USE OF CALOMEL PRACTICALLY STOPPED.

For Bilious Attacks, Constipation and All Liver Troubles. Dangerous Calomel Gives Way to Dodson's Liver Tone.

Every druggist in the State has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is often dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," says O H Patrick.

Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by O H Patrick who sells it. A large bottle costs 50 cents and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of sluggishness, you have only to ask for your money back. It will be promptly returned.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant tasting, purely vegetable remedy—harmless to both children and adults. A bottle in the house may save you a day's work or keep your children from missing school. Keep your liver working and your liver will not keep you from working.

Newspaper Subscriptions.

"The matter of newspaper subscription," says The Kansas City Star man, "reminds an editor of the Greek philosopher whose poverty began to pinch him. One of his friends, sent word to the men of the city that each should take a certain kind of wine and on a certain day go to the philosopher's house and pour the wine into an empty vat. And so they did, but each thought that one bottle of water would not be noticed in so much wine, and the vat was filled with water. Thus the philosopher received no aid. It is somewhat that way with subscriptions. One fellow thinks he owes only a small amount and so neglects to pay it. The other fellow thinks the same and the editor fares almost as well as the philosopher."

Notice to Corporators.

In order that none may plead lack of warning, notice is hereby given that reports, required by law to be made on schedule, blanks furnished, must be in the hands of the Commissioner on the date specified by law, and that on the morning of December 6, 1912, legal processes will be instituted under Section 6 of the act against all delinquents.

This course is made absolutely necessary as the law requires that all reports shall be collated and compiled, and the totals shall be printed and reported to the General Assembly by January 5, 1913—a volume of work impossible of accomplishment if delinquencies are indulged.

It is hoped, therefore, that all schedules will be filled in promptly, and sent to the Commissioner before the required date. E J WATSON, Commissioner Agriculture, Commerce and Industries. Columbia, October 14.

Why not give us a chance to figure on your job printing? We have good printers and one of the best equipped offices in the State, and we guarantee satisfaction, or no charge. We do not send out solicitors, because we have none to send; but we do give you the benefit of what we save by not sending out agents. It stands to reason that if we pay agents 25% commission, the customer has it added to his bill.

VAUGHN PLEAD GUILTY AND CONFESSED.

TOLD JURY REVOLTING DETAILS OF HEINOUS CRIME—DEATH SENTENCE PASSED.

Greenville, October 26:—T U Vaughn, on trial for alleged immorality during his term as superintendent of the Odd Fellows' Home here, was put on the stand by his lawyers to-day and made a clean confession of his awful crime.

The trial was brought to a sensational close when Vaughn broke down and confessed all. He named two other victims in addition to the three included in the indictment. The jury was out but four minutes and made no recommendation for mercy, the verdict carrying the death penalty.

Tears streamed down the face of Judge Purdy, named by Governor Blease as special Judge for this trial. Many jurors, court officials and spectators alike made no pretence of hiding their tears as Vaughn, pale and broken, acknowledged his crime. Some jurors wept aloud.

In the afternoon Judge Purdy, before sentencing Vaughn, overruled a motion for a new trial, which was argued by one of Vaughn's lawyers, after his client made his confession. Judge Purdy, in sentencing Vaughn to death in the electric chair, set December 20 as the date for his execution.

When court opened there was no intimation that the accused would make a confession. His attorney had fought stubbornly since the beginning of the case to break down the strong evidence developed by the prosecution's little girl witnesses.

Immediately after court opened to-day, attorneys of both sides consulted, resulting in an agreement to let Vaughn confess in an effort to save his own life, and that the case would go to the jury without argument.

"I have acted devilishly, I have acted shamelessly," began Vaughn. "The devil tempted me and I have fallen." He pleaded eloquently but vainly with the jury to save his life, not so much for his sake as for his wife and little daughter.

Neither Mrs Vaughn nor her daughter was in court to-day, though they had been with the accused since the trial opened. He was formerly assistant superintendent of the First Baptist church Sunday-school, one of the largest and most fashionable in this city. He was a ministerial student and frequently occupied pulpits of churches in and around Greenville. He owns considerable property.

BLEASE ORDERS REMOVAL.

Columbia, October 26:—Governor Blease to-night instructed the Sheriff of Greenville county to bring T U Vaughn to the penitentiary as soon as sentence is pronounced on him. His telegram to Sheriff Poole reads as follows:

"Bring Vaughn to penitentiary on first train after sentence has been passed on him. Allow no delay. See Acts, 1912, page 702."

Immediately on leaving the court house to-night officers in custody of T U Vaughn boarded an automobile going to Spartanburg, where they caught a train for Columbia, where the condemned man will be put in the penitentiary for safekeeping. This was done as a precautionary measure, it was said at the Sheriff's office to-night.
