

OUR LINE OF OXFORDS

FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN IS NOW COMPLETE.

You should come today and buy your Oxfords because the wearing qualities of these high grade shoes are well known.

KINGSTREE DRY GOODS COMPANY

LOCAL ITEMS.

Quaker Quartette — Tuesday night—school auditorium.

Here's to the coming tobacco market of the State—Kingstree!

Gale & Gale's new ad speaks of fine headgear at reasonable prices.

The graded schools and the local banks will observe Good Friday (to-morrow).

Miss Emma Footman of Greelyville visited Miss Thetis Stackley last Saturday.

Kingstree Dry Goods Co ask attention to their full line of shoes for all the family—Oxfords.

Representative J E Ellerbe delivered a speech in Congress this week attacking the Payne tariff bill.

Stephen Thomas & Bro, the Charleston jewelers, have an attractive new ad this week. Read it.

The people of Kingstree appreciate good music and ought to give the Quaker Quartette a crowded house Tuesday night.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will give an egg hunt at Mr Thorn's mill on Monday after Easter at 4:30 p m. Admission 10c.

Mr Lawrence H McCullough of Nesmith has an ad in this issue pertaining to drainage. If you have any low lands you should read it.

Lake City is shipping strawberries pretty early but it takes Mr B W Butler to offer Easter plums—plum bargains—at Butler Dry Goods Co's.

The editor, business manager, reporter, etc, has been confined to his bed since Saturday. This is his excuse for sins of omission affecting this local column.

The only land sold Monday was the foreclosure sale, McElveen vs Robert Fulton, 33½ acres, which was bid in by Elliott Thomas, colored, for $128.50.

Road Engineer Graham says that the road from here to Pudding Swamp will be put in apple order in time for the tobacco season. Kingstree wants that Pudding Swamp tobacco.

Fayssoux, the hypnotist, entertained and mystified good audiences at Thomas opera house Friday and Saturday nights. Some of the feats performed were really wonderful.

Mr E McIver Gregg, who was killed in Wilmington, N C, Monday by the collapse of a brick wall, lived in Kingstree some years ago, being cotton buyer here for Alexander Sprunt for several seasons.

The famous mile of road from Rome to Union church has been worked over lately and is now one of the best turnpikes in the county. This was until recently the worst piece of road in that part of Williamsburg.

Mr W S Fitzsimmons of Charleston, a civil engineer, was in Kingstree yesterday looking into the surveying and dredging of Black river. If this is done it will not be long before the "toot-toot" of the steamboat whistle can be heard in Kingstree.

In referring to the millinery openings last week we neglected to include Mrs J S Eron's handsome display. While Mrs Eron did not announce a formal opening she exhibited quite a handsome line of hats and millinery, which was much admired by all.

In bringing to Kingstree such a high-priced attraction as the Quaker Quartette, the Lyceum management is taking a risk, but they believe that the people of the town and surrounding country will by a liberal patronage show appreciation of this effort to give them something of unusual excellence in musical entertainment.

Rev W E Hurt, the new pastor of the Baptist church, paid THE RECORD a pleasant call (also a year's subscription) Monday. He is much pleased with his new charge. It is his plan to officiate at St Stephens on the first and third Sundays, and at Kingstree on the second and fourth Sundays, of each month.

Mr S L Courtney, administrator of the estate of the late W J Singletary, sold all of the personal property of the estate on Friday. Mrs Singletary bought it all in, with the exception of 12 shares of stock in the Bank of Lake City, and a few bills of sale. The bank stock was bought by Mr L O Holloway of Lake City for $800. This is 33½ per cent more than the par value. The bills of sale were bought by various parties.

Swept Over Niagara.

This terrible calamity often happens because a careless boatman ignores the river's warnings - growing ripples and faster current - Nature's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the Kidneys need attention if you would escape fatal maladies—Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see Backache fly and all your best feelings return. "After long suffering from weak kidneys and lame back, one $1.00 bottle wholly cured me," writes J R Blankenship, of Belk, Tenn. Only 50c at D C Scott's.
