

SANTEE SCRIBBLINGS.

Baseball on the Fourth—Matters of Social and Personal Interest.

There was a very interesting and exciting game of baseball Friday near Mr. E. R. Lesesne's when the first nine of Santee crossed bats with the second nine of Greeleyville. The game resulted in a victory for the Greeleyville team by a score of two to four. Santee allowed two of Greeleyville's professionals to cross the home plate by making a serious error when all bases were occupied.

The line up was as follows:

Santee,	Greeleyville.
Alsbrook, H	Browder, J
O'Bryan, W	Hawkins
Tuttle, E	Browder, T
Gist, P	Mixon, W
Spell, F	Hodge, H
Brown, B	Harris, W
Lesesne, M	Gamble, E
Brunson, W	Gamble, H
Coffrane	Browder, C

Score:
Greeleyville, 0 2 0 0 1 0 0 1 *—4

Batteries—Greeleyville, J. Browder and Hawkins and Hodge. Santee, Tuttle and Gist.

The two teams will play at Greeleyville next Friday.

The weather continues hot, but crops are doing fairly well, except corn, which needs rain very much.

CAPT. LYNCH'S PLACE

Mr. C. L. Porter is Now Acting Trainmaster—May Remain.

There is a good deal of speculation among railroad men concerning the offices of assistant superintendent of transportation trainmaster at Florence, the place left vacant by Capt. G. G. Lynch's promotion and removal to Charleston. Mr. C. L. Porter is now acting trainmaster under official orders. In itself this is a temporary promotion for Mr. Porter, in view of Florence's importance as a railroad centre. There have been rumors of Mr. Porter's removal also to Charleston, but his friends hope that he will remain here. He has risen rapidly in the railroad's service—Florence Times.

JOHN GARY EVANS,

Spartanburg's Candidate for United States Senate.

Backed by People of All Classes Without Regard to Past Factional Affiliations the Ex-Governor Enters the Senatorial Race.

(From The Spartanburg Journal.)

Spartanburg's candidate for the United States senate to succeed John L. McLaurin is ex-Governor John Gary Evans. In a residence of several years he has established himself in the esteem and good will of the people of this county to such an extent that he is regarded with no less affection and interest that would be the case were he a native born Spartan. His popularity extends to all classes. Some of his closest political and personal friends are to be found among those who were formerly his strongest opponents.

To know Governor Evans has been to appreciate his fine qualities, his sterling honesty and his eminent qualifications as a statesman and citizen. He carried this county by large majorities for governor and senator, and he will carry it this year by a much larger majority than ever; indeed, it might almost be said that he will receive the unanimous democratic vote of the county, so great is the local interest in his candidacy. His personal popularity extending from Spartanburg County as a basis, is radiated all over the Piedmont section of the state and in every profession, trade and calling Governor Evans is looked upon as a splendid type of a South Carolinian.

His Strength is With All Classes.

His friendship and aid have ever been extended to the large agricultural interests of the state, and our large and growing industrial population has come to regard him as a staunch and sincere friend. At the same time Governor Evans has never been regarded as hostile to capital and corporations in any sense, and has many friends and supporters among those who have large investments in cotton and other manufacturing industries. While there can hardly be said to be any logic in politics, Governor Evans is nevertheless the logical candidate to succeed McLaurin, by reason of the vigorous and wonderfully prophetic fight he made on the commercial statesman five years ago. He then said McLaurin was a republican, and that gentleman has himself since proven the charge beyond a doubt. Governor Evans was not the only prophet in that line, however, but he was the only man who made a fight on McLaurin then who is now a candidate before the people as his successor. He evidently knows a republican when he sees one, and this is some assurance, if any were needed, that his own democracy is straight.

Has Been Faithful to Every Trust.

