

Haven't You Been Expecting

To start a BANK ACCOUNT? Been trying to save sufficient to "make a good start?"

The "small purchase temptation" makes it hard to accumulate any certain sum when you keep your money in your pocket or around the house—probably that has been your trouble.

This bank accepts deposits of $1.00 and up—why not come in and open an account with NOW—let the bank help you save—it is the only safe way.

Bank of Williamsburg,
KINGSTREE, S. C.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Cotton is quoted to-day on the local market at 14 to 14 1/4 cents; seed $26 the ton.

Have you paid for your paper?

"St Elmo" attracted a good crowd at the opera house last evening.

Tuesday being election day, a legal holiday, all the banks were closed.

Mr E C Burgess has been drawn as a juror in the Federal court, which meets in Charleston on December 6.

An auction sale of lots took place here Saturday. About 80 lots in the East suburbs were sold, we understand, at fair prices.

The three tracts of land advertised for sale Monday for taxes were bid in for the State by the Auditor, there being no other bids.

"Let The Record come! I need it every week," writes a subscriber in renewing his subscription. That's the way to talk and to act.

Railroad Commissioner James M Sullivan died last Thursday night at his home in Columbia. His death was due to a stroke of paralysis he sustained several weeks ago.

After this week the Kingstree cotton ginny will be operated only three days of the week—Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Patrons will govern themselves accordingly.

The subscription price of The Record is $1.25 a year. If you want to pay it all in advance we give you 25 cents discount. We do not sell the paper for $1.00 a year on time.

We are sorry to learn that our fellow-townsmen, Mr A Slide Coker, has decided to leave old Williamsburg and make his future home in Georgia. Our town can ill afford to lose such citizens as Mr Coker and his family.

Capt Funk tells us that the number of bales of cotton ginned at the Kingstree ginny this season is about 800 bales, as compared with 1,600 bales at the same time last year. This indicates pretty accurately the cotton crop shortage.

We are sincerely glad to hear that our old and valued friend, General Francis Marion Britton, who has suffered a veritable siege of illness, has made a sortie into the hills of recovery and ere long we hope to behold the light of his genial countenance.

We are requested to announce that there will be a hot supper next Thursday night at Mr J G McCullough's residence, near Benson post-office, the proceeds to be given to the Cedar Swamp school fund. There will be ham, turkey and barbecue galore. Public cordially invited.

Can't some of our good friends bring us a pumpkin for Thanksgiving? We are too poor to have turkey, so will feast on pumpkin pies to keep up the traditions of the day—provided we can get the pumpkin. Joking aside, we are willing to pay a good price for a nice, ripe pumpkin.

Attention is called to Dr R C McCabe's professional card in this issue. After graduating at Atlanta Dental College Dr McCabe pursued a course in crown and bridge work at Dashwood's Post Graduate School in Atlanta. He also has license to practice dentistry in South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

Subscriptions are coming in mightily slowly for this season. We feel sure that this is due to thoughtlessness, but we can't afford to send anyone the paper who doesn't pay once a year, and moreover, the post-office department forbids us to send the paper to subscribers more than one year on credit.

The Federal and State and county election commissioners were here Saturday and gave out the boxes, tickets, etc. to the managers who called for them, agreeable to the notice published in The Record. The managers who didn't call didn't get the boxes, which of course is not the fault of the commissioners.

About 500 paid-in-advance subscriptions to The Record expire between now and the new year. Please bear in mind, friends, that unless you renew promptly, paying in advance, the price is $1.25 a year. If you don't care to renew we would appreciate your telling us so. A postal card request is all that's necessary.

The revival meeting which has been going on at the Methodist church for the past ten days came to a close last evening. Rev Mr Co-mann, who assisted the pastor, Mr Fairy, is an earnest and forceful preacher and we have little doubt that the message he delivered will bear fruit. Many people who heard him preach say that his sermons are deeper and more forceful than those of any evangelist they ever heard here before.

The general election held at this precinct was almost farcial, only 47 votes being cast for Congressman and 57 for State officers. The constitutional amendments were snowed under, the one providing for an additional Associate Justice receiving only 5 votes "Yes" to 39 "No." The other eight amendments were even more overwhelmingly voted down. There are enough wire-pullers in the State to get these amendments through, however, and doubtless all of them will be carried simply because the country people didn't take enough interest in the matter to come out and vote. Think of it! Less than 60 votes here when nearly 300 voted in the primary and took an oath to support the nominees of the party.

A New Enterprise.

Mr W Martin Tobias, who has held the position of foreman of The Record's mechanical department for nearly two years, will soon sever his connection with the paper to take charge of the Kingstree Book and Stationery Store, a newly organized business, of which he is manager.

Mr Tobias is a very capable printer indeed for his age and is, withal, a young man of good character and qualities that have gained him many friends during his sojourn here. His leaving us is a source of regret to us all and we bespeak success for him in his new field of endeavor commensurate with his deserts.

Mr J A Epps and Mrs Josina Chandler came in last week from Jessup, Ga, where Mr Epps is now in the mercantile business, conducting a grain and feed store. Mr Epps returned Friday night, but Mrs Chandler will spend some time in the county visiting among her kindred and friends in old Williamsburg.

Mr W E Hanna and son, Willie, who reside near Cades, paid us a pleasant call Saturday. They brought along a few samples of ribbon cane, which were fine, large specimens indeed. The longest measured 8 1/2 feet, divided into some 20 odd joints of convenient size, all of which have provided Miss Stella Louise a new and agreeable substitute for chewing gum. We doubt whether any prettier specimens of cane were exhibited at the State Fair than those Mr Hanna brought us.

FACIAL NEURALGIA.

Mrs. C. S. Sagerser, 1311 Woodland Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes: "I feel it a duty due to you and to others that may be afflicted like myself, to speak for Peruna. "My trouble first came after la grippe eight or nine years ago, a gathering in my head and neuralgia. I suffered most all the time. My nose, ears and eyes were badly affected for the last two years. I think from your description of internal catarrh that I must have had that also. I suffered very severely. "Nothing ever relieved me like Peruna. It keeps me from taking cold. "With the exception of some deafness I am feeling perfectly cured. I am forty-six years old. "I feel that words are inadequate to express my praise for Peruna."

Stomach Trouble Seven Years.

Mrs. T. Frech, R. R. 1, Hickory Point, Tenn., writes: "Having been afflicted with catarrh and stomach trouble for seven years, and after having tried four different doctors they only relieved me for a little while. I was induced to try Peruna, and I am now entirely well."
