

Lake City

Highest Market
Prices
Square Dealing

TOBACCO MARKET

Best Leaf
Sold in the State

THREE WAREHOUSES:

THE STAR

COL. O. T. HALL, Proprietor.

KING'S

J. D. KING, Proprietor.

PLANTERS'

MOTLEY & MOTLEY, Proprietors.

All Thinking Men

Will admit that, even from a business standpoint, "Honesty is the best policy," saying nothing of morals. Strict adherence to this motto has gained for this place an enviable reputation; and she claims the lead in these things, to wit: Square Dealings, Highest Market Prices, Best Leaf Sold in the State.

Don't Be Led Away

by fanfaronade or or will o' the wisps, but stick to him who treats you as a brother and to those whose interests are identified with yours.

The conclusion of the whole matter is that Williamsburg, Florence and Pudding Swamp will all foregather this tobacco season at

LAKE CITY, SOUTH CAROLINA.

Have Had Their Day.

The "mush room" markets have had their day and are gone: those places that endeavored to build up a trade on wind have collapsed; but the business in South Carolina has adjusted itself and is now on a sound, sensible basis, and the products of the tobacco fields have found their natural outlets and one of these is the LAKE CITY MARKET.

Bring Your Tobacco to Lake City

We will see to it that there shall be no reasonable grounds for complaint.

Even in the number of pounds handled Lake City, in proportion to size, leads the PALMETTO STATE:

GOOD FEATURES.

Plenty of good warehouse room.
Spacious packing and grading houses.
Good banking facilities.

Lake City Market.

In the greatest State in the Union she stands

FIRST
in quality of goods handled.

FIRST
in satisfactory dealings.

FIRST
in a clean record upon the great markets.

It is the cardinal principle of the undersigned that

ALL SHALL BE TREATED RIGHT

and if you bring your tobacco to Lake City we will see to it that there shall be no reasonable grounds for complaint.

LAKE CITY TOBACCO BOARD OF TRADE,

W. S. MOORE,
President.

L. O. HOLLOWAY,
Vice-President.

J. R. M. MOTLEY,
Sec'y and Treas.