

THE MAN BEHIND

a Growing bank account is the man who accomplishes the things worth while—the man who signs the salary checks—the man behind the improvements and upbuilding of the community—the man who is consulted in financial matters—the man who is asked to take a share in the money making investments.

Why don't You get behind a Growing bank account? You can do it. No matter how small the start we shall be glad to handle your account at the

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Kingstree Dry Goods Co advertises new fall goods this week.

Mr W M Tobias visited his father's family in Manning Saturday.

Mr W B McCullough of Taft was noted on our streets Saturday.

Mr M D DeLorme of Greelyville was in town yesterday on business.

Mrs R J Kirk is spending two weeks with relatives near Wimsboro.

The Savage Arms Co of Utica, N Y, has an ad that speaks for itself.

Miss Muriel Chandler has accepted a position at Stackley's Dry Goods Co's.

Miss Annie Gregg of Marion is the guest of her sister, Mrs R J McCabe.

We were pleased to have a call yesterday from Mr S H Cooper of Nesmith.

Mr N D Lesesne and family have returned from a visit to relatives in Pickens.

Miss Clara Smith of Mullins is visiting the home of her sister, Mrs J G Slaughter.

Messrs Thos McCutchen and S D Snowden are sojourning at Tate Springs, Tenn.

If you owe us on subscription please pay up as soon as possible. The label will tell you.

If you want to invest some money at a good rate of interest see J D Gilland's ad this week.

Mr and Mrs LeRoy Lee and little Miss Serena Lee have returned from their trip to New York.

Next Monday (Labor day) being a legal holiday, the three banks in Kingstree will be closed.

Mrs L J Brockinton and son, Mr Burrie, have returned from Glenn Springs and the mountains.

Assistant Bank Examiner D J Rhame of Sumter visited Kingstree Saturday on official business.

Rev W P Meadors and children, Miss Ruth and Master Jack, have been visiting at McColls recently.

Attention is called to Lea & Tredway's, the Timmonsville tobacco warehousemen's, ad-talk this week.

Misses Lizzie and Marion Heape of Branchville have been visiting the family of their brother, Mr F W Fahey.

Miss Dora Bristow of Darlington has taken charge of the Kingstree Dry Goods Co's dress-making department.

Mr and Mrs L J Stackley are at home to their friends at the residence of Mrs H Van Keuren, in East Main street.

Rev E E Ervin and daughters, Misses Lillie and Belle, returned from their sojourn in North Carolina Tuesday night.

Kingstree stood nobly by her candidates in the first primary. In the second there should be rolled up a still bigger vote.

Miss Inez Hutchinson of Ninety-Six has been spending some days as the guest of her uncle's, Rev. W. P. Meadors', family.

Miss Louise Wheeler left for Charleston Saturday, where she will join a party of friends and spend a few days at the Isle of Palms.

Messrs W C Smith and John S Jennings, Dr J Heyward Scott and Miss Ada Brockington were in Charleston the first of this week.

If you want to see an up-to-date jewelry establishment for a small town go to Watts & Watts' new store opposite the railroad station.

Mr Chas A McCrea, who has been spending a month's vacation with his grandmother, Mrs C M Chandler, returned to the Thornwell Orphanage, Clinton, yesterday.

Nearly all the weekly papers in the State the same class as The Record, have advanced the price of subscription to $1.50 a year. We are trying to keep the dollar rate, but it must be cash-in-advance. Otherwise the price is $1.25.

Mrs R B Woodberry-Dickson writes us from Baltimore requesting that we inform her friends that she and Miss Sallie Cox are taking in all theinery openings preparing for a g all business. Look out for her ad only in September, she says.

P S Courtney will re-open his popular restaurant on September 8 to be run in connection with his ice-cream and soda-water parlor. Mr Courtney has bought a large, up-to-date gasoline stove and had a new set of restaurant dishes made to order. See ad in another column.

Miss Lula Epps looks natural at the head of the women's department of the People's Mercantile Co's establishment, which position she assumed last week and will hold during the fall and winter. Miss Lula is quite a favorite in Kingstree and all are glad to welcome her back.

Attention is called to the advertisement of College Place lots found in another column of The Record. Real estate properly located near any growing city is a commendable investment, and doubtless the College Place property, situated as it is with reference to the city, has a great future.

If any subscriber to the Record doesn't care to pay for the paper in advance, and doesn't want to pay the credit price of $1.25 a year, he will confer a favor by notifying us at once in order that we may take his or her name off our list. The paper gives mighty good value for $1.00 and we can't sell it on credit at that price.

Miss Mary Swann has accepted a position in King's Business College, Raleigh, N C, and entered upon her duties there to-day. A similar position was offered her in Norfolk, Va, which of course she was obliged to decline. Miss Swann is one of the most highly esteemed young ladies of Kingstree, and all predict for her a very successful career.

The Record doesn't want to go into a single home where it is not a welcome visitor. It takes too much work and money to get the paper out to send it to any one who doesn't want to pay for it. If you are not able, or don't want to pay the price, pay us to date and we will cheerfully part company, thanking you for past favors just the same.

The Lash of a Fiend would have been about as welcome to A Cooper of Oswego, N Y, as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr King's New Discovery, which cured me completely. I never coughed at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, lagrippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by M L Allen.

The Hyogo Electric railway opened its first section—from Hyogo to Suma—on March 15. It will extend twelve miles along the shore of the Inland sea of Alaska. The material has come chiefly from the United States, the woodwork of the cars and the overhead wires being made in Japan.

before you have time to find out whether the one you bought is what they claimed, they are too far gone for you to get redress if it proves faulty. Its a good policy to look at both sides of a tempting proposition before snapping it up.
