Dr W L Wallace is tearing down his old dwelling and erecting a new two story residence on a site just in front of the old building.

Miss Lilly Cunningham is taking the place of Miss Lizzie McClary at the Kingstree Dry Goods Company's store, the latter being away on her vacation.

Mr and Mrs Dave Silverman, of Atlanta and Kingstree, arrived here yesterday afternoon and were showered with congratulations and good wishes by the admiring friends of the bride, formerly Mrs Sadie Eron.

The Boston Ladies' Quartette.

The Boston Ladies' Quartette, the last attraction of the local lyceum system for this season, will appear in the Auditorium of the Kingstree High school, on Saturday evening, March the 19th. The quartette is composed of Misses Mabel E Bradford, First Soprano and Accompanist; Ruth E Wellington, Second Soprano and Violinist; Alzaleen Samson, First Alto, and Elizabeth Cross, Second Alto. This company has received the highest recommendations for their efficiency from some of the leading cities of the South, and the public is assured a musical treat by well trained, high class artists. The evening's entertainment will consist of Quartettes, Folk Songs, Duets in Costume, Readings, Vocal and Violin Solos, as well as the specially arranged songs with action. Your patronage and attendance at this attraction is respectfully solicited and you may now secure your seats on sale at Young's Ice Cream Parlor.

Neither last week's nor this week's issue of The Record is what we had hoped to make it, but the editor is just up from a week's severe illness and the two issues referred to had to be edited, in a great measure, from a sick-bed. To celebrate our twenty-fourth anniversary we had aimed to get out a special edition of twelve or sixteen pages this week, but in view of the circumstances above stated, we found it difficult to get out even the regular edition.

ANNUAL MEETING CIVIC LEAGUE.

Election of Officers--Baby Show in Prospect.

The annual meeting of the Kingstree Civic Improvement League was held in the school auditorium, on March 2.

Although all members were urgently requested to be present, only 12 responded to the call.

The chief business before the League was the election of officers. The vote was taken by ballot and resulted as follows:

Mrs L W Gilland, president; Miss M E Jacobs, vice president; Mrs LeRoy Lee, secretary; Miss A M Erckmann, treasurer.

These officers and the following ladies form the executive committee: Mesdames W G Gamble, T A Blakeley, J F McFadden, Misses A M Erckmann, Helen Scott, Lillie Ervin, Mrs L W Gilland.

A "baby show" will be held some time in April, under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy. All the mothers of Kingstree are invited and urged to enter their babies.

Information will be gladly furnished by any member of the committee having the matter in charge.

NEGRO HURT ON THE RAIL.

Found Senseless Alongside Track Near Salters—Supposed to Be Beating Ride.

(The following article was written for last week's issue and crowded out): Early Tuesday morning as Railroad Agent Boswell was coming over from his home at Salters Depot he espied a negro lying alongside the railroad track apparently dead or unconscious. A hurried examination disclosed the fact that the man was seriously hurt and Mr Boswell hastened back to Salters and had the negro brought to Kingstree for medical attention.

When they arrived here the injured man revived somewhat and gave his name as John Miles. He said he had been working at Wilson's mill and was on the way to his home at Sumter. He could tell nothing about how he came to get hurt, or else he preferred not to tell. Said he remembered nothing about how the accident occurred. The theory is that he was "beating" a ride on the train and did not care to acknowledge the fact.

When the injured man was examined by the local surgeon of the A C L, it was found that he was pretty badly hurt, so much so that Dr Brockington took him to Charleston to the railroad company's hospital for treatment. Both legs were knocked out of place and there were several severe gashes on the head, the negro being almost completely scalped. Just how serious the wounds are could not be ascertained by a superficial examination.

Notice to Subscribers.

In transferring the names of subscribers from our subscription list to the galleys of the mailing machine we have recently installed, there has been some confusion of names and postoffices and a few subscribers, who are entitled to the paper every week, complain of not getting it. We ask, therefore, every subscriber who fails to get his or her paper to notify us at once—a postal card will do—so that we can rectify the error, if such there be. Don't fly off the handle because you happen to miss a copy or two of the paper, but drop us a card and we will promptly look into the matter. It is no easy task to transfer 1,800 names scattered among 50 or 75 postoffices, with a different date to each name, without making a few mistakes. Give us a little time, please, to get our mailing machine working smoothly and we hope there will be no farther trouble.

Meeting of County Medical Association.

(The following article was crowded out of last week's issue):

The Williamsburg County Medical association met here Tuesday night at the Kellahan Hotel. The principal discussion was the "Hook Worm Disease," upon which subject Dr W G Gamble of Kingstree read a carefully prepared and informing paper. The discussion was then thrown open and some very interesting views interchanged on the subject, which at this time is a very vital one in the eyes of the medical profession, especially in the South, where the ravages of the dread disease are most wide-spread.

An elegant collation was served by Mine Host Chandler during the evening in the beautiful dining room of the hotel, where the meeting was held. The menu was rich and varied and the doctors lingered long at the hospitable board.

The physicians present were: Drs J D Eaddy, C D Rollins and W H Woods of Lake City, and Drs D C Scott, W L Wallace, E T Kelley and W G Gamble of Kingstree.
