The Postoffice Department requires us to discontinue all papers sent to subscribers one year or longer in arrears. We have deferred revising our mailing list thoroughly partly by reason of lack of time and partly because we kept on hoping that all delinquents would come up and pay what they are owing us. We regret to say, however, that it looks now as though quite a large proportion of those whose names are on our list do not intend to pay what is due on the paper and we are forced, in self-defense, to cut them off on the principle that it is poor policy to send good money after bad. Hence, we hereby give notice (1) that after January 1, 1909, not a single copy of The County Record will be sent to any person longer than a year on credit.

(2) That to every subscriber who does not pay for the paper for a full year in advance the subscription price is $1.25 a year.

(3) That any person now getting the paper, who does not care to take it any longer upon these terms will confer a favor by paying up what he owes and notifying us to take his name off our mailing list.

Mrs G Ollie Epps is visiting relatives in Foreston.

Mr and Mrs D M Ervin have been visiting friends in Darlington.

Mr J Hamp Flynn of Florence county was noted on our streets Tuesday.

Attention is called to the announcement of new lunch room in the McCabe building.

The pool room at the Kellahan Hotel is now open and ready for business.

The Thomas opera house lessees have good grounds for several breach of promise suits.

Several land sales are advertised in this issue. Here is a chance to buy a nice lot of real estate cheap.

W C DuRant, Esq. of the Manning bar, paid Kingstree a visit Thursday of last week. Mr DuRant is one of the rising young attorneys in this section of the State.

Mr H J Burgess of Mouzon favored us with a call today. Mr Burgess says that if you want your bird dog trained according to Hoyle, he is prepared to do it for you.

The Woodmen "goat" got lively scrimmage Tuesday night, the neophytes being M Woodrow Gamble and McCants. The exercises are said to have been enjoyed by the lookers on.

W F Clayton, Esq. of the Florence bar, attended court here Monday. The "Bishop" is the same genial, affable gentleman and has many friends here to whom his presence brings pleasure.

One of our bright little school girls is reported to have inquired what were the best nights. She couldn't go all ten nights, but might manage her finances to meet the demands of "Three Nights in a Bar-room."

The good housewives of Kingstree are loud in their complaint about the scarcity of "raw material" to keep the pot boiling. At times it is almost impossible to get fresh meat of any kind and poultry and eggs are literally "out of sight."

Rev Dr Robert Wilson last Sunday announced that hereafter services will be held in the Episcopal church on the second Sunday of each month. The membership of this church is increasing rapidly, and it will probably have a resident minister before very long.

The money for the managers of the recent election has been received and is ready to be disbursed by Mr N D Lesesne at Bank of Kingstree for the State and Mr H O Britton for the Federal election. No money will be paid to parties representing managers without a written order.

Tuesday, at a o'clock, an alarm of fire, given, the roof of Mr S C Anderson's dwelling having caught from a stove flue. The fire laddies responded with their usual alacrity and their well-directed work soon checked what might have been a destructive blaze. The fire did not assume proportions to warrant the bringing into action of "Our Pet" fire engine.

Messrs G Ollie Epps, Bishop Burgess, M C Butler, Louis Stackley and Tom McCutchen attended a hot supper at Indiantown last Friday night. All reported the affair as quite recherche and also a success financially. An elegant supper was served, such as the hospitable of that neighborhood know how to prepare. The proceeds were $109, to be applied to the school fund.

The "Joshua Simpkins" company booked for the opera house Saturday night failed to show up. This is the second attraction billed for the opera house this season and neither materialized, thereby causing the management much trouble and expense without any return. Such flagrant bad faith should be amenable to the law, but there seems to be no way to get at the irresponsible parties who failed to fill their engagements.
