NEWS OF RECENT NOTE IN LAKE CITY.

SOME SCRAPPING--DEATH OF AN INFANT--THE DROUTH INJURES CROPS--REVIVAL SERVICES.

Lake City, May 8:—Now and then they have a fight at Cades, and occasionally there is one at Florence, but such records are nothing to brag about when they are so far surpassed by Lake City. Why, we have as high as three fights a day, and hardly a ripple of excitement is caused. This number is the record for May 2, and it was not a good day for fighting, either.

The infant of Mr and Mrs W H Weaver died last Sunday after an illness of about three weeks. The little fellow was about six months old.

Mrs H G Sheridan of Walterboro arrived in town Sunday night for a visit to friends and relatives.

Mr and Mrs H H Singletary went to Ebenezer last week and visited Mr and Mrs Reddin P Byrd.

Dr W L Whitehead has opened a drug store in the Bank of Lake City building.

And still no rain! The continued cold weather, combined with excessive dryness, causes long faces in this community. The stand of cotton is poor and such as came up is dying. Oats are having a tough time trying to head. Tobacco is not growing. All other crops are at a standstill.

Robt J Kirk, Esq, was here from Kingstree Friday on professional business.

Mrs L L Caldwell is at Goldsboro, N C, among her kith and kin in this, her girlhood home.

Capt J Albert Ward of Friendfield was noted here last Friday. Some folks may wonder where he got this title. Just ask those who know him if Albert Ward isn't a "captain"?

A man who was here Thursday night and wanted to get to Summerton Friday morning, on learning that he could not reach there until Friday night, got drunk and went about muttering: "Broken connections, enough to make a man get drunk." Yes, and so will a quart of "blind tiger".

A series of meetings during the week began last Monday at the Presbyterian church. Rev A R Woodson of Manning is conducting the services.

Mrs J B McCutchen is visiting here from Latta. She is accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs Eugene McCutchen.

W L Bass, Esq, and daughter, Miss Sallie Bass, were in Charleston the first few days of the present week. W L B.

KINGSTREE HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The Wee Nee Literary society held its regular meeting Friday, May 5. The query for debate was: "Resolved, That education makes a man better fitted for business." The decision was rendered in favor of the negative.

We were glad to have Mr E C Epps, chairman of the board of trustees, visit our society. We hope the other trustees will follow his example. Mr Epps presented the society with a beautiful medal to be worn by each president during his or her successive term of office. This thoughtfulness on the part of Mr Epps is appreciated by each member of the society.

This being the appointed time for the election of officers, the following were elected: President, Donald Montgomery; vice president, Mordant McConnell; secretary, Jennie Lee Stackley; treasurer, Kirby Greene; literary editor, Marian Hurt; critic, Hallie Hinds; first censor, Cuyler Harper; second censor, William Gamble.
