

ON THE GALLOWS JOHNNIE ROSE, CON-VICTED OF CRIMINAL ASSAULT, REQUITES THE LAW.

Purspant to the law's mexorable decree, Johnnie Rose, the negro would-be rapist, on Friday of last week explated his crime upon the gallows. Notwithstanding the anpouncement that the execution would be private, as provided by law, a crowd came to town to witness it, and those who were denied access to the jail got as near as possible outside, hoping to catch a glimpse of the grim tragedy that was being enacted within.

A few minutes after twelve, noon, the condemned prisoner was led forth from his cell and prepared for the terrible ordeal. He was caused by strangulation, the rope being so long that the condemned man's feet touched the floor. As none of the negro's relatives claimed his body it was buried on the county farm at public expense.

STORY OF THE CRIME. The story of the crime for which Johnnie Rose paid the extreme penalty of the law is too recent to be recited here. Fresh in our readers' minds are all the nets attending the case. How on Monday, December 6, a little school girl, living just over the Clarendon line, spent several days with Mr H D Ferrell here recently. Mr and Mrs C L Montgomery gave a "sociable" at their home Friday night.

There is to be a "box party" on her way to school near Bethel at the Presbyterian manse Frichurch in this county, was assaulted day evening, February 18. The with criminal intent by the negro ladies are all requested to bring lying in wait for her, almost in bexes. The proceeds are to be sight of the school house. There used for the erection of the ord of each and every transaction made, yet during the course of a year he must pay out large sums of money for various purposes, and a record for future reference is highly important.

Merchants may fail to give a receipt for cash, a neighbor may not recall the payment of money owed, but the farmer who pays his obligations by check has written evidence of such payments which any court must recognize.

In the same way he has a record of all moneys received by the deposit entries on his pass book.

To the farmer who desires such a record for his business, we extend an invitation to open an account with this bank.
