KINGSTREE DRY GOODS COMPANY

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mr H D Reddick has needles for any make of sewing machine in the world.

Mr L J Stackley, the furniture man, has something for everybody. Read his ad.

If you have no insurance on your live stock, you ought to have. See P O Arrowsmith.

The Messrs Rhem have ordered an automobile, which will be here at an early day.—George-town Times.

Mr H D Reddick will have a special safe for ten days, beginning Saturday. It will pay you to read his ad in this issue.

Messrs T M Gilland and C W Wolfe have been reappointed members of the county board of education for this bounty.

Miss Lorena Ross, the deservedly popular teacher of the 7th grade, gave her pupils a picnic last Saturday at the Red Hill.

The census will be taken some time next summer. This means a month's job for one man in each township at fairly good pay.

There was an entertainment given last Wednesday by the Hebron school for the benefit of the school library. Quite a tidy sum was realized.

We acknowledge with pleasure an invitation to the commencement exercises of the Prospect Graded School at Leo to take place May 1-3.

All of the lady teachers of the Kingstree Graded school have been re-elected. The elections for superintendent and principal have not been held yet.

The Kingstree Hardware Company are manufacturing their tobacco flues in the building adjoining their store. They are kept busy from early morn till night with orders.

Among the graduates in pharmacy at the State Medical College this year are noted two young men from this county, viz: Messrs W F Brown of Leo and G C Rodgers of Lake City. Mr W G Thomas of Mayesville and Kingstree is also a member of this class.

We have received a very handsome and elaborate invitation to the commencement exercises of Atlanta Dental College, thanks to the courtesy of Dr Marion Sanders Whitehead, a member of the graduating class. The exercises take place Friday, April 30.

Rev James McDowell filled the Presbyterian pulpit at both the morning and evening services last Sunday. Rev McDowell is one of the oldest and grandest preachers in the State and his words of advice are always listened to with close attention. He preached two splendid sermons Sunday.

Swails McKnight, colored, was arrested by Sheriff Graham last Sunday morning. About two years ago McKnight broke a contract with Mr H H Parnell and left these parts. Nothing was seen of him until last Sunday morning, when Sheriff Graham met him on the road and brought him in.

Sheriff Graham went to Nashville, Ga, Sunday to get Ben Hanna, an escaped convict. Hanna escaped from the chain-gang last July and nothing was heard of him until a few days ago when the Sheriff located him in Nashville, Ga. Hanna will have to work out the balance of his term.

The married men of Kingstree crossed bats with the regular team on Tuesday of last week. From the score we would suppose that both sides went in to see which could make the best batting average and the greatest number of errors. At the end of the swatfest the score stood 20 to 25 in favor of the married men.

One of the most attractive and unique window displays we have seen in quite awhile is in the central window of the Kingstree Hardware Company. It is an invitation to their customers, and different words and phrases are represented by different articles of hardware. It has attracted quite a good deal of attention.

In mentioning last week the names of the young ladies from Kingstree who are members of the graduating class at Winthrop College, we omitted the name of Miss Margaret Burwick Montgomery. We knew that Miss "Pearl" Montgomery was a student at Winthrop, but did not recognize the name in the form it appeared on the invitation, hence the omission.

We are indebted to our friend Dr Harrell Myers Graham of this county, for an invitation to the commencement exercises of the Medical College of South Carolina to take place Wednesday evening, May 28, at the Academy of Music, Charleston, S C. Dr Graham has completed his course and will be graduated along with thirty-seven other members of his class. We congratulate our young friend on having gained the right to the honorable title of "M D" affixed to his name.
