A Letter.

FLORENCE, S. C., Aug. 12, 1908.
To the Democratic Voters of Williamsburg, Florence and Clarendon:

I am addressing this letter to you to say that, as a candidate for the United States Senate, I will appreciate your support in the primary of August 25, also in the second primary two weeks later, for I feel sure of leading the ticket in the first. As nearly all of you know, I was raised on a farm near Lynchburg, S. C., am now and have been a cotton planter from early manhood.

Four years ago I began to study the cause why the cotton planters couldn't get a fair price for his crop. I gradually drifted into the fight for higher priced cotton, finally throwing my whole time and force into this movement, which brought about the Southern Cotton Association and the Farmers' Union.

We have had success, as you realize, for when comparing the average cotton price for the past four years, with the average for the preceding four years, the record shows.

The situation now is this—the trouble lies in Washington and New York. Certain legislation should be enacted and certain other laws repealed. We must break up gambling in futures and compel sale and delivery of real cotton. We must change the operations of the Agricultural Department, at Washington, which collects statistics as to acreage, condition and bales ginned, but fails to collect for the grower statistics as to the number of bales in the ware-houses and cotton mills.

There are many other things needed from the standpoint of legislation. I want to carry on the fight I have been making for the past four years. As a Senator I have more influence and can be of more service. If you think that I, reared on the banks of Lynch's river, neighbor and friend to you all, can be of service to you in the Senate, I shall appreciate your vote. Cotton is the gold, the silver and the green backs of your community. The value of your cotton crop is greater than that of your tobacco, and it is cotton alone that determines the year's profit.

The prosperity of the cotton planter is vital to the merchant. Again, if you deem it more to your interest to support me, I assure you that your trust will be placed in one who shall strive to be worthy. I shall be glad for a personal letter addressed to me at Florence.

Yours very truly,
E. D. SMITH.

FLORENCE FALL FESTIVAL.

Little City Preparing for Big Time—Many Attractions.

Florence is going to have a two days' festival this year, and expects to give her visitors just as much pleasure as can well be crowded into those two days.

The fall festival will be held Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 2 and 3. Arrangements have been made for cheap rates on all roads for all points within the radius of 100 miles. A special train will be run on Wednesday from Wadesboro and all points, returning after the fun is over Wednesday night.

The first day will be taken up with trades display, horse show, with ladies and gentlemen's riding and driving contests, in which the best horses in the State will be entered and valuable prizes offered, baseball between two fine teams, and other entertainments.

The special features on Thursday will be grand military parade and sham battle, base ball and races, horse and automobile at the new driving park, which will be the biggest and best race meet held in this section of the state.

There will be exciting auto races on the wide track, two or possibly three machines starting abreast on a 45 foot wide track.

There will be frequent band concerts each day, with a poultry and pet stock show at which valuable prizes will be offered and every owner of chickens is invited to enter.

There will be many attractions besides these, among them big reunion of the Confederate veterans of the Pee Dee country at which dinner will be furnished by the ladies.

Advertising matter is now being distributed, the committees are at work and everything will be done to make this a record breaking event. Florence has always taken good care of her visitors and will do so again this year.

A Boon to Elderly People.

Most elderly people have some kidney or bladder disorder that is both painful and dangerous. Foley's Kidney Remedy has proven a boon to many elderly people as it stimulates the urinary organs, corrects irregularities and tones up the whole system. Commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy at once and be vigorous.

W L Wallace.

While we appreciate the kind words of praise given THE RECORD by Mr Loryea, of Manning, which were published in last week's issue, we beg to assure him that the splendid issue that he chanced to see was just the average paper we send out fifty-two times a year. Whether some of our friends believe it or not THE RECORD is the best advertisement for Williamsburg and Kingstree that they have ever had. THE RECORD goes to every county in South Carolina and to nearly half the States in the Union besides, and a county is "sized up" by strangers largely by the paper issued from the county seat.

Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more.
