LAKE CITY LOCALS.

Large Bean Shipments—School Trustees Nominated—Personal and Local.

Lake City, June 1:—Judge S G W Shipp came down from Florence and spent the latter part of last week in town and nearby. While here he enjoyed two or three fishing trips.

Mr A C Tobias of Charleston was here Saturday on business.

The biggest shipment of beans so far from this point during the present season was made last Saturday when twenty-one carloads were sent away. There were exactly four thousand, nine hundred and twenty three crates.

Mr Walter Pringle of Charleston was in town Monday on business.

Hon J Davis Carter came up from Leo Monday and paid the town a short visit.

Mr W F L Steele came down from Rockingham Monday and was in town until Thursday when he returned to get ready to leave Sunday for Little Bear Lake, in northwestern Arkansas, for a visit of two weeks, much of which time will be spent fishing. A few weeks ago a frightened horse backed Mr Steele's buggy off a causeway. The buggy was overturned and Mr Steele had two ribs broken.

W L Bass, Esq, was in Washington a few days last week on a business visit.

Squashes and cucumbers are now being shipped in rapidly increasing quantities.

Mr H N Merritt of Lake City has been appointed supervisor of registration, vice Mr J M Eaddy, resigned to accept position of magistrate.

Maj S M Askins represented the Lake City lodge K of P at the Grand Lodge in Charleston last week. Maj Askins is one of the leading members of this lodge as well as one of the most faithful.

At the meeting held Saturday in pursuance of the suggestion of Superintendent of Education McCullough, the following gentlemen were the choice for trustees during the incoming term, to wit: Messrs W T Askins, B Wallace Jones, Jr, and Geo L Dickson. W L B.

Everyone would be benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative for constipation, stomach and liver trouble, as it sweetens the stomach and breath, gently stimulates the liver and regulates the bowels and is much superior to pills and ordinary laxatives. Why not try Foley's Orino Laxative today? D C Scott.

Mr. Fly, Typhoid Agent.

By Ed. R. Pritchard, Secretary of the Department of Health, Chicago.

Fly time is here and our homes are to be invaded by the most dangerous insect known to man. "My gracious!" I hear the good housewife exclaim. "Is it as bad as that? I always did hate the pesky things, but I had no idea they were really dangerous."

Yes, madam, they are so dangerous as carriers of disease that you should fight for their exclusion from your home as you would against wild beasts seeking your life.

Flies are the dirtiest and filthiest of all vermin. They are born in filth. The manure pile, the garbage can and the out-door vault produce ninety-nine per cent of all the house flies in existence.

They carry millions of disease germs in their feet. Study their habits just a little and you will be convinced. The fact is, the fly is so unspeakably nasty, that it is impossible to tell you all the nasty things he does. He thinks nothing of leaving his feast of the carcass of a horse or dog to sample all the good things you have on your dining room table. He will crawl all over the butter or obligingly tumble into the baby's milk with his germ-laden feet; or, escaping this fate, he meets his end in your tea or coffee.

Rest assured that if you permit flies to have the freedom of your house you will actually eat the filth which they deposit on whatever they touch. Now, for protection from this dangerous pest, see to it that all doors and windows are carefully screened. Also be very careful to keep flies away from all foodstuffs. To kill them in the house, make a 7 per cent solution of bichromate of potash. Sweeten with sugar and place in shallow dishes throughout the house. This is cheap, can be had at any drug store, and while it will kill the flies, is not dangerous to human life. Keep your premises clean. Do not allow decaying material of any sort to accumulate. Keep garbage cans tightly covered. Garbage can be sprayed with kerozene, which will prevent flies from breeding.

Died from Fractured Skull.

Coroner Gamble held an inquest over the remains of James Davis, colored, at Belsers X Roads on Sunday, May 23. An autopsy by Dr I N Boyd showed the negro's skull to be fractured. The boy's mother, Anna Davis, testified that on Monday before she was taken to the hospital, she was brought home by a plough-hand by a headache, saying he had struck his head at Mr Hodge's. The boy went back to school the next day and also on Wednesday. He was taken very sick and died on Thursday. The verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to his death from a blow on the skull, the cause unknown to the jury.

A. C. L. Tank Burst.

Cades, June 1:—On last Thursday the Atlantic Coast Line tank here fell down, caused by the bursting of the hoops. Mr J L McFadden was in the pump house near the tank at the time, running the pump. The pump house was knocked down, but Mr McFadden escaped without serious injury. It is a great inconvenience to the company to be without this tank, and they hope to have it rebuilt in a few days.

P'SEMARY ON A BOOM.

In Meeting Citizens Decide to Incorporate the Town.

