Lake City, April 11:—Mr and Mrs J E Brunson, one-time citizens of this town but now residing in Florence, spent some time last week in town. The main purpose of their visit was to attend the McClam-Daniel marriage.

Dr and Mrs A H Williams and three smaller children are now in Florida enjoying themselves. Most of their stay will be spent at Wauhatchee, where the Doctor has a ten-acre orange grove. When they get back the Doctor will brag about eating oranges right off the tree and fresh snap beans, tomatoes, and so on, until our mouth will drip like a drooling baby's.

Mr J W Holliday of Savage was noted here Wednesday of last week.

Hon H O Britton came up from Kingstree at mid-day Wednesday, spent the afternoon in town on business and remained over for the marriage of his kinsman.

Mrs G L Sauls visited Charleston some days ago.

Mrs H P Epps and Miss Ara Rodgers last Tuesday went to Pinewood to visit their sister, Mrs William Stack. They will be away something like two weeks.

If the craze for money keeps growing, we shall reach the point where the first question asked of candidates for admission to church membership will be: "Where is your bank book?" Even now, it is practically the only question asked by society. Moral character doesn't matter. Culture is of no moment. The one essential is money, no matter how you get it.

Judge O S Baldwin was in Columbus county, N C, not long since and may go again. With that case of confectionery along, no wonder some thought he was a drummer. And, sure enough, come to think of it, he is a drummer. Not a bass drummer, but a snare drummer. Want to catch her, eh?

Mrs Louis Nachman was here from Florence Friday.

Presiding Elder W P Meadors was in town Sunday and preached at the Methodist church.

We had a fine rain on Wednesday of last week, and another good one Saturday night. These rains were very much needed and came at a time and in a way to be of almost incalculable benefit. Oats were really suffering worst, but vegetables, strawberries, corn and tobacco were likewise sadly in want of moisture.

The first berries to go to market left here on the 6th instant. This is later than usual, which fact is wholly due to excessive lack of rain. Now, however, the plants are moving rapidly and the berries will ripen with speed.

Judge Baldwin spent all of last week in North Carolina and Virginia. This time, however, he sailed west of Columbus county, and spent most of his time in Leaksville-Spray, N C, which is only a few miles from Danville, Va. He reports that he had a most enjoyable trip.

Mrs J M Sturgeon went down to Charleston last week and spent some time.

Mrs W T Moody is in Lynchburg on a visit to Mrs Henry Hickson, having gone Sunday night.

Mr Willie Joe Daniel and Miss Delle Theodelle McClam were married on the evening of the 5th instant at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs J S McClam, on Acline avenue. Quite a large number of relatives and friends were present to witness the impressive ceremony and bid the young couple godspeed through life. The house was tastily decorated with palms, vines and flowers; the programme was well planned, and the solemn ceremony beautiful in all details. The attendants were: Mr J P Matthews and Miss Mamie McClam, and Mr J W Singletary and Miss Estelle Haselton. As the bridal party proceeded through the parlor into the large dining-room where the nuptials were celebrated, Misses Ethel Epps and Sadie McElveen, the little flower girls, strewed the path with sweet peas. The gifts, which were many and beautiful, were displayed upon tables in the parlor. After a short visit to Charleston, where Mr and Mrs W J Daniel went immediately after the ceremony, they returned here, and will make their home upon the farm near town.

There are fourteen young ladies in this town who, for the future, will be as shy of sillabub as a horse is of a tan-yard. They will dodge, if you even say, "sillabub."

Mr A M Parker, Jr, and Miss Julia Sturgeon were quietly married on the afternoon of last Monday, April 10. The ceremony, which took place at the Sturgeon hotel, the home of the bride's parents, was performed by Rev C C Derrick in the presence of the immediate family and some invited friends. The couple escaped the rice and shoes and other vulgar and disgusting performances by slipping off to Scranton in an automobile after the ceremony. Catching the 6:45 train, they went to Wilmington. The bride is a daughter of Mr and Mrs J M Sturgeon. Mr Parker is the local representative of Messrs Alex Sprunt & Co, cotton exporters.

Two of a Kind.

A person begging alms of Lord George Gordon said: "God bless you, my lord! You and I have been in all the prisons in London." "What do you mean?" cried Lord George. "I never was in any prison but the tower." "That is true, my lord," said the other, "and I have been in all the rest."—"Timbs' Anecdotes."

Again we beg to remind our friends that all notices relating to money-making enterprises, for church, school or any other cause, are charged for as advertising at one cent a word. All cards of thanks, for any purpose whatsoever, are charged for at the rate of one cent a word. It would save us a good deal of trouble and embarrassment if you would just count the words and send the money along with your "copy," as it hardly pays us to keep books on these little items. Yet in the aggregate they mean a considerable loss to the paper if not collected, and they are so easily overlooked.

Two Old Confederates

POLK MILLER and COL. TOM BOOKER

Both Prominent Confederate Veterans from Old Virginia

will give their

Inimitable Entertainment Here Next Thursday Night

Thomas Opera House

Polk Miller has acquired a national reputation as a raconteur of delightful stories of ante-bellum days in the Old South, and without blacking his face he can put to shame any negro minstrel in his imitation of the negro dialect.

Mr Miller is an adept at picking the banjo, and his old comrade accompanies him in his music. He also has a negro quartette—four negroes who sing the old plantation songs with all the ilt and swing of the happy corn field darkey 'Way Down on de Swanee Ribber, Far, Far Away.

Every Confederate Veteran in the County ought to enjoy this splendid entertainment. To everyone it will be a most felicitous occasion, but to the old veterans it will be indeed a feast of reason and a flow of soul to hear the heart-to-heart talk of their old comrade. Every one who attends this entertainment and is dissatisfied at its conclusion will be refunded his money at the door. This offer is made freely and willingly, as the management feels confident that there will be no kicks coming. Every old veteran will be admitted free.

Polk Miller and his company come here under the auspices of the Radcliffe Entertainment Bureau.

Tickets On Sale at Kingstree Drug Company's

Admission 50 and 75 cents

A Special Rate of 25 Cents Allowed School Children. Confederate Veterans Free.
