A VARIETY OF NEWS FROM GREELYVILLE.

MODERN SCHOOL BUILDING ASSURED—A MARRIAGE—CLUBS RE-ORGANIZE—LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS.

GREELYVILLE, April 27:—Mrs J C Josey has returned home after spending several weeks with relatives at Johnsonville.

Mr and Mrs W H McGee went to Kingstree last Tuesday to see some body's children see the animals at the show.

Dr E O Taylor came home last Monday from Charleston Medical college to spend his vacation.

Mr and Mrs Rodgers returned to their home in Marion last Tuesday after spending several months with their daughter, Mrs F Mishoe.

Your correspondent heard it suggested by one of our enterprising business men that the town buy several acres of land at old Mt Hope church and use same for a cemetery. We think this ought to meet the approval of all right thinking men in the community, as we have no place to bury our dead now, except small grave yards which are not kept as they should be.

The fake moving picture man was in town the greater part of last week with his show(?). It is not safe to mention it to the ladies and gentlemen who are still carrying tickets for said show that did not show.

Miss Kittie Boyle and little Henry Louise Johnson, the pet of Greelyville, are spending sometime with friends and relatives at Lynchburg.

Mr S V Taylor left last Wednesday for Atlanta to be present at the commencement of the Atlanta Dental College, where his brother, Dr W Leland Taylor, will graduate, also to attend the marriage of Dr Taylor to a charming young lady of Atlanta, which happy event will be April 29.

Miss Helen Keisler, who has been teaching near here for several years, returned to her home at Chapples last Friday, to the regret of the many warm friends she has made while here. We hope to see her back again next session.

In accordance with a call of county chairman, Greelyville Democratic Club No 2, met and re-organized Saturday. Capt D J Bradham was elected chairman and A McD Burgess secretary. The following were elected to represent this club at the county convention: Capt D J Bradham, Messrs J F Register,

J R Hair and J W Kennedy. Capt D J Bradham executive committeeman.

Our town and the surrounding country are thoroughly awake along educational lines. A mass meeting was held in the town hall immediately after the organization of the Democratic club for the purpose of considering means for the improvement of our educational facilities in the way of a new building. Mr J G McCullough, superintendent of education, was present and made a nice little talk and offered some valuable suggestions. After some discussion it was decided to vote to bond the district to raise $7000.00 with which to build a school house. Mr J F Register was appointed as a committee of one to carry out the plans of this meeting.

Mr J N Browder and Miss Bessie Windham were happily married Sunday evening at the home of Rev R W Spigner, who officiated. Mr Browder is one of our most progressive business men and the bride is a daughter of the late Judge J G Windham. Both parties are deservedly popular here and at Manning, the home of the bride, and will carry with them as they embark on the matrimonial sea the best wishes of many friends for a "bon voyage."

A Surprise Marriage.

HARPERS, April 25:—A very unexpected marriage took place here on Sunday, 19th inst., the principals being Mr Donald Camlin of Harper and Miss Italine Boyd of Trio.

Mr Camlin drove up to the gate with a spanking team of horses, where Miss Boyd met him and before the family was aware of the fact the young couple was going down the road in a cloud of dust.

They were pursued but it was too late. O. T.

Democratic Club Meeting.

Pursuant to the call of the county chairman Salters Democratic club met and reorganized on Saturday, April 25th.

The following officers were elected: T E Salters, president; Jas A Ferrell, vice president; J H L Chandler, secretary and treasurer; Jas E Davis, member executive committee.

A R Mosely, E T Hamer and Jas E Davis were elected delegates to county convention.

Alex Spivey, John C Everett and E T Hamer were appointed committee on registration.

Death of Mr. G. W. Arms.

Sunday afternoon, about 6 o'clock, at Mr Eaddy's boarding house, Mr George W Arms passed away, after a long illness during which he suffered great pain.

The funeral and burial took place Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Williamsburg cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev J E Mahaffey. Mr Arms had been for many years a familiar figure in Kingstree, having served as deputy sheriff, jailor and court crier at various times.

