PERSONAL

Mrs L Stackley visited relatives in Florence last week.

Mr W C Smith visited his parents in Dillon this week.

Dr J G McMaster of Florence was noted in town this morning.

Mr A P Buffkin was noted on our streets yesterday from Cades.

Henry E Davis, Esq., of the Florence bar, was in town Monday.

Mr L H McCullough of Nesmith called pleasantly at our sanctum Saturday.

We were pleased Monday to have a visit from our friend, Mr R E McElveen of Cades.

Mr V E Strong, a wide-awake merchant of Cades, was here yesterday between trains.

Mr J E Richburg, of the vicinity of Greeleyville, was in Kingstree Monday on business.

Mr S J Timmons was in town Friday from Greeleyville and found time to pay us his respects.

Mr James Epps, Jr., of Clemson College, is spending the week with his father near town.

Capt J J Morris of Lake City was in Kingstree Friday and found time to pay The Record an agreeable call.

Dr R Claude McCabe, who has been in Florida for the past two or three months, arrived in town this morning.

Messrs W W Singletary and G G Haselden, of Scranton vicinity, were noted in town Monday between trains.

Mr C E Tomlinson, of the Sandy Grove section, was in town Monday between trains and dropped in pleasantly to see us.

Mr W H McElveen, of the Mouzon section, while in town Thursday, took occasion to shove up his date of expiration a year ahead.

Mr Ernest K Epps, who is a member of the senior class of Wofford College, arrived in town Wednesday to attend the Epps-Patten wedding this evening.

Mr Wightman Epps, one of our young suburban farmers, sold last week three of his this year's crop of hogs to Miller's Market for $75, an average price of $25 the head. Such "crops" as this beat cotton even at 14 cents.

Mr A R Eaddy of Leospent Tuesday in town renewing friendships and associations here at his former home. It was a genuine pleasure to shake hands again with our friend, as his visits here now-a-days are rather infrequent, we are sorry to say.

Mr Philip Arrowsmith, a member of the senior law class at the State university, spent a few days rest time this week with his relatives in town. Mr Arrowsmith says that he is progressing nicely with his studies and expects to get through the final "exams" with ease and proficiency.

Messrs P H Stoll and M L Allen were delegates from Kingstree Lodge, No 91, K P, to the Second District convention meeting held in Marion last week. The Kingstree delegates report a pleasant and profitable visit and are loud in extolling the hospitality of Game Cock Lodge, their host.

Mr Daniel E Motley, who was operated on for appendicitis some weeks ago at a Florence infirmary, was able to return home yesterday. Mr Motley's friends in town and county are glad to know that he seems to be fully restored to health after his serious illness and long weeks of pain and suffering.

Among those from town who attended the State Fair in Columbia this week were noted the following: Mrs H O Britton, Mrs Rebecca Haselden, Miss Beulah Nelson, Messrs P H Stoll, W R Funk, John Britton, E C Epps, Dr and Mrs W L Taylor, Dr and Mrs W V Brockington, Mr C E Funk, Mr and Mrs C E Harris.

Mr John W Marshall, whose home is near Trio, called on us Monday. Mr Marshall is a veteran of the Civil war, having fought the entire four years. He is also a veteran patron of The Record, having taken the paper since the first issue in 1885. Although now 70 years old, he says he feels lost if he misses a single copy of the paper.

The revival services in the Methodist church which began Sunday are continued daily. Two services are held, at 4:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m., respectively. The sermons of Mr Comann are plain and virile and no one can hear him without receiving benefit. It is to be hoped that the spirit of his teachings will linger here long after his departure in the flesh. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Mr Comann will hold a special service for the children, all of whom are urged to be present.

Mayor L W Gilland and Mrs Gilland have returned from their trip across the ocean, having spent nearly two months in Denmark. Mr Gilland's health, for the benefit of which the trip was made, seems to be much improved, therefore his many friends are doubly glad to welcome him home again. Being one of the few residents of Kingstree who have enjoyed the luxury of a tour abroad, Mr Gilland has promised to furnish us for publication a sketch describing the incidents of the voyage and giving our readers the benefit of his observation of the country visited and the manners and customs of its people.

