Miss Dessie McElveen of Spring Bank is a student-teacher at the summer school. She matriculated Monday morning.

The political temperature is on the ascendancy and will doubtless reach the century mark before the primary comes off.

We are informed that Messrs Percy Kinder and Eugene Hirsch will embark in the mercantile business here this fall.

Mr. W. E. Cooke, of Scranton, is doing editorial work on THE RECORD while Editor Wolfe is away on the campaign.

There is comparatively little sickness in Kingstree this season. A few cases of fever are reported, but they are exceptions.

Our patrons are always welcome at THE RECORD office, and we will be glad to have them call on us whenever they come to town.

Again we request our correspondents to send in their contributions as early in the week as possible in order to insure their insertion.

Mr. P. O. Arrowsmith, who has been staying in Georgetown several months, has returned to Kingstree to recuperate from a spell of fever.

The rank and luxuriant growth of weeds that ornament the streets and sidewalks of Kingstree appeal very strongly to all lovers of aesthetics.

AFFAIRS CAUGHT BY OUR LOCAL REPORTER AND NOTED.

Written in Condensed Form and Printed in Like Manner for the Sake of Our Busy Readers.

Mr. Hartwell Graham, a former Kingstree boy who has been located at Sandford, N. C., two years, has transferred his citizenship to Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. St. Amand have moved to town, and are occupying a cottage on Church street. Their many friends are glad to welcome them to town.

The County board of Commissioners did not hold their regular monthly meeting Monday on account of having to attend the Campaign meeting at Johnsonville Tuesday.

Mr. Sol Jacobs, who is in the employ of the A. C. L. railroad at Arcadia, Fla., spent Sunday in town. Mr. Jacobs is a son of Mr. Berahardt Jacobs, who formerly lived in Kingstree.

T. C. Willoughby of Florence was here Monday and Tuesday as a principal in a reference case before B. C. Whitehead, clerk of court. S. J. Willoughby was also here in the same case.

Rev. L. J. Bristow, the former editor of THE COUNTY RECORD, is conducting a revival meeting at Privateer, in Clarendon county. We hope he will accomplish much good in the Lord's vineyard.

C. W. Wolfe, Theo. Gourdin and J. J. Graham left here Monday afternoon for Johnsonville to attend the first county campaign meeting. The campaign party will be here on Wednesday, August 20th.

Mr. Marvin Martin, while out driving yesterday morning with Mr. Joe Hirschman, of Charleston, was thrown from his buggy and had his hand badly hurt, from which he suffered intense pain.

W. L. Bass, Esq., of Lake City, has filed his pledge and entered the race for the legislature. His card appears in this issue. Mr. Bass is one of the ablest men in the field and will receive strong support.

Mr. L. H. McCullough, a recent graduate of Clemson College, was in town Monday, and paid us a call. Mr. McCullough is an energetic and brainy young man, and will doubtless achieve a successful career.

Mr. B. B. Nexsen, better known as "Bush," has purchased the saw mill of Mr. P. A. Alsbrook, and will continue the business at the same old stand. Mr. Alsbrook will devote his attention to merchandising.

The farmers would do well to keep a watch on Kingstree cotton market this fall. Several buyers, representing the principal cotton exporters, will be here during the season and will pay the top of the market for the fleecy staple.

Col. Geo. S. Barr, who has been prostrated several weeks with fever, is still a very sick man, but his friends hope that he will soon recover. Drs. Scott and Gamble have his case in charge, and are giving all necessary medical attention.

J. Cleveland McElveen of Spring Bank was here Tuesday and renewed his friendship with the editor of THE RECORD. Mr. McElveen is a young man of solid worth, and impresses all with whom he comes in contact with his high character.

Mr. J. P. Nelson, who has been on the sick list several weeks, is able to resume his duties in the RECORD office again. Mr. J. H. Friend, who has been on the RECORD force in Mr. Nelson's place, will take his departure for Norfolk this week to take a position there.

Mr. P. S. Courtenay left for Richmond the first of the week to purchase his fall stock of goods. He will do business in the old Benjamin store, which is being fitted up for his use. Mr. Courtenay is a hustler, and we would not be surprised to see him become a leading merchant of the town.

CADES CHRONICLES.—Continued.

Mr. H. J. Brown, a leading member of the Baptist church here, is out soliciting help to repair his church and also to built an addition of several feet more to the edifice, to be used as a baptistry. He has already collected $30 towards this worthy cause, and hopes to raise enough to bore an artesian well at this church also.

The Baptist meeting here closed last week with 13 additions to the church. Rev. T. J. Rooke, who conducted the meeting, certainly did earnest and faithful work, and we suppose he feels that his labors were not in vain.

Cades is still on a boom, and there is some talk of erecting an oil mill here later on. Several of our local business men are ready to take stock in the enterprise. IVANHOE.

The Summer School.

The second week of the summer school is drawing to a close, and both teachers and students are making satisfactory progress with their work. Professors Cooke and Owens are earnest and energetic workers and are laboring industriously to instruct the teacher-students in the best and most approved methods of imparting instruction to the youthful mind. The new and advanced ideas in school work are discussed daily, and the teachers are getting in fine shape for the final examination at the end of the session.

Married.

At the residence of Mr. T. R. Johnson, near Lanes, S. C., on Sunday, August 3d, 1902, by B. E. Clarkson, notary public, Mr. Joe W. Knowlton and Miss Irene Mitchum, all of Williamburg county.

"I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wigs of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the change."
Female weakness, disordered menses, falling of the womb and ovarian troubles do not wear off. They follow a woman to the change of life. Do not wait but take Wine of Cardui now and avoid the trouble. Wine of Cardui never fails to benefit a suffering woman of any age. Wine of Cardui relieved Mrs. Webb when she was in danger. When you come to the change of life Mrs. Webb's letter will mean more to you than it does now. But you may now avoid the suffering she endured. Druggists sell $1 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
