KINGSTREE DRY GOODS COMPANY.

Local and Personal

We are sending out a number of statements to subscribers in arrears. There are now on our books nearly 2,000 subscribers, many of whom have paid nothing in a year or longer. We ask all these delinquents to settle up as soon as possible. Each account is made out up to the nearest year or half year. It may be that some who get these statements have already paid; if so just call our attention to the fact and we will cheerfully make the correction. All we want is what is due us and not a cent more. But we do want that.

Mr W C Wilson was here Saturday from Cades.

Mr W E Nesmith of Cades was in Kingstree Monday.

Mr J H Pearce of Cades was noted on our streets Tuesday.

Mr S B Poston of Johnsonville was here Tuesday on business.

The Thaw trial is again holding the boards in New York City. A good deal of sickness among children is reported in town.

Mr W M O'Bryan of Heinemann spent yesterday here on business.

Among the visitors noted here Monday was Mr S C Godwin of Lake City.

Mr J P Grimsley of Cades called to see us Monday while in Kingstree.

Mr E F Prosser, a prominent business man of Vox, was in town yesterday.

Mr J F Register of Greelyville paid our sanctum a pleasant visit yesterday.

Mr S L Courtney was among the visitors to the county capital Monday.

Mr J T Frierson of Mouzon called to see us Saturday while here on business.

Mr J P Eaddy and Mr Cothran, of the Cades section, were noted in town yesterday.

The anti-Rutledge advocates should turn out in force at Johnsonville next Thursday.

Charlie Lee, a Chinese laundryman at Manning, ran amuck last week and had to be taken to jail.

Again we are compelled to reiterate that we cannot publish communications that come to us on publication day.

To our friend Mr T M Kellahan of Benson we are indebted for a fine mess of turnips of the ruta бага variety.

The gale here last Saturday suggested the disastrous storm of 1906, but so far as we have heard no damage resulted.

Will Herbe, a young negro who formerly worked here at Thomas and Bradham's stables, committed suicide in Manning last week.

Mr M W McConnell, formerly of Kingstree, but more recently of Scranton, has gone to Columbia to pursue a course at a business college.

The Thomas opera house has been equipped with comfortable chairs and there will doubtless be some good attractions before the "show season" expires.

The dispensary committee has brought out some rather sensational revelations affecting men of the highest standing, and the end is not yet probably.

The legislature convened Tuesday at noon, all the Williamsburg delegation being present; viz., Senator W L Bass and Hons. W D Bryan, R H Kellahan and W P Gause.

Mr B F Brockinton of Motbridge, Florence county, had business here Monday and paid us a pleasant call. Mr Brockinton is a former resident of Williamsburg and numbers many friends here.

At Boyertown, Pa, an appalling disaster occurred Monday night in the opera house while a school entertainment was in progress. A gasoline tank exploded, causing a panic, and out of an audience of 700 people, 167 were killed.

Owing to the fact that we have been short of help for the past two weeks our news columns have not contained the usual amount of reading matter. It is hard to get printers at any price and almost impossible to keep them when they accept an offer.

The stockholders of the Williamsburg Livestock Co held their annual meeting yesterday and we understand that a fine dividend was declared. Resolutions of regret were passed on account of the death of Mr T A Blakeley, who was a stockholder in the Livestock Co.

If you think it does not pay to advertise in the COUNTY RECORD just ask the genial manager for the People's Mercantile Company, in this city. As a direct result of their advertisement in last week's issue they sold six hundred dollars worth of clothing in a day and a half.

Everybody loves our baby, rosy sweet and warm
 With kissy places on her neck and dimples on her arms.
 Once she was so thin and cross, used to cry with pain—
 Mother gave her Cascasweet, now she's well again. Sold by W L Wallace, M. D.

A COMEDY OF ERRORS.

Man Who Wasn't Cheap Got a Cigar and a Bad Opinion of the Hotel.

The cigar stand in the lobby of a certain hotel is nearer the door than the desk is, and frequently people who have never stayed at the hostelry will go to the stand to register. The other evening a man from up in the north part of the state entered the lobby and went to the cigar stand.

"What are your prices?" he asked of the girl.
 "From 10 to 50 cents," she replied, thinking he meant the prices of cigars.

"Go! Is that all?" he asked.
 "Sounds good to me."
 The girl put three boxes of cigars on the case. The man took a Havana. "Much obliged," he said. "Is it customary to 'set 'em up' to every new guest?"

The girl thought it was one of the usual little pleasantries men unload at the stand. "Oh, yes," she said.

"Well," said the man from the country, "where is the register?"
 "Right here," said the girl, pointing to the cash register.

He thought it a joke and laughed. "Where's the book?" he asked when he had finished laughing. "I meant to put my name down."

"You don't have to register when you buy a cigar," said the girl. She didn't know just what was wrong with that man.

"But I want a room," he said.
 "Oh!" came from the girl as she realized the mistake that had been made. "There's the desk over there. This is the cigar stand. Go there and get your room."

Then she dropped into a chair to laugh. Pretty soon the clerk came to the stand.

"Say," he said to the girl, "what made you tell that man we had rooms here for from 10 to 50 cents a night? He said he wasn't cheap and would take the quarter one. He's gone away with a bad opinion of us."

"That's not the worst of it," said the girl. "He's gone away with one of our fifteen cent cigars too."—Exchange.

Origin of "Hip, Hip, Hurray!"

A London paper, answering a question as to the derivation of "Hip, hip, hurrah!" printed the following excerpt on the subject from the London Tatler of 1832: "During the stirring times of the crusades the chivalry of Europe was excited to arms by the inflammatory appeals of the well known Peter the Hermit. While preaching the crusade this furious zealot was accustomed to exhibit a banner emblazoned with the letters H. E. P., the initials of the Latin words, 'Hierosolyma Est Perdita' (Jerusalem is destroyed). The people in some of the countries which he visited, not being acquainted with Latin, read and pronounced the inscription as if one word—Hep. The followers of the Hermit were accustomed, whenever an unfortunate Jew appeared in the streets, to raise the cry, 'Hep, hep, hurra,' to hunt him down and flesh upon the defenseless Israelite their maiden swords, before they essayed their temper with the scimitar of the Saracen."
