COST.

Remember the Place and Save Money.

KINGSTREE DRY GOODS COMPANY.

Local and Personal.

We are sending out a number of statements to subscribers in arrears. There are now on our books nearly 2,000 subscribers, many of whom have paid nothing in a year or longer. We ask all these delinquents to settle up as soon as possible. Each account is made out up to the nearest year or half year. It may be that some who get these statements have already paid; if so just call our attention to the fact and we will cheerfully make the correction. All we want is what is due us and not a cent more. But we do want that.

The beautiful snow.

Mr D E McCutchen of Church was a visitor in town Saturday.

Mr W S Brockinton of Indian town was noted in town Saturday of last week.

Misses Delmotte Floyd and Addie Rollins, two of Lake City's attractive young ladies, spent Thanksgiving in town.

Miss Lila Hammet, who is stenographer for a firm at Marion, spent several days this week with her parents in town.

Mr and Mrs H M Cooper and Miss Jennie Cooper of Fowlers visited the family of Mr Hugh McCutchen the early part of this week.

Messrs J C Graham of Gourdin and J E W Chandler of Lake City are serving this week as members of the grand jury of the United States district court in Charleston.

The Germofert Manufacturing Company of Charleston have something to say this week in our advertising columns. Their high grade fertilizers are sold by the Farmers' Supply Co.

Thanksgiving passed off here without special accident or incident. There were a number of hunting parties out, but from visible results the Nimrods accomplished but small success in the destruction of game.

Monday was salesday, but most of the sales for various reasons were called off. The tract sold—Riser vs Fulton, containing 90 acres—was bid in by Leroy Lee, Esq., for $1,500. This land is just out of town and is quite a desirable property.

The hot supper given Friday night for the benefit of the proposed Confederate monument added about $75 to the fund, that being the amount realized. Considering the inclement weather the proceeds were unexpectedly gratifying.

Kingstree is to have a whole week of vaudeville next week at popular prices. "The James Adams' Big Ten Cent Show," as it reads on the bills, will give daily performances for one week. This is said to be one of the most popular ten cent shows on the road and they claim that their best advertisement is to see the show.

Monday being salesday brought quite a number of representative people to town from all over the county. We are able to mention only a few comparatively—just such as we chanced to meet on the street and in the office, as follows: Messrs. W S Eaddy, Prospect; J D Carter, Leo; C C and W D Daniel, Cooper; H L Whitfield, Lake City; E T Gaskins, Lake City; James Whitlock and A R Mosely, Salters; W C Wilson, Cades; S Poston and Walter Poston, Jay; S B Poston, Johnsonville; W J Singletary, Single; M G McMillan, Heinemann.

After all, we got a 'possum for Thanksgiving. It was a fine specimen and brought joy to the whole household. We are indebted for this delicacy to the kind thoughtfulness of Mr B W McElveen of Cades. What with the 'possum "done to a turn," the potatoes presented by our friends, Mr Hinds and Mr Nesmith, the pumpkin given by a colored friend and the nice mess of turnips sent us by Dr J R Brockinton, our Thanksgiving feast exceeded the culinary art of Brillat-Savarin or Lucullus, and would even rival that of Belshazzar without the handwriting on the wall.

Mr. W. J. Brockinton of Harper favored us with a visit Monday.

Mr. E. R. Rowell of Taft called to see us Tuesday while in town.

Among our welcome visitors Monday was Mr. W. B. Brown of Leo.

Mr. T. R. Johnson of Lane was in town Monday and called pleasantly on us.

Mr. R. D. Gamble of Indiantown was among those who visited town Monday.

Mr. W. W. Cribb was a county seat visitor Monday and called to see us.

Dr. W. J. Haselden of Cades favored us with an agreeable visit Monday.

Mr. A. J. Prosser was among the county seat visitors noted in town Monday.

Mr. T. Armstrong McRea of Cedar Swamp came in to see us Saturday while in town.

Mr. M. L. Locklear of Greelyville was in Kingstree Monday and called to see us.

Mr. Julian A. Thompson of Church was a pleasant visitor Monday at our office.

Mr. W. C. Taylor of Rhems, while here Monday, took occasion to renew his subscription to THE RECORD.

Mr. C. E. Thomlinson of Lake City, while here Monday, took occasion to add his name to THE RECORD'S mail list.

In the general shake-up of the Methodist Conference assignments for the ensuing year it is gratifying to the people of Kingstree that Rev. J. E. Mahaffey has been returned to this charge. Mr. Mahaffey has gained many friends here and almost everybody, whether or not members of his church, thinks him the right man in the right place.

Dr. R. H. Drake, EYE SPECIALIST.

Owing to the rush of business Dr. Drake will remain at Dr W V Brockinton's drug store until December 12, treating eyes and fitting glasses.

The Doctor is the only man that has ever been to our town that treats the eyes if needed before fitting them with glasses.

Headache, neuralgia or any pain about the head or eyes is caused from your eyes, even if your sight is perfect. Then you need treatment. Have the defect corrected without delay and preserve your vision.

Special attention given children. Examinations free. Office hours from 9 a m to 4 p m.

Coffins, Caskets and Undertakers' Supplies at L. J. Stackley's Furniture store.

THE BEST PAINT

Applied by skilled mechanics is worth a fair price. Cheap mixtures slopped on by cheap painters are dear at any price. We expect to receive a reasonable equivalent for our labor. But we give an honest dollar's worth for every dollar we get, and we endeavor to permanently satisfy our customers.
