AFFAIRS AT ANDREWS.

Death of Mrs. Skipper--Havoc of Drouth--A Live Road Engineer.

Andrews, July 30:--I am called upon to chronicle one of the saddest deaths that has happened in our town for years. I refer to the demise of Mrs Anna Skipper, the young wife of Mr S S Skipper. Mr and Mrs Skipper had both been very ill for some weeks. Mr Skipper is convalescing, but Mrs Skipper had a change for the worse last Friday and in spite of the skill of two attending physicians, supplemented by the tender ministering of loved ones and friends, the end came at 3 o'clock Saturday morning and the spirit of Mrs Skipper winged its flight to the better world. The deceased left two very small children, besides her husband, and a host of other kindred and friends to mourn her departure. Mrs Skipper was from Mount Tabor, N C, and had been living in our town for 4 or 5 years. All who knew her loved her.

Still our community is in the grip of an awful drouth and it seems that crops will be a total failure.

The writer drove about 5 or 6 miles last Friday afternoon up the old Gapway road, in the Harmony church neighborhood, and to our utter surprise that old, thrown-away road has been built into a new, up-to-date thoroughfare by our hustling and competent Road Engineer, John M Eaddy, and his road-building force. Our county has had more roads built and repaired in the past 6 months than we have had in 12 months heretofore, but the work itself speaks louder than words.

What's the matter with our road builders at the Trio end of our Trio-Andrews road, which is completed, except one short piece near Trio? Come out, boys, and complete the road, you can do this so quick that you will not know it is done. Let's have an up-to-date road.

"The Prodigal Son" of Trio was noted on our streets Friday. Come again, Mr B, we are always glad to bring out the "fatted calf."

There was a series of services held at the Spring Gully Baptist church all of last week. We are informed that much interest was excited by the meeting, which was conducted by Rev Mr Whaley of Georgetown. A lot of good has been accomplished. There have been 18 or 20 additions to the church-roll, also the church has been spiritually built up. We hope a great deal of good may follow this divine's labors and that he may be able to win many souls for his hire. SUBSCRIBER.

Attack Like Tigers.

In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt-rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver, kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C T Budahn of Tracy, Calif. "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at M L Allen's.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh, being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Buried in Secret.

Two ancient kings were buried in secret. Attila, king of the Huns, after his siege of Rome, died in Hungary A. D. 453. His soldiers, desirous of giving their great leader a royal burial, inclosed his body first in a casket of gold, this in one of silver and this in one of lead, and transported it into a desert. There slaves were selected, and under the direction of men who were sworn to secrecy they dug the grave of the dead monarch: When this was accomplished no traces of the spot were left. The slaves were all cruelly slain.

Alaric, king of the Goths, the celebrated conqueror of Rome, died when with his army at Cozenza, south Italy. His men turned the course of a river, interred the body of their sovereign, with much treasure, in its bed and restored the stream to its channel.

No man has ever lighted on the resting place of either of these kings, who in this respect resemble Moses, of whom it is written, "No man knoweth of his sepulcher unto this day."

Died From Bad Writing.

German handwriting attains a degree of illegibility unknown in Latin script. A tragic instance of this fact was afforded by the death of Johann Bacher, an Austrian musician of the last century. Bacher spent most of his leisure for fifteen years in compiling a history of the Viennese opera. When the manuscript was completed he submitted it to the Imperial academy, which had promised to publish it. In three months it was returned with a statement that no member of the academy could decipher it. Bacher then sought to have it copied, but no copyist capable of deciphering it was to be found. As a last resource he determined to dictate his work to an amanuensis only to discover that the greater part of the manuscript was illegible even to himself. The thought of his wasted years of labor unhinged his brain, and in a fit of depression he committed suicide.

Going Back a Long Way.

Pick up any peacage book and you will find it bristling with ancestral names whose presence is much more difficult to explain than that of the fly in the amber. And as you descend in the social scale the fictions multiply--from the pedigrees of the landed gentry to the family trees proudly cherished in hundreds of middle class homes. But these lineages, aspiring as they are, are of mushroom growth compared with many that are claimed with seeming honesty. At Mostya hall you may see a vellum roll, seven yards long, headed by no less famous an ancestor than "Adam, son of God." Another pedigree at the college of heralds starts thus modestly with Adam and the garden of Eden, and Wales has many a family tree which traces descent with unerring hand from the same remote origin.

What Became of the Trousers.

Of Judge Parry's many stories of the Manchester county court that about the comedy of a man's Sunday trousers is one of the best. In the plaintiff's box was a woman, in the defendant's an elderly collier. The plaintiff stated her case: "I lent you mon's missis my mon's Sunday trousers to pay 'is rent with, an' I want 'em back." The defendant at first replied, "There's nowt in it at all." Pressed for a more definite reply, he scowled at the judge and protested, "Why, the 'ole street knows all about them trousers." But Judge Parry was not the "ole street," and he patiently encouraged the defendant to talk until he got the explanation, "Why, you woman 'an my missis drank them Sunday trousers."--Westminster Gazette.

Catching Cuttlefish.

Cuttlefish require deft handling. The bait, which consists of a rough chunk of fish fastened to a hook or even tied to a string, is not dropped over the side to be swallowed, but to excite the gustatory organs of the cuttles and to be slowly pulled up until those mollusks have reached the surface in a vain attempt to embrace it with their long arms. Then in a moment a gaff is plunged into the leathery mantle of the would be diner, and the creature is unceremoniously flung into the boat.

Again we beg to remind our friends that all notices relating to money-making enterprises, for church, school or any other cause, are charged for as advertising at one cent a word. All cards of thanks, for any purpose whatsoever, are charged for at the rate of one cent a word. It would save us a good deal of trouble and embarrassment if you would just count the words and send the money along with your "copy," as it hardly pays us to keep books on these little items. Yet in the aggregate they mean a considerable loss to the paper if not collected, and they are so easily overlooked.

EDITOR COUNTY RECORD :--

Too much praise cannot be accorded the Continental Fire Insurance Co., of New York, represented by the Kingstree Insurance & Real Estate Co., for their prompt adjustment of the claims I had against them for the destruction of my dental office fixtures and library by fire, on June 16. Just fourteen days had expired when they turned over to me a check for full amount of loss without the slightest demurrage.

Hurrah for the Continental and the Kingstree Insurance & Real Estate Co!

Respectfully yours,
