spirit animates you why not take advantage of the power of a growing bank account?

A growing bank account creates confidence; gives one standing and prestige in the community and it represents the "forward and onward" spirit of accomplishment.

Your banking business is cordially solicited.

LOCAL ITEMS.

L J Stackley, "the Furniture Man," has a new ad. Read it.

Cotton is quoted today on the local market at 12 1/2c for middling; seed $30 per ton.

There will be services at the Episcopal church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The hour for Sunday-school at the Methodist church has been changed from 4:00 to 3:30 p. m.

Young's cafe and ice cream parlor invites those who hunger and thirst to come and be refreshed.

Don't let any one in town or county "wonder whether your store has it." Tell them what you have by the use of our ad columns.

There will be a social meeting of the Epworth League at the residence of Mrs Belle Blakeley to-morrow (Friday) evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr E T Kelley and Mr J D Gilliland have invested in an automobile apiece. The two machines are Buick's latest models and, judging from the exhibitions along the streets, are quite speedy.

The carnival expected here this week failed to materialize. Friday and Saturday the town was full of gamblers and fakers, the fore-runners of the expected carnival. The license on these mountebanks should be made prohibitive, yet, we understand, they were taxed only $1.00 a day.

VETERANS ENTERTAINED

On Lee's Birthday by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Lee's birthday was observed here yesterday with appropriate exercises by Camp Pressley, the meeting being held in the court house, Commandant H H Kinder in the chair. The meeting adjourned at 1 o'clock, when the veterans were invited to the improvised dining-room in the Thomas building, where the Daughters of the Confederacy had prepared an excellent dinner, which was very heartily enjoyed by the old soldiers.

It is a labor of love on the part of the ladies of Kingstree to provide entertainment for the veterans at these annual reunions and the attention and courtesy showed them by the people of Kingstree on such occasions seems to warm the hearts of the heroes of the Lost Cause—a mere handful now, whose bowed forms and whitening locks foretell but too plainly that ere many years have passed, they, too, will spread their silent tents on the camping ground of eternity.

After dinner the veterans were drawn up in line to the number of twenty-six and a group picture made by Photographer Thomas.

Following is the roll of the veterans in line yesterday:

- T J Phillips
- W L Wallace
- G J Graham
- L W McCants
- H O Britton
- D K Mouzon
- S R Mouzon
- H H Kinder
- S B W Courtney
- G K Mitchum
- J P Shaw
- J M Matthews
- A W Flagler
- H J Brown
- Sam China
- S J Taylor
- Gregory Kollins
- A Browder
- J W Kelly
- C J Joye
- William Epps
- W A Cooper
- W T Browder
- R J Morris
- James Epps

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Kingstree Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow;

Urinary trouble, diabetes, Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. Kingstree people endorse our claim.

Mrs R B Smith, Logan St, Kingstree, S C, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have proven of great benefit to me and I therefore heartily recommend them. I had kidney trouble for some time and suffered a great deal from dull, nagging backaches. Headaches and pains in my kidneys were frequent and I always had a tired, worn out feeling. Recently I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Scott's drug store and using them as directed, I was quickly relieved. My strength and energy returned and my health was improved in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

tate of Daniel Z Martin. The lots in the town of Trio brought fancy prices, the crowd present evidently having faith in Trio real estate. The thirty-three lots, aggregating approximately 9 acres, sold for about $5,100, we understand.

Mr W E Jenkinson of Manning, than whom there is no more hustling and enterprising merchant in the State, was here Monday looking around with a view to casting his lot with us. Mr Jenkinson says that he knows of no town in its class in the State that has out-stripped Kingstree the last few years in growth and improvement. He thinks our town has a bright future.

Simple Remedy for LaGrippe.

LaGrippe coughs are dangerous, as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. D C Scott.

ELBERT FOLAND AND ITALIAN BOYS.

Tickets Are Going Fast—Promises to Be Fine Attraction.

Every indication now points to a large audience for the famous Italian Boys who will appear in Kingstree on Saturday night, January 22, under the auspices of the Radcliffe Entertainment Bureau, presenting a musical and literary concert of the highest class.

Chief interest centers in the presentation by the company for the first time of a musical and literary fantasy entitled "A Night in Venice." The name suggests beautiful costumes and delightful vocal and instrumental selections. With these will be blended the story of an American's life in the city of art and music. With such a variety of features the programme as a whole will be one of the most attractive of the season.

A THRIVING CORPORATION.

Farmers' Supply Company Closes a Very Successful Year's Business.

The Farmers' Supply Company held their fourth annual meeting of stock-holders on Friday, January 14, and a very satisfactory showing was made. After paying a handsome dividend a nice sum was carried to surplus and undivided profits. The same officers were re-elected with the addition of Mr R D Mills as secretary of the company.

The management of the Farmers' Supply Company is in the hands of young, progressive business men and it is gratifying to know that they have succeeded so well in taking care of the large interests entrusted to their care.

Watch for something new in this space next week. ANDERSON, SPRING & CO.
