

NEWS AND VIEWS AROUND ABOUT TRIO.

LITTLE INCIDENTS OF DAILY LIFE AND PERSONAL NOTES TERSELY TREATED.

Trio, October 10:—The rain is still falling and it looks as if the farmers will not be able to gather their cotton crops.

Mr J W Locklear has opened up a small store at his place about two miles west of this place: he reports pretty fair crops in his neighborhood.

Miss Minnie Bryan left the 19th ult for Bristol, Va. to enter Sullins College and Conservatory of Music.

Mr A W Graham was in Kingstree attending court last week. He was on the jury.

Mr N W Cooke of Andrews was here for a short while last Friday.

Mrs Marion Graham spent a few days last week visiting her sister, Mrs Waldron, at Andrews.

Weyman, the son of Mr and Mrs T G McDonald, is quite sick with fever. He is being attended by Dr W L Moore.

Mr W P Moore paid a flying visit to Georgetown last Saturday week.

Mr James Bryan and son, C F Bryan, were in Kingstree last Monday on business.

Jim Bennett, one of our negro merchants, came very near dying last Tuesday night, being poisoned by canned oysters.

The ginners here has ginned about about 200 bales of cotton, which is a good deal less than at this time last year.

It is reported around here that Mr F L Morris and family are going to move to Waycross, Ga, where his two sons are. Sorry to lose you, Frank.

Lieut E C Register, formerly of this place but now in the U S army, was here for a day or two week before last visiting his father, Mr J W Register.

Rev S T Russell, pastor of the Baptist church, started a meeting here last Saturday night. I do not know how long it will last, but probably until Wednesday night.

Mr J W Register spent last Sunday in Georgetown with his family.

One of Mr L F Morris's children is sick with fever.

Sunday was one of the prettiest days we have had for some time. The day was full of sunshine from morn till dewey eve.

Prohibition seems to be helping the blind tigers around here, judging from the number of "boozy" young men and negroes in evidence. One of the most disgusting sights that I have seen for some time was on last Sunday, October 8.

Mr E F Martin, representing some medicine company, is here to deliver his drugs, for which he received orders some time ago.

Miss Hattie Lewis spent last Sunday visiting friends and relatives in Georgetown. Mr D Z Rowell spent Sunday with his father, Mr E R Rowell, near Taft. Mr and Mrs W D Bryan of Taft were here for awhile last week visiting the former's brother, Mr James Bryan.

Well, Mr Editor, I will ring off for this time and if I see this in print will call again.

COUNTY UNION MEETS

And Elects Officers--A Tobacco Warehouse Projected.

Williamsburg County Farmers' Union met at Lake City in Knights of Pythias hall on Thursday, October 6, at 11 o'clock a. m. President J D Daniel in the chair. Eight local unions were represented.

The subject of building a tobacco warehouse was discussed pro and con. Everything seems favorable for another season to find a Farmers' Union tobacco warehouse in operation in this county.

The next county union meeting will be held at Lake City on Thursday, November 3, at 11 o'clock a. m. Each local union is requested to send delegates.

Kingstree Lake City Kingstree from 7 to 31 inclusive Upon all unpaid taxes after December 31 a penalty of 1% will be added for January, 1% for February and 5% to 15th day of March, after which the books will be closed and executions issued upon all unpaid taxes.

Those who desire to pay their taxes through the mail would expedite matters by dropping the Treasurer a postal asking for the amount of their tax so as to avoid sending the wrong amount, also stating the township or townships (if property is owned in more than one) and if possible give school district where property is located, also state whether poll or road tax, or both are wanted. After paying taxes examine your receipts and see if all of your property is covered, if not, see about it at once. By following the above suggestions complications and additional cost may be avoided. J WESLEY COOK, County Treasurer.