Governor Evans' equipment and qualifications for the senatorship are undoubted, and his services to the people of the state certainly give him a claim upon their earnest consideration of his candidacy. He has ever been faithful to the trust reposed in him by the democrats of South Carolina, and retains to the utmost the respect and confidence of those who know him. The very fact that he has held the support of those who were his political associates in times when there were sharp lines drawn between the factional affiliations of our people and has since the effacement of those lines drawn to himself the good will and friendship of those who formerly opposed him, shows him to be a man who is steadfast in character and eminent in ability. He is strongest where he is best known, and is backed by the support of the thickly populated Piedmont counties and he is sure to be a formidable factor in the race.

Tillman Hands Off.

In view of numerous reports about this man and that man being "Tillman's candidate" for the senate, a statement made by Senator Tillman in Washington recently may prove of interest to those watching South Carolina politics.

"There is really no reason why I should mix up in this race," said Senator Tillman, "nor do I intend to take the slightest part in it one way or the other. It is true that before Evans entered the race there was but one candidate in the field, Representative Latimer, who had not at one time opposed me. For this reason, thinking to hurt Representative Latimer's chances for election, the report has been circulated that I was backing Latimer. It is untrue to say that I am backing any one of the candidates. Now that Mr. Evans has definitely announced his candidacy for the senate, there will be two of my former supporters in the race. Another reason why I am not called upon to take a hand.

"But it should be remembered that none of the candidates in the race are running for the senate against me. They are after the junior senatorship, and because in the past the other candidates—Mr. Elliott, Mr. Hemphill, Mr. Henderson and Mr. Johnstone—have been political opponents of mine does not seem to me to furnish either an excuse or a reason for my meddling in the game."

Steel Wire Ropes.

Steel wire ropes should be of crucible steel, having a breaking strength of seventy to seventy-six tons per square inch. Large pulleys are more necessary for wire than for hemp ropes, the smallest diameter permissible being 1,300 to 1,400 times the diameter of the wire in the rope if of iron and 2,000 times if of steel. For mining purposes wire ropes are best made with a hemp core, being more flexible.

Japanese Lacquer.

A piece of genuine Japanese lacquer costs the native artist almost a lifetime to perfect and is produced by hundreds of thin coats of lacquer laid on at considerable intervals of time, the value consisting rather in the labor bestowed than in the quality of the material used. First class lacquer work can scarcely be scratched by a needle.

One's Plain Duty.

"There has been an awful lot of talk about 'plain duty.' What does it all mean?" "That depends upon who uses the phrase. One's 'plain duty,' according to his own idea, is what he wants to do, and, according to the ideas of others, it's what he doesn't want to do."—Chicago Post.

Shy on Change.

"Could you change a ten dollar bill for me, Henry?" "Couldn't even change my mind this morning, my dear."—New York Times.

VACATION DAYS.

Vacation time is here and the children are fairly living out of doors. There could be no healthier place for them. You need only to guard against the accidents incidental to most open air sports. No remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for quickly stopping pain or removing danger of serious consequences. For cuts, scalds and wounds. "I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for sores, cuts and bruises," says L. B. Johnson, Swift, Tex. "It is the best remedy on the market." Sure cure for piles and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. Wood's Seeds.

Late Potatoes.

Our system of keeping Late Seed Potatoes unsprouted and in vigorous, ready-to-grow condition when planted enables them to stand the driest or hottest spells of summer weather, making splendid crops during the fall, ready to dig just before winter comes on. Crop results the past three seasons, from these potatoes planted in June and July, have been most satisfactory. Our stock in cold storage is limited, so that it is advisable to place orders early to avoid being disappointed in securing your seed potatoes when ready to plant. MOTHER ALWAYS KEEPS IT HANDY.

"My mother suffered a long time from distressing pains and general ill health due primarily to indigestion," says L. W. Spalding, Verona, Mo. "Two years ago I got her to try Kodol. She grew better at once and now, at the age of seventy-six, eats anything she wants, remarking that she fears no bad effects as she has her bottle of Kodol handy." Don't waste time doctoring symptoms. Go after the cause. If your stomach is sound your health will be good. Kodol rests the stomach and strengthens the body by digesting your food.
