

KINGSTREE DRY GOODS COMPANY

Spring Millinery Opening THURSDAY and FRIDAY, APRIL 1st and 2nd

We Extend a special invitation to every lady to attend this opening.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Watch Fayssoux's subject. April 11 is Easter Sunday. Watch for Fayssoux's peerless blindfold drive at 3 p m tomorrow.

The Williamsburg Live Stock Co have a new ad this issue. Read it.

Secure your seats for the Quaker Male Quartette. You can't afford to miss it.

Spring styles in men's clothing, ladies' dress goods, etc, are offered in S Marcus' new ad.

See Fayssoux's subject hypnotized for 24 hours at Dr Allen's drug store at 8 o'clock tonight.

Tobacco planters should not fail to read the Farmers' Supply Co's ad this week. It will interest them.

L J Stackley, "the Furniture Man," who carries a side line of Huyler's candies, has a new ad this week.

Don't fail to attend meeting of Board of Trade Friday night, as business of much importance will be considered.

The Board of Trade had an important meeting last night and adjourned to meet again Friday evening at 8.30 o'clock.

The Quaker Male Quartette stands par excellence unrivaled as the best musical aggregation of its size in the whole country.

THE RECORD has printed up a number of promissory note books, fifty notes to the book, that we are selling at ten cents each.

Capt W R Funk was re-elected member of the State board of equalization at the meeting of the county board held here on last Tuesday.

The Woman's World one year, one beautiful art picture in colors, one transfer embroidery pattern, all for 25 cents. Send in your orders while they last.

We shall have to depend on the boys giving us the reports of the ball games. We are always glad to give the games a write-up when we are furnished with the data.

Mr A F Stone has materials on the ground to build a cottage on his lot bought at the recent auction sale of the Thorn property. This is the first sign of building we have noticed in that part of town.

Mrs J S Eron's display window, decorated for Easter, has elicited many complimentary expressions. The window was dressed by Mr Morris Bow and shows admirable taste and artistic skill.

Anybody who sees the Quaker Quartette and honestly believes their performance is not worth the money, may have his money refunded. This is a safe promise, as the management knows everybody will be not only satisfied but highly delighted.

Some of the goods stolen from the Farmers' Supply Co's store, which was broken open last week, were found in the river swamp. Several parties are under suspicion and the toils are tightening around the guilty ones.

The Ladies' Missionary Union will convene in the Williamsburg Presbyterian church on Friday, April 9, the services to be continued through Sunday. A number of delegates and visitors are expected and the exercises each day will be both interesting and instructive.

A game of ball played between the graded school boys and a team from Salters Depot Monday resulted in a victory for the visitors by a score of 6 to 5. The game was a snappy exhibition, replete with exciting plays. Batteries: For Kingstree—Kibler and Rodgers; Salters—Mouzon, Brown and Salters.

Death of Mr F. M. Nesmith.

News was received here last Friday of the sudden death of Mr Frank M Nesmith on Monday night, March 22, at Elmodel, Ga. "Capt Frank," as the deceased was familiarly known, was about 60 years of age and leaves a wife and several children—three girls and a boy, we are informed. He left here something over a year ago to make his home at Elmodel, Ga, and lived there up to the time of his death.

Mr Nesmith was a man of high principles, straight-forward in his dealings with his fellow-man, and was a consistent member of the church. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him and the news of his death was a great shock to his many friends in this county.

We feel a personal loss in the death of "Capt Frank," as he was for many years our true and loyal friend, ever ready to prove his friendship both by word and deed. When he lived at Beuson, the year or two before going to Georgia, he seldom came to town without remembering to bring the editor fruits or vegetables from his garden and what he brought was always of the choicest quality.

A good man has gone—one who in the final accounting for the works, done in the flesh will, no doubt, receive the Master's, "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Send your loved ones a beautiful Easter token, we have them, the latest novelties.

PERSONAL.

Dr and Mrs W L Taylor spent the week-end at Greelyville.

Miss Lila Hammett is visiting friends in Columbia.

Mrs M F Heller is on a visit to relatives in Charleston.

Mrs Patrick of Barnwell is visiting her son, Mr O H Patrick.

Mr W M O'Bryan of Heinemann had business in Kingstree Monday.

Miss Lula McConnell enjoyed Sunday with her parents at Taft.

Mrs H G Askins and children are visiting relatives in Georgetown.

Mr S L Courtney who now sojourns at Single, spent the day in town Tuesday.

Mr A R Mosely of Salters Depot was in town Monday morning between trains.

E L Hirsch, Esq, was in Manning Saturday of last week on professional business.

Mrs R J Kirk will leave the latter part of the week for a visit to relatives in Charleston.

Mr Harry Riff and Mrs S Marcus visited Mr and Mrs H Nachman at Lake City Sunday.

Thos M Gilland, Esq, went to Charleston Saturday to spend several days in the city.

Mr E M Hirsch, who is now on the road as traveling salesman, is spending this week with his home folk.

Miss Mary Emma Kirk of St Johns, Berkeley county, who has been visiting her uncle, Mr R J Kirk, has returned home.

Miss Florrie Jacobs will give a linen shower this (Thursday) afternoon in honor of Miss Adelaide Harper, who is one of the Easter brides.

Next Sunday will be Palm Sunday, and it is reported that more palms are being shipped to Northern cities for church decoration than ever before.

A tenant house on Capt Wm Cooper's place, near Cooper postoffice, was destroyed by fire early Monday morning. The house was occupied by a negro named Jim Anderson.

Miss Carrie Onslow returned from Darlington Saturday evening and resumed her duties at the graded school Monday, to the delight not only of her pupils but also of the community.

Mr H Witcover of Marion was in town several days this week representing the Neely Compress Co of Richmond, Va. Mr Witcover's proposition is to sell to owners of gineries a compress attachment at a reasonable price, whereby the ordinary bale of cotton of one-fourth size, requiring one-hauling, etc. His claims of this machinery will revolutionize the handling of cotton in the South.

The Millinery Openings.

Yesterday and today the millinery stores have been the centres of attraction to the ladies. Of course a mere man is not expected to have that higher aesthetic sense to appreciate fully the importance of such an occasion, but even to a casual observer it is quite evident that Kingstree is right up to date in millinery offerings and in the several places we have visited are displayed such beautiful and artistic creations as cannot fail to delight the eye of the beholder.

Miss Elizabeth Bramble, the popular milliner for the Kingstree Dry Goods Co, is back for the season and her display of hats and trimmings is beautiful and varied. All day yesterday she was kept busy, as this is the biggest opening the Dry Goods Co has ever enjoyed.

Mrs Marcus' display of hats includes the latest and most fashionable styles and shapes and she expresses herself as being delighted with the success of her opening. Many have visited her store and shown substantial appreciation of her efforts to please her customers.

At Gale & Gale's, the pretty and tasty arrangement of their hats and millinery displays them to the best advantage and certainly any one would be hard to please not to find here something to suit her fancy. These ladies, after a busy day, were enthusiastic in speaking of their opening, which was largely attended and in all respects satisfactory beyond their expectations.

These openings will continue several days and every lady who fails to see the lovely pattern hats displayed will miss a sight well worth the time it takes to visit these places.

Swept Over Niagara.

This terrible calamity often happens because a careless boatman ignores the river's warnings - growing ripples and faster current - Nature's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the kidneys need attention if you would escape fatal maladies—Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see Backache fly and all your best feelings return. "After long suffering from weak kidneys and lame back, one $1.00 bottle wholly cured me," writes J R Blankenship, of Belk, Tenn. Only 50c at D C Scott's.
