Printed in Like Manner for the Sake of Our Busy Readers.

Mr. S. C. Register is quite sick.
Mr. D. J. Epps was on our streets Saturday.
Note slight change in railroad schedule.
Mr. C. D. Jacobs is still confined to his bed.
Mr. George Brown was in town Saturday from Central.
Capt. D. E. Gordon, of Laney, attended court this week.
Mr. T. R. Wilson, of Hebron, was in Kingstree Saturday.
Messrs H. H. Kinder and Percy Kinder were in town Saturday.
Mr. John Eaddy was on our streets Saturday from Fowlers.
Messrs S. W. and J. D. Mims were here Saturday from Black river.
Miss Bertha Hodge, of Belser's X Roads, is visiting Miss Sallie Wilson.
Mr. Walter C. Wilson, of Indian-town, paid us a pleasant call Tuesday.
Mr. Samuel Reardon, of Workman, was a visitor to town Saturday.
Messrs. S. L. and Sam Thompson were here from Epps one day last week.
Mr. J. F. Stackley, of Florence, visited his brother, Mr. L. Stackley, this week.
Mr. George Hudgens, of Charleston, is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. T. Wilkins.
Mr. Beu McClary, of Cedar Swamp, spent a few hours in town Saturday.
Messrs. P. S. Wall and A. M. Cook, of Scranton, visited Kingstree Monday.
Mr. Walter Cain, the well known Atlantic Coast Line detective, was here Monday.
State Constable J. D. Alsbrook was here this week in attendance upon the court.
Messrs. W. S. and J. M. Grayson, of Benson, called to see us pleasantly Saturday.
Messrs. J. A. and Lee Epps and Roland Mills, of Epps, are attending court this week.
Dr. J. S. Cunningham, of Indian-town, was on our streets a short while Saturday.
Dr. J. H. Chapman, of the Johnsonville section, was among our visitors this week.
Magistrate W. B. McCants, of Trio, was in Kingstree a day or two this week on business.
Editor C. W. Wolfe left Tuesday night for Georgetown to attend the State Press Association.
Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Brockinton, of Rhems, were in the city yesterday.—Georgetown Outlook.
Messrs S. A. and W. W. Rogerson and Joe Eaddy, of Harpers, were here Saturday on business.
Messrs. S. J. Tharpe, Rev. McCutchen and John L. McGill were here from Benson Saturday.
Mr. Joe Brockinton, who came home sick from Georgetown recently, is able to be out again.
Mr. J. O. Carraway, of Rome, while in town this week, took occasion to renew his subscription.
Misses May and Sue Stoll, of Chester, are visiting Mrs. J. B. Johnston.—Georgetown Outlook.
Mr. W. E. Cooke is assisting in getting out THE RECORD during the editor's absence in Georgetown.
Mr. H. J. Burgess, of Mouzons, while in town Saturday, added his name to THE RECORD subscription list.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Griswold, of Smith Mills, spent several days last week at the exposition.—Georgetown.
Mr. J. M. Godwin, of the Lake City section, has invented a gate that will open and shut automatically to admit any kind of vehicle on a highway. Mr. Godwin is making an effort to have his invention patented.

Mr. P. S. Courtney went to attend the marriage of his brother, Mr. H. N. Courtney, near Lake City, last Sunday.
Mr. Louis Sherfese, Jr., an insurance agent, of Charleston, was in town Friday and Saturday on business.
Miss Lila Hemmingway left last Tuesday night to attend the Commencement of Leesville college, of which she is an alumna.
Deputy Sheriff J. J. Remply, of Franklin county, Ga., came here last week after a negro prisoner, one Whittemore Cooper.
Dr. R. J. McCabe announces to his patrons that he will be in Kingstree at the Coleman House, on June 8 to 21. See his card.
Mr. Beauregard Stackley came over Monday from Florence to attend the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stackley's infant child.
Miss Maude Brockinton, of Indian-town, has returned home after spending a while with her cousin, Miss Annie Dye, of Charleston.
Mr. S. J. M. Tisdale, of the Greeleyville section, dropped in to see us Tuesday and entered his name as a subscriber to THE RECORD.
Mr. Jas. E. Tharpe, of Johnsonville, called to see us Wednesday afternoon and left us a souvenir in the shape of a year's subscription.
We thank Mr. L. H. McCollough for an invitation to attend the Sixth Annual Commencement of Clemson College, which will take place June 6th to 8th.
Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Chandler, Misses Laura and Pet Chandler returned Monday night to their home in Valdosta, Ga., after a pleasant visit to relatives in this county.
Hon. M. C. Gallachat, of Manning, was registered at Barr's Hotel Tuesday. Mr. Gallachat is a candidate for Congress from the First district and seems confident of success.
Prof. Olin Epps, who has been teaching a flourishing school at Hendersonville, Colleton county, is home for the summer. Prof. Epps is well pleased with Colleton and its people.
Hon. W. M. Keels was in Kingstree Tuesday and in response to an inquiry stated that he would not be a candidate for the legislature this year, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding.
Editor Herbert S. Cunningham, of the Bishopville Vindicator, accompanied by his daughters, Mrs. Io Whittle and Miss Lutie Cunningham, visited relatives near town last week. Mr. Cunningham is a native of Williamsburg county and has many relatives and friends here, who were glad to see him and his daughters.
Mrs. W. H. Kennedy was called to Gaffney last Sunday by a telegram announcing the critical illness of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Hodges. Several subsequent messages to Capt. Kennedy report a marked improvement in Mrs. Hodges' condition, and the many friends of the family are led to hope that the danger is over.
The chaingang, under the direction of Capt. C. E. Wheeler, has completed the work of cleaning out the canal and the town council has inspected it. The council is highly pleased with the work and every one interested in the health of the town hopes and believes that the result will be greatly beneficial from a sanitary standpoint.
Mr. P. D. Cockfield announces himself this week as a candidate for county commissioner. Mr. Cockfield was in the race for supervisor two years ago, and got a flattering vote, although he was handicapped by the illness of his father. He has been on the board of equalization for several years and has thus gained considerable experience in ministerial work.