For the past year or two his health had failed and a few months ago he was attacked with paralysis of the tongue, which interfered with his articulation. During his last illness the people of Kingstree kindly ministered to his wants and Mr Eaddy and his family did all in their power for his comfort until the end came.

Mr Arms was 68 years old and leaves a wife and one child.

Miss Nance Is Coming.

As will be seen in the notice of the county superintendent of education, Miss Mary T Nance, State organizer of the Rural Improvement association, will soon be here and will visit any school where an invitation is extended her.

Miss Nance is a young lady of charming personality and her work for the betterment of country schools has attracted attention even beyond the borders of our State. She has devoted her splendid talent to this cause and her visits are an inspiration not only to the schools, but to the communities that she visits.

Union Graded School.

ROME, April 20:—On March 28 the Georgetown Teachers' association met at Union graded school for the last time for this season. This meeting was indeed quite interesting, even more so than the preceding ones.

The following interesting programme was carried out:

Discussion: Parts of Speech—Prof W C Bynum.

Discussion: History—Prof V C Daniels.

Music: Duet—Misses Bessie and Marie Rivers.

Discussion: Reading—Miss Annie Workman.

Discussion: Literary Society—Prof O M Mitchell.

Music: Duet—Misses Rivers.

As Miss Cora Huggins, who had been placed on the programme to discuss Geography, was necessarily absent, she had arranged for two of her third-grade pupils, little Misses Daisy Collins and Ethel Johnson, to model relief maps of North and South America made of sand and paste. In their clear and simple explanation of the art of "map-making" these little girls aroused great interest, and they and their teacher received many compliments on their work.

Mr McCullough, superintendent of education in Williamsburg county, kindly consented to deliver an address, which was greatly enjoyed by all. This being Mr McCullough's first visit to our school we were all delighted to have him among us and appreciated the compliments tary terms which he used in regard to Union graded school.

Mr Josiah Doar and Mr B B Chandler also made short addresses. Mr Doar has been with us often and is loved by every pupil in the school.

A unanimous vote of thanks was extended by the members of the association to the people of Rome for their hospitality and kindness during this and the previous meeting.

The Georgetown court house was elected the place of next meeting of the Association, which will on the last Saturday in October.

After the meeting had adjourned dinner was served in the school building by the ladies of Rome.

Among the teachers and other visitors present were the following: Mr and Mrs Josiah Doar, Mr J G McCullough, Mr Wattie Snowden, Prof W C Bynum, Prof V C Daniels, Misses Annie Workman, Hazzard, Smith, Poe, Leslie Beatty, Mellie Brockinton, Labruce, Ford, Mary, and Sadie Snowden, Bessie and Marie Rivers, Prof O M Mitchell, Mrs William Chandler, Mrs Mattie Price, Mr and Mrs Edgar Beatty.

The trustees met on April 2 for the purpose of electing teachers for the session of 1908-9. All of the present teachers were reelected and we are glad to know that at least three will return. Prof Mitchell and the Misses Rivers have accepted their positions for another year. We are sorry to say that Miss Huggins has decided not to return.

Prof Mitchell was called away Friday evening, April 10, to the bedside of his father, who was very ill. However, we are glad to say that his father is somewhat better and that Prof Mitchell was with us in school again on Thursday. Our sympathy has been with him and we hope that his father will continue to improve.

A Plea for the Monument.

Williamsburg chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, is intending to put forward every effort this year to raise money to aid in the erection of the monument to the Confederate soldiers of this county.

Some time ago the president of the chapter sent out letters to prominent ladies in all sections of the county, asking them to join in and use their influence in raising the necessary funds for this worthy object.

It should interest the whole county, and each community should take pride in assisting. This duty should have been performed long ago. Williamsburg is one of the few counties that have not expressed their appreciation of the heroism of her sons by commemorating it in a suitable monument.

Cedar Swamp responded liberally to the appeal, contributing $80.00, raised by one festival.

It is to be hoped that the ladies will take up this work in their respective communities and send in their contributions as soon as possible, that the order may be placed for the monument in the near future. The chapter will bestow crosses of honor upon eighteen veterans during the exercises at the opera house on Memorial day.
