THE COUNTY RECORD.

THURSDAY, AUG. 18, 1910.

Clemson College experiment station is sending out a circular on the cultivation of rape. They ought to issue a bulletin on hemp as a companion product.

Recently we asked a friend how he liked his new automobile. He replied that it was very much like a woman—expensive and hard to manage.

"If you can't lick 'em jine 'em," seems to be the policy of certain representatives in Congress of the "so-called Democratic party" (as our friend "Lumberman" describes it) from South Carolina.

The census of Kingstree could be depleted by at least a hundred undesirable citizens and the atmosphere—moral and physical—would be more wholesome. Give the vagrants the choice of a job or the chaingang.

What's the use of party platforms and pledges, any way, if an official can break them with impunity provided he is "one of the boys" who can tell a good joke and boast about how much he got out of the Republican grab-bag by abandoning his party principles and voting with the Republican majority?

It's an old trick for a discredited politician to under-rate his opponents. So when you hear a candidate with several opponents blatantly claiming everything and boasting that he will "go in on the first ballot," the chances are that the boastful one is actually scared out of his boots that he won't get in at all. Don't let him fool you.

The Orangeburg Times and Democrat is making a manly and patriotic fight to uphold the integrity of the Democratic party in our State. Throughout the ages people are prone to be led astray after strange gods and it takes grit and back-bone for a newspaper to show up the fallacious arguments of a self-seeking politician, entrenched in a fat office, who is trying to justify himself before his constituents, whose interests he has sacrificed in favor of the influential corporations.

The "Independent" Democrats, by fusion with the Republicans of Tennessee, have won out over the unspeakable Patterson. This means that Tennessee will probably elect a Republican Chief Executive, but almost any one would be preferable to Patterson, the man who made the Governor's office a clearing-house for thieves and crooks of high and low degree. Thus the indomitable spirit of the lamented Carmack still lives triumphantly to overwhelm the band of conspirators who tried in vain to destroy his influence by an act of foul assassination which must cause the truly brave sons of Tennessee to bow their heads in shame for generations to come.

We respectfully call attention to the fact that all notices of a political nature whether "boosting" a particular candidate or cards of thanks or clippings from other newspapers favoring certain candidates, must be paid for at advertising rates. This applies to State and county candidates. For our protection we were forced to adopt this rule several years ago, as the week or two preceding an election the paper contained very little else than eulogies of somebody's favorite candidate. It costs money to set type and certainly if you want to favor your friend it is unreasonable to ask us to foot the bill. We have had to decline at least a half dozen articles of this nature during the present campaign which, all told, would have amounted to about twenty columns of our type.

COMMISSION LETS CONTRACT

To Page & Reeves of Dillon to Survey Seceding Territory.

At a meeting of the annexation commission held Monday, Messrs. Page and Reeves of Dillon were employed to make the necessary survey of that portion of Williamsburg, which has petitioned to be annexed to Florence county. The work will be commenced at once. This survey will take in only two sides of the territory named in the petition, as the Government river survey on one side and Florence county line on the other will be accepted. The length of line to be surveyed is supposed to run about fifteen miles and the territory seeking annexation contains some eighty square miles.

Summer Excursionists.

Quite a number of people from town and county took advantage of the cheap excursion rates Wednesday and bought tickets to various points, some on pleasure bent, some on business and many of them the two combined. Where so many left it was impossible to secure all the names. The best we could do was to get a few of those from town whom the ticket agent happened to recall, whose names and destinations are as follows: Messrs Hugh McCutchen, French Lick Springs, Indiana; W E Brockinton, Glenn Springs; B F and O H Patrick, Ed Hirsh and A C Swails, Washington and New York City; Mr and Mrs Jno Brown, Glenn Springs; Mr and Mrs N D Lesesne and children, Pickens; John Britton and W R Crosland, Greenville; Mrs W H Carr, Mrs A M Gordon and Alex Gordon, Glenn Springs.

Bell-Cassels.

Ellenton, August 13:—Mr Wallace Cassels of Ellenton and Miss Blanche Bell of Indiantown were quietly married in Charleston on last Sunday, August 7. The bride is a young lady of charming personality and possesses marked musical talent. Mr Cassels is a young man of sterling qualities and has splendid business ability. He has a promising future. Mr and Mrs Cassels are at Glenn Springs for ten days, after which they will return to Ellenton, their future home.—The State.

COUNTY CAMPAIGN CANDIDATES SPEAK AT KINGSTREE.

tion and politely heard in the presentation of his argument. Applause was freely, though not boisterously bestowed, the home candidates naturally coming in for a more hearty greeting than the visitors. The entire meeting consumed only a little more than two hours. The visiting candidates were all entertained at the homes of Kingstree's hospitable people and if anyone was overlooked it was surely his own fault, for arrangements were made to take care of every visiting member of the campaign party in the afternoon for Greelyville to attend the meeting there Wednesday and mayhap do a little missionary work along the way.

The candidates for the General Assembly really have but one issue upon which there seems to be any great difference of opinion—that is the Banquo's ghost that will not down; the same perplexing problem that has been threshed out on the hustings biennially for a score of years and is as near settled today as it was in the beginning of history or ever will be, to the entire satisfaction of a great many people. It looks like a waste of time to be eternally harping on the same string, but the issue seems to be inevitable and then it is a subject which always commands attention when skillfully handled, it matters not how often or how thoroughly the same audience may have heard the changes rung along the whole diapason. As we gathered from their expressions yesterday two of the Senatorial candidates, Messrs Carter and Epps, favor State-wide prohibition and would support such a measure should the opportunity arise. Mr Beasley declared unequivocally for local option—which we understand to mean that he would give every county the right to decide the question of prohibition independently of the rest of the State.

Of the six candidates for the Lower House three expressed themselves as favoring State-wide prohibition, viz, Messrs Camlin, Chapman and Prosser, while Messrs Chandler and Kellahan announced that they favored local option in preference to State-wide prohibition. So far as we know Mr J C Graham has not yet announced his views on this question.
