

THE NEWS AT CADES.

Death of Mrs. Tarte—Other News of Interest.

Mrs. S. J. Tarte died suddenly with paralysis at this place Wednesday night. She was well-known here and was a very pious lady about 72 years of age.

Mr. J. N. Sauls is here from the Jamestown exposition, where he has been for several months.

Dr. and Mrs. Gregory from Packsville, S. C., were in town Friday.

Mrs. J. R. Reeves, accompanied by an aunt and sister of Mr. Reeves, returned from Wilmington a few days ago.

Regular services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. T. J. Rooke, at the Baptist church Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m.

Rev. J. A. White preached his farewell sermon at this place Sunday afternoon. The many friends of Mr. White and his family are sorry to part with them.

Mr. J. C. McElveen of Lake City, representing the well-known fruit firm Wellbrock Bros. of Charleston, was in town Monday talking to his people's interest.

Mr. H. J. Williamson went to Hartsville Saturday on business.

Mr. R. A. Cottingham of Salem made a pleasant call in town Sunday afternoon.

The Cadés correspondent and "POSSUM" are not friendly, but our editor must not be behind our correspondent at Lake City. Hunt up, boys, we have a few days before Thanksgiving.
