

WEDDING BELLS AT LAKE CITY.

Two Marriages Last Week and Another on the Tapis.

LAKE CITY, December 12:—Rev S C Morris of Mt Pleasant spent the greater portion of last week in our town with relatives.

Mr W E Severance went to Florence Thursday.

Mr O L Bass is out on a visit to relatives and friends. His home is in Pensacola, Fla.

Mr Sidney Sutcliffe of New York is visiting his mother and sisters, corner Acline avenue and Charles street.

Messrs Clark and Outlaw of Darlington had advertised another auction sale of horses for last Saturday, and they were here with a lot but sold only ten. The first bunch were pretty good horses and went off so easily that the dealers probably thought they would this time sweep things. We understand that it was not a genuine auction. Whenever the highest price offered was not satisfactory the so-called auctioneer would simply raise the figure himself and send the horse back to the stable.

Miss Bertha Morris, who is teaching near Bethlehem, spent the latter part of the week at home.

Miss Dolhe Rickenbaker is at home from the Greenville Female college for the holidays.

Mr W B Cole and Miss Leila Gaskins were married on the 7th instant. The bride is a daughter of Mr Samuel T Gaskins, and the groom the town marshal.

Mr H A Hickson and Miss Annie Powers were united in holy wedlock at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr J J Morris, on the evening of the 8th instant. The ceremony was performed by the Rev T J Rooke, of the Baptist church, and was witnessed by members of the immediate family of the contracting parties.

Messrs Stuckey & Flowers have moved across Acline avenue to the Singletary stables, which are directly opposite their old stand, where the Smith-Williams building is now going up.

We had two or three traveling shows last week, moving pictures, phonograph, trick, dog, etc.

W L Bass, Esq., attended court in Florence last week.

Mr E Armlin Vaught and Miss Mamie E Snow were married on the evening of the 7th instant, the Rev J B Traywick being the minister who received the vows. The ceremony took place at the residence of Mr E W Yates, who is a brother-in-law of the bride. About thirty relatives of the couple were present, among whom were Mr and Mrs John Snow of Rome, Dr and Mrs M Legett, Misses Stanley and Misses Smith of Marion. Mr Vaught is from Valdosta, Ga., and thither the twain went immediately after the marriage. May all the joy and peace that earth can give be theirs on their way through the coming years.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr W L Askins and Miss Marie K Beavers, on the 22nd instant, at 4 p m, at the residence of Mr Henry P Epps. Mr Askins is the youngest son of our Intendant, Mr S M Askins, and the bride-to-be is from Atlanta, Ga. W. L. B.

The Bank of Kingstree

THE BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR is a subject to which writers give much argument. There is really no ground for discussion for beyond question the best book is A BANK BOOK.

If you have such a book, you can get all the others as you want them. The way to have plenty of entries is to make them often. But you must make a start and there is no better time to make it than during the Christmas season. How easy it is to learn will be freely explained at the Kingstree Bank, which, as you know, is among the best of its kind.
