How Women are Abused.

The County Record published at Kingstree, S. C., has a communication in its issue for last week showing how unreasonable men are in what they expect of women. It is written from Leo and signed "Pepper." She says:

"I have seen so much in papers about the ladies. In nearly every paper you pick up you will find something about 'woman' and what is said hardly ever does them any credit at all."

"The men seem to take a delight in carping about women. You go to church and even the preacher gives them 'Hail Columbia' about cooking on Sunday or even gridding coffee on the Sabbath."

These statements cannot be successfully denied for everybody knows they are true. Columns in the newspapers are devoted to all manner of fault-finding with the women. Their frivolity and extravagance are fertile subjects and all the devilment that happens is charged to them. An extra price is paid for smart sayings at the expense of women and in fact many men treat women as if they were enemies of the human race.

"Pepper" is right in what she says about the preachers but her remarks only apply to preachers who cannot preach; such as have answered when somebody else was called. To hold their jobs they have to vociferate about something and most of them harangue about women.

"Pepper" speaks of cooking a vegetable dinner on Saturday and saving it over for Sunday and thinks it would spoil. So do we, and we also believe it would spoil the temper of all the men of the household "Pepper" concludes by saying:

"The men do not think anything of shaving themselves or greasing their buggies on Sunday and I should like some one to tell us which is the greater sin, to cook on Sunday or to grease buggies?"

We do not blame "Pepper" for this protest but endorse what she says and think it is time to hold up and find some other object to complain about—Abbeville Medium.

Women as Managers.

It is a common opinion that woman has a limited sphere and that she must not depart from certain arbitrary boundaries marked out by men. Enlightened people are wiser than to believe any such thing. A woman can do anything in the line of business that a man can do and nature has not limited her capacities.

Mrs Mary J Webster has been elected president of the Webster Manufacturing Company, which manufactures furniture, located in South Superior, Wisconsin. The choice is a wise one, for she knows the business and there is no reason why a woman cannot manage a furniture factory as well as a man.—Abbeville Medium.

We rise to remark that if a woman can manage a furniture factory as well as some women manage some men we know, the enterprise would doubtless pay handsome dividends.

LAKE CITY, June 23.—Messrs C R Gandy and Robt H Singletary went down to Kingstree Saturday on business.

The Lake City Hardware Co is opening up its big stock of goods. An idea of the size of the stock may be gathered from the statement made Saturday by one of the men in charge, that it will require three weeks to unpack and mark up.

Miss Cora Richey last week went on a visit to her old home, Wheeling, W. Va. She will be away until the fall.

The amount called for by the directors of the bank having been paid in and the corporators having made their return, the charter of the Bank was duly issued last Thursday and the Bank of Lake City took its place among the corporations of the State. Everything is now being shaped for the regular and formal opening for business about July 1.

Those who are acquainted with Mr Ralph Joyner, will appreciate the following: A few days ago Mr Joyner went riding with Mr Truluck who drove a horse, which was formerly owned by Dr DuRan and which had the reputation of being exceedingly gentle. During the ride the horse took fright from some mysterious cause and ran away. On being asked his opinion as to the cause of such extraordinary proceedings of the horse, the doctor replied: "It must have been because that the horse is used to hearing only English spoken behind him.

Mrs A N Sutcliffe has gone down to Rome to visit relatives.

Mrs L L Caldwell is in North Carolina spending some time with relatives and friends at her old home.

Misses Rosa Steele and Julius Scott of Kingstree came up Friday and are visiting the family of W L Bass, Esq.

Mr H P Epps will enter the store of Mr S M Askins as clerk on July 1st, having severed his connection with Messrs Epps & Epps, with whom he has been quite a while.

Beans are still being shipped by our truckers. Something over four car loads went off Saturday. The season was thought to be over several days ago, but the vines continue bearing and prices hold up remarkably well.

Mr B O Bristow, of Darlington, was noted on our streets Monday.

Mr Walter W McCutchen came in town Monday on a visit to relatives and friends. Mr McCutchen's life up to some eight years ago was spent here. Hence his coming here was coming among old friends. All were glad to greet him once more. He is now living in Camden.

Our thanks are due Col Peter Epps of Cades for a really magnificent cabbage which he sent us a few days ago. In size it was a monster. Compact, milky white and of a delicious flavor. No Northern garden could produce its superior.

Mr C R Gandy has accepted the position as book-keeper for Messrs A H Williams & Co., and will enter upon the discharge of his duties about July 1st. This position was made vacant by the election of Mr E W Yates to the cashiership of the Bank of Lake City. Mr Gandy is now Coast Line agent at Maxton, N C. He will resign this position, of course. He is an all-round, first rate man, courteous, competent and thoroughly reliable. He and Mrs Gandy will be real acquisitions to the town and to them we all will extend hearty welcomes. Mr Gandy will no doubt be delighted to return to the home of her childhood.

Zedick Stephens, deep twilight color, on Sunday stowed away between decks a cargo of corn essence, trade marked "76," and sailed away with no definite port in view. His course became very erratic and his compass pointed to any old place. Off the east coast of Rodgers Island he was in collision with the three masted schooner, Dave Andrew Graham. The Graham had his "spinaker" boom cracked and one side of his pilot house stove in. The Stevens afterward lost his rudder and the pilot deserted. He then rolled in the trough of the waves at the mercy of the sea until picked up as a derelict by the cruiser George Arms and towed in. Intendant Gaskins said, "Salvage $5, damaging the Graham $5.00. Sec!" The captain of the Brewster Dick, which went out on a cruise Sunday night, was relieved of $12.00 for target practice without orders.

CADES KALEIDOSCOPE

CADES, June 22.—Mr Lavender of Georgetown spent last Saturday night as the guest of Mr W E Nesmith of this place.

Mr W P McGill visited his brother, Mr J Y McGill of Cedar Swamp. The latter's eldest daughter, Miss Louise, is sick of typhoid fever.

Two of our most prominent young men came very near getting into a row Friday night as the results of misunderstood practical joke.

Mr W E Nesmith has been indisposed for some days this week.

Miss Jeddie Nesmith returned to her home at Dock Sunday, after a pleasant visit to relatives at this place.

The young folks gave another entertainment at the residence of Mr and Mrs J J M Graham last Friday evening. Ice cream was served in abundance by the committee, which consisted of the following members: Messrs Cash Epps, W P McGill, Jr., J Y McGill, M D Nesmith, and Misses Mittie McGill, Pearl Graham, Maggie Epps, Ruby Graham, Every feature was delightfully carried out.

Thanks to friend "Nox" for his kind references to "Ivanhoe." I assure him that I shall work to the best of my ability in getting out the news.

A few beans are still coming in. I understand that good, tender beans are bringing from $1.50 to $2.00 a basket.

Services were conducted in the Baptist church Sunday by Rev T J Rooke. A large congregation was present.

Crops are looking well around here. Tobacco is well advanced and curing will soon commence.

News is scarce at this place just now so this will have to do for, IVANHOE.

Some people praise themselves by blaming others.
