The Oil Mill.

The Kingstree oil mill has passed the "talked of" period of uncertainty and may be now regarded as an assured fact.

When the Bank of Kingstree was organized the same spirit was manifested by the the founders, but the people looked faith to take stock at the start.

It will be noted that the same men that have made the bank such a splendid success are behind the oil mill.

A Compliment to Carmack.

A story is going the rounds that is eminently characteristic of the present occupant of the White House, who in an uncouth way paid a handsome compliment to Senator Carmack, of Tennessee.

was one member of the their delegation, Senator Carmack, "whom he would see in hell" before doing anything for him.

This exhibition of temper on the part of a Republican president is decidedly complimentary to Senator Carmack, who appears to have incurred the wrath of the rough rider by his ability to call a spade a spade when the occasion warrants it.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

Committee Appointed to Select Oil Mill Site and Purchase Machinery.

A meeting of subscribers to stock in the Kingstree oil mill was held at the Bank of Kingstree on Saturday, the 7th inst.

On motion of Mr LeRoy Lee the following committee was chosen for the purpose above stated with plenary power to take any action they deem advisable looking to the early establishment of the plant.

Immediately following the adjournment of the stock-holders' meeting the special committee went into executive session.

In Memoriam.

Another veteran, Capt Cicero Whitfield, has crossed over to the other side and joined the great army of heroes, who have passed over the river.

Farewell, dear friend; it will not be long before we will all be gathered together "beyond the sunset's radiant glow, where there is a better world, we know."

FRIEND.

MORE RIOTS.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed.

Notice to Tobacco Growers.

I will have an exhibition in Kingstree, S. C., on March 19 1903 a Patent Tobacco Curing Rack, which is a wonderful invention and a great labor saver.

'TWIXT SCRANTON AND JOHNSONVILLE.

Farmers Operations Retarded by Rain - Death of a Veteran.

Farmers are industriously preparing for another crop, but they have been seriously retarded in their work by the continued rains.

From the present outlook there will be a large acreage of tobacco planted this year; on every side may be seen the white canvas stretched covering the young plants.

Answers the Last Roll Call.

Another veteran has gone to his reward in the death of Mr Leonard Dosier Baxley, which sad event took place on Friday, February 27, 1903.

Mr L D Baxley was sick for some months and suffered a great deal, but he bore his affliction with the fortitude characteristic of a true soldier.

He leaves an aged and stricken wife and six children, four sons and two daughters, to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and father.

The remains were laid to rest on Saturday, February 28, at 3 o'clock p. m., in the McDaniel burying ground.