Messrs. W. D. Parsons, W. K. Hanna, Robt. Ervin, R. E. Duke and J. J. Altman did duty as bailiffs during court this week.

W. C. Durant, of Manning, and R. W. Haynes, of Berkeley, were the visiting attorneys at Court this week.

Miss Maymie Graham, of Indian-town, visited Misses Lula and Beck Myers Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. P. S. Wall, of Scranton, announces himself in this issue as a candidate for the legislature. Mr. Wall ran for this office two years ago and received a flattering vote. He is a man of sound discretion and would make a good representative.

Among the many friends whom it was our pleasure to meet in town this week, we note the following: S. J. Singletary, Tyler Gaskins, W. E. Ammons, Lake City; H. Collins, E. A. Collins, S. W. James, and P. D. Cockfield, Scranton; J. N. Coker, Cades; N. M. Venters, Venters; Hugh Cooper, Fowler; T. W. Boyle and S. J. Taylor, Greeleyville; Beauregard Eaddy, Rhems; W. J. Smiley, Smith's, and others.

A Coming Marriage.

We return our appreciative thanks for the following invitation to the marriage of a well known and popular young Williamsburg couple, and, in advance, tender them our heartiest felicitations:

Mrs. Amanda L. Simmons requests your presence at the marriage of her daughter, to

Lula

Dr. Albert Golden Eaddy, on Thursday afternoon, June 5, 1902, at 3 o'clock.

Johnsonville Church, Venters, S. C.

Laid to Rest.

Little Edith Stackley, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Stackley, died Monday morning after a lingering illness. The funeral services were held Tuesday morning at the residence of Mr. Stackley, after which the precious remains were conveyed to the Williamsburg cemetery and consigned to the grave. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of their many friends in their affliction.

Notice to Camp Presley U. C. V.

You are hereby requested to meet in the Court House on Monday, the 2nd day of June, at 12 o'clock, noon, to organize and transact such business as may come up.

D. E. GORDON,
Commander.

Card of Thanks.

Editor County Record:
Please allow me space in your paper to tender thanks to my many friends for their kindness in helping me when my house and the contents were burned.
J. F. HUGGINS.
May 27, 1902.

Hahn's Ice Cream.

Received fresh from Charleston every day except Monday. There is a peculiar and delicious flavor about Hahn's cream which cannot be imitated. Served by the saucer or delivered by the quart of gallon to families. Sold only by
P. S. COURTNEY,
Kingstree, S. C.

WHISKEY

$1.25 PER GALLON

Mention this paper and send for private price list. Write:

WINSTON DIS. CO., Winston, S. C.

Lowest Priced Whiskey House.

TOBACCO GROWERS TAKE NOTICE

We have very much improved upon our facilities for furnishing you supplies. We have on hand at all times a large stock of Paris Green, Paris Green Spray Pumps and Blows, also Barn Flues. Do not fail to see our Flues before placing your order. We have them made under our immediate supervision and the greatest care is taken to have each part fit with the utmost accuracy, and as we use nothing but the best sheet steel you will have no trouble from fire if our Flues are properly placed in your barn, as all the seams are grooved and riveted. We carry a large stock of stout Oak Baskets for gathering.
Write us for prices on any of these goods. You will make no mistake by so doing. We want your trade.
Send us One Dollar and we will send you the best Spray Pump on the market, express paid.
Very truly yours,
Manning Hardware Co.,
Manning, S. C.

Before You Make Your SPRING PURCHASES

Call and see my lines as they are the handsomest ever brought to the city. Embracing all the latest Novelties.

A Beautiful Line of:

LADIES HATS

In all the Latest Styles. Call and see them and I am sure you will buy before leaving my store.

Stackley's Cash Store.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY!

Having Resumed Business at Their Old Stand.

GAGG, OLIVER & CO.,

Are offering their entire Stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Hats, Shoes, Hardware and Notions absolutely at cost.

Think of It. A $10,000 Stock of Goods Going at New York Prices.

When we claim to sell at Cost we mean exactly what we say. A visit to our store will convince you of this fact.

We also handle a choice line of Family Groceries and all kinds of Food Products.

GAGG, OLIVER & CO.,
KINGSTREE, S. C.

REDUCED PRICES

—on—

ENTIRE STOCK!

Big Bargains for Cash!

COMPLETE LINE OF Fresh Family Groceries Cheap.

Examine Stock of Hardware. Also, Furniture Below Cost.

OAK SUITS FROM $10 TO $18—WORTH $15 TO $25.

Everything Else in Proportion.

YOURS TO PLEASE,

W. T. WILKINS.

NO CREDIT.

PRICES LOW DOWN,
STRICTLY FOR CASH.

We have just upened up a full Line of

Gents' Clothing, Underwear,
Shirts, Neckties, Shoes, Hats

All kinds of Furnishings Goods.

Also an elegant Line of

Ladies' Dress Goods, Ladies' Hats, Children's Clothing and Hats.

We always carry a complete Line of Hardware, Tinware and Notions, and constantly keep on hand all kinds of COFFINS, CASKETS and UNDERTAKER'S SUPPLIES.

You will save money by getting our prices before going elsewhere.

H. D. REDDICK, Agent,
Kingstree, S. C.