

A VARIETY OF NEWS FROM LAKE CITY.

FIRST TOBACCO SALE--GRATEFUL SHOWERS--A MARRIAGE--ARRIE MILES RUNS AMUCK.

Lake City, June 26:—Miss Lina Gregg of Florence is visiting Miss Maud Singletary.

Robt J Kirk, Esq, came up from Kingstree Saturday and spent the afternoon in town on professional business.

Miss Carrie Beach of Walterboro is visiting her sister, Mrs Myers E Hanna.

Mr S W Gowdy was in Florence one day last week on business.

Mrs Dell Sedgwick of Kingstree is visiting her sister, Mrs B H Singletary, corner Main and Church streets.

Miss Mamie McInnis of Charleston is spending some time with her friend, Mrs R F Joyner.

Almost every neighborhood in this section has been visited by good rains since last Thursday, each neighborhood receiving one or two showers within that time. This moisture, combined with the heat of a humid atmosphere, is simply rushing crops upwards and outwards. One almost imagines that he can see things grow.

Barring sickness or other unavoidable circumstances, the man who now has a grassy crop is without excuse. Such a one is simply "no good."

The tobacco season here opened on the 16th instant with a sale of 783 pounds of "sand lugs." The tobacco was grown by Mr Ossie Collins on his farm about four miles west of Lake City and was sold to Messrs L A Winston & Son at 5 cents per pound, which is a good price for that class of tobacco. The load brought $39.15, as much as a bale of cotton a few years ago.

Arrie Miles, an old acquaintance of the chaingang, is in trouble again. One hot day he endeavored, so report says, to let air through the anatomy of Mr Mott Hatchell. It appears that he had been nursing a grudge against Hatchell quite a bit and seized the first opportunity to vent his spleen. It is claimed that he has been uttering threats for some time, and these threats having been repeated to Hatchell, the latter avoided trouble. One day recently, however, Arrie's hogs were at large and trespassing upon Hatchell's lands and he shut them up and sent word to Arrie of what had been done, and that he could get the hogs upon payment of 50 cents. That afternoon while Hatchell was at work in his field across the road opposite Arrie's house, it seems, Arrie tried to carry out his threat. It is charged that he shot at Hatchell five times, but without hitting his mark. One bullet passed so near that the impelled air swept Hatchell's face. Arrie is under bond to answer the charges of assault with intent to kill.

Miss Olive DuRant and Mr Ralph Mercer were married on the 21st instant at the home of the bride's brother, Dr J B DuRant. The ceremony was performed by Rev C C Derrick in the presence of the family and several invited guests. Mr Mercer lives near Wilmington, N C, and thither the young couple went to make their home. They went away immediately after the marriage.

Four teachers in addition to the four previously elected were yesterday secured for the graded school. The new ones are: Mrs Katie L Beard of Sumter and Misses Sue Shaw of Charleston, Evie Smith of Anderson and Virginia Hutchings of Greers. This completes the corps, with the exception of a principal yet to be found. The respective assignments will be about as follows: Mr T Cook Covington, superintendent; ———, principal; Miss Sue Shaw, 7th and 8th grades; Miss Bertha Morris, 5th and 6th grades; Mrs Katie L Beard, 4th grade; Miss Evie L Smith, 3rd grade; Miss Amber Wilkes, 2nd grade; Miss Virginia Hutchings, 1st grade; Miss Mamie Greer, music.

The combined store house and dwelling of Mr Cleave Knight, at Olanta, was burned last Friday, together with stock of goods, furniture and so on. Nothing was saved except a few articles out of the bedrooms. The loss is between four and five thousand dollars, with insurance of $3,500.

When a girl whose name is Sarah spells it "Sara" or one whose name is Polly twists it into "Pollye", folks look pityingly and pass on, but when a boy who bears the name of Sam gets it into this shape, "Psalm", it is time to ask for a writ of lunacy.

Mr Dabbs is expected to be at these appointments, as these are his own suggestions.

J. T. FRIERSON,

It was a long and bloody battle for life that was waged by James B Mershon of Newark, N J, of which he writes: "I had lost much blood from lung hemorrhages, and was weak and run-down. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion and perfect health. Try them. 50c at M L Allen's.