Rosemary, June 1:—A very large and enthusiastic public mass meeting was held last evening by the citizens of Rosemary at the large hall over the Rosemary Mercantile Company's store for the purpose of discussing several matters of importance to the welfare of the town. Mr J W Doar was made chairman, and presided over the meeting. After several short speeches by Capt W H Andrews, Mr H C Tallavast, Mr F Isokreit, Mr D R Rodgers, Mr J W Doar and others, Mr T E Arrowsmith made a motion, which was unanimously adopted, that Mr J W Doar take the necessary steps to have the town of Rosemary incorporated. Capt W H Andrews stated that he would give a lot and $500 for the purpose of erecting a town hall if the citizens would raise $1,000. The announcement was received with great enthusiasm. The citizens of Rosemary are very desirous of changing the name of "Rosemary" to "Andrews" in honor of Capt W H Andrews, who has done more for the town of Rosemary than any other person. No doubt when the town is incorporated it will take its new name, "Andrews."

The Rosemary Land Association has awarded the contract to Wm Dunmore, contractor and builder, for the erection of thirty six small houses. This will run up the number of new buildings to be erected in the near future to about sixty.

The "Rosemary Boosters" have decided to give a grand ball on the evening of the 5th of July. Invitations will be sent out about June 15. The Georgetown orchestra will be engaged to furnish music for the occasion. A special train will be run from Georgetown to bring all those who wish to attend the ball.—News and Courier.

Foley's Honey and Tar is especially recommended for chronic throat and lung troubles and many sufferers from bronchitis, asthma and consumption have found comfort and relief by using Foley's Honey and Tar. D C Scott.

One of the handiest things about a farm is a canvas large enough to cover a load or stack of hay. Those who still stack all hay outside need one most. But there are many other uses for one, such as covering loads of grain that cannot be unloaded before a shower, a protection for the binder on dewy nights, etc.

GONE TO HER REWARD.

Mrs. Alice M. Pendergrass, Much Loved and Esteemed, Passes Away.

Mrs Alice M Pendergrass died at the home of her daughter, Mrs Alice Stackley, on Friday, May 28, at 3:00 p m. Mrs Pendergrass was 65 years old and had been in feeble health for several years, her last illness extending over a period of several weeks.

Mrs Pendergrass, nee Lesesne, was possessed of a lovable nature and was endowed in large measure with the graces and attributes that go to make up a noble type of womanhood. She was loved and esteemed by all who knew her.

Her husband preceded her in death many years ago, and since then her life had been devoted to her children and to helping to ameliorate the condition of those around her.

She leaves six children, viz: Messrs E J and Roper Pendergrass and Mrs Minnie Stackley of Florence, Mrs Alice Stackley and Mrs Louise Courtney of Kingstree and Mrs W A Duncan of Richmond, Va; also one sister, Mrs M J Porter of Kingstree, and one brother, Mr E R Lesesne of Greelyville.

A devoted mother, a kind and helpful neighbor, and an earnest and consecrated Christian, she has gone to meet her reward in that home where all is love and happiness, and pain and sorrow are unknown.

The funeral services were held at the residence of Mr L Stackley Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the presence of a large concourse of sincerely sorrowing relatives and friends, being conducted by Rev W A Fairy, pastor of Kingstree Methodist church. After the services the remains were borne to their last resting place beneath the sod of Williamsburg cemetery.

OPENING OF VETERANS' HOME.

Interesting Programme—Eighteen Veterans Already Admitted.

The formal opening of the Confederate Veterans' Home in Columbia took place yesterday under the auspices of Wade Hampton chapter, U D C. A large crowd was present at the opening exercises. The programme was interesting and appropriate, carrying speeches, music and the bestowal of crosses of honor.

The Veterans' Home is a low white, single story building, green-trimmed and girdled with trees, with white columned porticos looking out over the city. On the slope of the opposite hill lie the buildings of the Hospital for the Insane, making a picturesque feature of the view. Two trolley lines are convenient to the city.

There are already eighteen veterans at the home and applications for three more have been received.

For Twenty-Six Years

Mrs. Lamaster, of Kentucky, Suffered with Internal Catarrh and was Finally Relieved by Peruna.

MRS. W. W. LAMASTER.

"I SUFFERED for twenty-six years with bladder and kidney trouble, and being advised to give Peruna a trial, I did so, and am thankful to say that eight bottles of Peruna and three bottles of Manalin entirely cured me of that trouble, and I am as well as ever."—Mrs. W. W. Lamaster, 3127 McAtee Ave., Louisville, Ky.

Catarrh Causes Kidney Disease.

Catarrh is a frequent cause of kidney disease. The pelvis of the kidneys, as well as the tubules, is lined with mucous membrane, and is therefore subject to catarrhal congestion. Sometimes the catarrh is so slight as to cause no attention. Other times it leads up to very serious conditions.

Any remedy capable of mitigating the catarrh is a much more rational treatment than to give palliatives that only relieve the patient of one or more disagreeable symptoms.

It is claimed for Peruna that it is an internal systemic catarrh remedy, and reaches the catarrh in whatever organ it happens to be located.

"I was cured of a severe attack of inflammation of the bowels by taking Peruna. I am glad to recommend Peruna to any one."—Mrs. J. J. Cross, 668 Water St., San Antonio, Texas.
