Local and Personal.

Mr G G Haselden was here Tuesday from Scranton.

Mr T W Boye of Greelyville was noted in Kingstree Monday.

Mr M Bow of Georgetown has accepted a position with Mr J S Bron.

Mr S Marcus left this week for New York to purchase his fall stock.

Mr P H Stoll is spending some time with his mother's family in Chester.

Mr D W Floyd, of the vicinity of Lake City, spent Sunday in Kingstree.

Capt. J H Blackwell of Lake City spent the day here Tuesday on business.

Hon. W L Bass of Lake City was here Tuesday attending a "reference."

Misses Mabel and Belle Harper left Tuesday to visit the Jamestown exposition.

Miss Florie Meyer returned home on Monday after a pleasant visit to friends in Charleston.

Mr W E Thompson, who now holds a position in Georgetown, spent the "Fourth" in town with friends.

Mr Z C Lynch, a successful young business man of Cowards, was noted on our streets Tuesday.

We regret to learn of the illness of Capt. W D Fitch and hope he may soon be restored to health.

Messrs Julian and Cecil Jacobs of Charleston are spending some days here with their home folk.

We thank our good friend, Mr Frank M Nesmith of Benson, for a choice lot of Irish potatoes and cabbage.

Mr H L Whitlock, who lives near Lake City, was here Monday all day shaking hands with his friends.

Miss Sallye Creasy, the Kingstree Dry Goods Co's popular milliner, has returned to her home in Baltimore.

Mrs W L Askins of Lake City and Mrs W S Lynch of Scranton visited the family of H G Askins, Esq., this week.

Mr W E James, the local manager of the Kingstree Oil Mill, has returned to his home in Darlington, the season being over.

Miss Mamie Jacobs, accompanied by her friend, Dr Rosa Gantt of Spartanburg, will leave this morning for an extended visit to New York.

Tuesday afternoon we learned that quite a destructive hail fell near town out toward Cades. That seems to be a favorite spot for hailstorms.

Miss Annie Stackley has returned from the Columbia Female college to spend the vacation months at home.

With sincere regret we learn of the illness of Hon. W D Bryan at his home at Taft. Mr Bryan has had typhoid fever.

Mr Lamar Montgomery has accepted the position of assistant cashier of the Bank of Williamsburg, beginning on Monday last.

Mr—Stancill of Rome has our appreciative thanks for a nice mess of cabbage and tomatoes. They were as fine as we have seen this season.

The first wagon-load of home-grown water-melons we have noticed was brought in Saturday by Mr Harold Kinder. He also brought in a fine lot yesterday.

Mr J C Everett of Salters has recently returned from the exposition at Jamestown. He says that the exhibition is very little better than that of Charleston several years ago.

We are informed that Epps postoffice will in the near future be discontinued. Our subscribers at that office will please notify us to what other office they wish their papers transferred.

Rev J E Mahaffey requests us to announce that he will preach next Sunday morning and evening in the Methodist church. This week he has been assisting in pastoral work near Leesville.

Mr R B Ervin of Umatilla, Fla., has been on a visit to the family of his nephew, Mr N D Lesene. Mr Ervin is a native South Carolinian who has made his home for many years in the Land of Flowers.

Misses Barbara and Florrie Jacobs have returned from a visit of several weeks to relatives in Macon, Ga. They were accompanied by their brother, Mr E J Jacobs, who will spend some days with his parents, Mr and Mrs Louis Jacobs.

The last few days have been pretty hot, but it is not so bad in Kingstree as some other places, the highest temperature recorded being 97 degrees on Monday. At Charleston the same day the maximum was 100; St. George 98; Yamassee 98.

A Card.

Editor COUNTY RECORD:—Allow me space in your valuable paper to ask the Grand Jurors to explain to the public why such a false Presentment was made in regard to the condition of the county jail; how filthy it was, how many vermin were seen crawling around. I will only call your attention to that portion of your solemn oath: "Your shall present no one for envy, hatred or malice." Now, Mr Foreman, you promised me to see the special committee whom you put so much confidence in who examined the jail and have them explain to the public the facts.

Yours respectfully,
 GEORGE J GRAHAM,
 S. W. C.

TRYING TIME FOR BAMBERG WOMEN.

Terrible Experience of Four Ladies With Stranger.

BAMBERG, July 6:—The citizens of Bamberg were greatly aroused at an early hour last night when it was reported that four white ladies had been held up only a few hundred yards beyond the city limits.

Their experience was detailed by them about as follows:

"Shortly after we left the house, walking down the direction of Hunter's chapel, we discovered a man, a white man, walking in the woods. He came into the road, passed a few steps in front of us and pulling out his pistol, pointed it at us and told us that if we made any outcry he would kill us. We were all paralyzed with fear. There was a wide ditch by the side of the road, almost full of water. He ordered us to wade through it and go out into the woods. We did not go into the water, but finding a comparatively narrow span in the ditch, three of us managed to get across, and he assisted the fourth in crossing."

"He kept his pistol pointed towards us all the time as he marched us through the woods, across a barbed wire fence and into a pond, where we sunk in mud and water almost to our shoe tops. Here he ordered us to sit down in the mud and water, but no one obeyed. The youngest in the crowd began to cry, and about the same time a wagon could be seen in the distance coming along the road. The man then laughed demoniacally and said: 'I just wanted to show you what I could do with you,' and ran off through the wood."

"He did not touch one of us except the one he helped across the ditch, but he had us completely at his mercy and we were afraid to refuse to obey his orders."

The general impression seems to be that it was the act of a crazy man, but if so, it is passing strange that he has not yet been found.

One of the ladies held up is married and is here from another part of the State on a visit, while the other three are single and reside in this community. They are all members of our best families and it is at their earnest request that their names are not given.—News & Courier.

Endorses Our Views.

The following letter from one of the RECORD's oldest and most esteemed subscribers, and a man of fine intelligence and sound judgment, withal—is duly appreciated. As he is a very modest man we withhold his name and address:

"Editor COUNTY RECORD:—I am so pleased with your demonstrations in reply to the Columbia State about compulsory education, that I beg to extend my subscription to THE RECORD before my time is out. I enclose one dollar, for which please give me credit."
