Postmaster Jacobs has received instructions from the post-office department not to admit to the mails postal cards with mica or other glazed substance on the surface. The reason assigned is that in distributing the mail this substance flies into the eyes of the mail clerks, thereby endangering their vision.

Little Nine Pounder.

Editor COUNTY RECORD:—

I'm a little baby. I arrived at Prof Bethea's last Saturday. Although I've been in this world but a few days, I'll have you know that I'm the boss of the ranch. When I want anything all I have to do is to lift my voice and such a scurrying to obey me you never saw in your life, but I would be hard on them. "It is excellent to have the strength of a giant; But to use it like a giant is tyrannous."

But as I said above when I want anything it is amusing to watch them work over time to obey me. I watch them and blink at them and crow and it's jolly fun. My papa says I'm a little Chinese with a red face and a pug nose and that I weigh only nine pounds. But then I don't think he's so big. He's made his brag that he'll have me working with him before long, but I don't think I believe he wanted me to be a girl anyway. The idea of me being a girl! I'll lose my guess if I don't make him recognize my existence by getting up in the night and walking me up and down before the summer is over. I am the owner of a very nice voice which I mean to cultivate every night. If you don't believe it just drop in at Prof. Bethea's some evening during choir practice.

Owing to my recent arrival in town I have met but few people and I have not gone out in society as yet to any extent. Dr Scott called on me once or twice and was quite pleasant. In fact, he was my first caller when I came to town. Aunt 'Ria stayed by me and was a fine chaperon. If my name is not on your calling list please place it there, as I shall be happy to see you at any and all times. I haven't been named yet and until that is done, Mr. Editor, I subscribe myself,

LITTLE NINE POUNDER.

Graded School Items.

The Wee Nee Literary Society met last Friday afternoon and had a very interesting meeting, as quite a number of the members was present. The Society has adopted blue and white as its colors. There will be only one more meeting this year and we would be delighted to have the trustees present. We were glad to have Mr Jacobs, the chairman of the board of trustees, with us for a short while Monday morning.

The school will have half holiday Friday, May 10, to participate in the Memorial exercises at the cemetery.

The last lyceum attraction, which was one of the best of the season, was given in the school auditorium last Friday evening.

The faculty and the four upper grades are expecting to enjoy a picnic at "Red Hill" next Saturday. We are hoping that the weather will be propitious, for at our last picnic a storm overtook us before we reached home.

Mr Bethea is wearing a broad smile this week. Ask him why.

RECENT OCCURRENCES IN AND AROUND GREELYVILLE.

THE DISTRICT CONFERENCE—FARM WORK RETARDED—PERSONAL AND LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST.

GREELYVILLE, April 29:—After an absence of two weeks I again knock for admittance. May I come in?

On account of the recent cold and heavy rains farmers are somewhat behind with their work. Some few have cotton up, while there are some who have had to re-plant their entire crop of corn and cotton. The cold killed or damaged corn so that it was necessary to plant it over. The outlook at present is gloomy but we hope that as the old saying goes, "the darkest part of night is just before dawn."

The District conference of Summerville district, which has been in session here since Wednesday night, came to a close last night. The opening sermon was preached on Wednesday evening at 8 30 o'clock by Rev Mr Herbert of Georgetown. There were two services each day at 12 m and 8 30 p m, except Saturday, when Dr Zimmerman of Columbia addressed the congregation at 10 30 a m. Although it is such a busy time the church was full almost to overflowing and on Sunday there wasn't enough room to seat the crowd.

Rev W B Wharton of Columbia was present in the interest of the Epworth Orphanage and a collection was taken for this cause on Friday evening, from which the neat little sum of $53.32 was realized. Rev Mr Spigner, pastor in charge, reports a very pleasant Conference and good reports from all over the District.

The farewell sermon was preached by Presiding Elder Carlisle, after which Rev Mr Spigner in a few appropriate remarks thanked the people of Greelyville and surrounding community for having so generously responded to the call for the entertainment of the visitors. Such is always the spirit of Greelyville. It is impossible to name the visitors, hence I will only give you the names of the delegates, for which the writer is indebted to the courtesy of of Rev Mr Spigner:
