Miss Bessie Wilkes' Funeral-- Paragraphs of Personal Interest

Lake City, August 31:--Misses Mollie and Leah Nachman spent Sunday in Florence with their brother, Mr Louis Nachman.

Miss Julia Sturgeon is visiting her sister, Mrs L H Jennings, at Bishopville.

Miss Bessie Wilkes, who died in Mullins, was buried in the churchyard of the Baptist church here on Tuesday of last week. She was the eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs E J Wilkes and was about nineteen years of age. Her life was spent here up to a few months ago, when they moved to Mullins, where Miss Bessie died on the 22nd inst. A young and bright life ended; the home she left saddened beyond words.

Master Talmadge Askins returned home Saturday night from a week's stay in the mountains of North Carolina.

Misses Ruby Severance and Violet Askins visited in Florence last week.

Mrs Della D Carter went to Cartersville last week in answer to a summons to the bedside of her grand-daughter, one of Mrs D H Crossland's children. The child having recovered, Mrs Carter returned home a few days ago.

Mr Hoyt Carter left last Wednesday for Richmond, Va, to take a course in a business school.

The Coast Line has taken up the side tracks across and north of Main street and moved the switches south of that street. This change is quite an improvement to the appearance and convenience of the Main street crossing and had been long promised by the company, but was delayed as much as possible.

Mrs Esther Merritt of Miden, La, is here on a visit. She was a Miss Mimms and was born and reared near Cartersville, in Florence county. Fifty years ago she married and moved away to Louisiana and is now paying a long-deferred visit to her old home. Her son, Mr H N Merritt, took her to her birth-place and to see her cousins, all other relatives being dead. After an absence of half a century, what must have been her feelings on again visiting the scenes of her childhood days.

Mr R E McKnight has established a new ginney on his farm near town.

The graded school will open on September 19.

Mr Elijah Benton died at his home in Darlington Monday, 29th. The remains were brought to Scranton Tuesday morning and taken to High Hill for interment. The Masonic fraternity, of which the deceased was a member, had charge of the burial services. Mr Benton formerly lived near Scranton but moved to Darlington a few years ago. He was about 49 years old and a good citizen. He leaves a widow and several children to mourn his death.

The primary election passed off quietly here today. On account of the rain a comparatively small vote was cast, and little interest was manifested in the election.

The accumulations of blast furnace slag at English iron furnaces in the Nottingham district have been partly disposed of to highway and other authorities for road repairs and other purposes.

A Fair Proposition.

Every man, woman, boy and girl desires a wheel. It is natural that everyone should want a bicycle, as it is the one source of real pleasure and healthfulness which all can enjoy equally and at very little cost.

The cost to you will be nothing--just send to the Taylor-Trotwood Pub Co, Nashville, Tenn, a postal and let them tell you how to make $30.00 and secure a bicycle as a premium.

You are not obliged to accept this proposition, but we want an opportunity to tell you what we have to offer.