GALE & GALE

LOCAL ITEMS

Free drinks at H A Meyer & Co's handsome new soda fountain Friday afternoon, 4 to 6 o'clock.

Attention is directed to the notice of Superintendent of Education McCullough touching the corn exhibition to be held here Saturday week.

Mr Thos McCutchen left Monday night for the Western markets, where he will purchase a carload of horses and mules for Williamsburg Live Stock Co. See ad this week.

The subscription price of The Record is $1.25 a year. If you want to pay it all in advance we give you 25 cents discount. We do not sell the paper for $1.00 a year on time.

Our appreciative thanks are due our friend, Mr G W Snowden, of the Indiantown church section, for a bag-full of pears. They were choice specimens—some of the finest we have seen this season.

Monday night was Hallowe'en, the night when at the witching hour of twelve if a maiden fair face the polished surface of an old-fashioned mirror she will behold a life-like semblance of her future husband's wife, so it is said.

Several frosts were previously reported locally, but no one can question the fact that the one precipitated last Monday morning whitened the surface of the earth for the time being and in its wake left a trail of blackened vegetation.

In response to numerous inquiries we will state that that the close season for shooting partridges and wild turkeys expires on November 15, under the new game law. It is unlawful to kill more than twenty-five partridges or doves or two wild turkeys during one day.

We acknowledge with thanks a "cute" little souvenir presented us by the Farmers and Merchants Bank, Lake City's thriving and progressive financial institution. As an advertising novelty it is unique, being a cake of soap of fancy design, bearing the legend: "Clean banking methods."

H D Reddick's large and attractive ad this week is worth your attention. It tells all about the "Cotton Carnival" that will commence Saturday. Mr Reddick has a large and varied stock of goods—almost a department store, in fact—and when he takes a notion to reduce his stock a few thousand dollars, the goods are going to be sold regardless of sacrifice.

Another fire, which for a time looked dangerous, broke out Monday in the "pressing club" in the rear of the archway of the Gourdin building. But for prompt action and a good supply of water available, that building and some more might have been destroyed. Several incipient blazes in the same "pressing club" have given ample warning to property owners. Certainly the business is extra hazardous or the operators are wantonly careless about endangering other people's property.

F Rhem & Sons have found a regular 15c plug of tobacco that they will sell you for a dime, it is called PENN'S JACK. 11-3-4t

Editor County Record:—

The second annual State Conference of Charities and Correction will be held at Florence, S. C., December 8-9 next. The first session held at Columbia a year ago was highly interesting and brought together for conference and discussion the representative philanthropic workers of our State.

It is hoped that all persons interested in dependent children, in the relief of suffering or correction of wrong-doing, will realize that they are invited to attend the approaching conference. A programme is now being prepared by the executive committee and will be announced in due season. AT JAMISON, President.

Don't fail to see the fresh carload of horses and mules that will be in our stables Saturday.

It M F HELLER.

Good News from The Youth's Companion

We have had to make The Youth's Companion larger in order to get in all the good things that Companion readers ought to have. The added amount would make four hundred pages of standard magazine size and print; but we have kept the price just the same—$1.75 for the fifty-two weeks of 1911, and all the issues for the rest of this year free from the time you send in your subscription.

We would like to tell you what is in store for Companion readers next year. We cannot do it here, though; there is not room. But send us your address on a postal card, and we will send you the beautiful Prospectus of The Companion for 1911, announcing many new features, together with sample copies of the paper.

We think you will agree, when you have read them, that there is no other paper that gives quite so much of such a high quality as The Companion.

The new subscriber receives a gift of The Companion's Art Calendar for 1911, reproducing in twelve colors and gold a beautiful water-color garden scene.
