SHE COULD SHOUT, SAYS

John W. Pitchford of Aspen, N. C. will always use Hunt's Cure for itching trouble, and tell all I see about it. I had to shout now to know that we are all of that dreadful trouble. The first time all my little boy broke out with itching trouble. Thinking that it was bad I gave him a blood purifier, but he got worse, and could not sleep at night. Some said he had it, and told me what was good for it. I tried what people said would cure it, but nothing did any good. My other two children and myself took the disease from him in January, 1911. I saw Hunt's Cure advertised and I purchased a 50c box. It helped my little boy so much I got a box for each of the family, and now we are all well of that awful trouble. Hunt's Cure will cure it in a short time and you will go by directions. We had it in its worse form, and used Hunt's Cure, and we are now all well.
Thanks to A. B. Richards Medicine Co. of Sherman, Texas, manufacturers of such healing medicine.

SEE HIM FIRST!
Before the fertilizer salesman arrives, go to your dealer and explain to him that you will not buy 2 per cent. goods that contain only 40 pounds of Potash per ton. Show him that modern, profitable fertilizers contain from 5 to 10 per cent. Potash, and that the composition of crops and the effect of crops on soils require that the per cent. of Potash should be increased until it is as great as, or greater than, the per cent. of Phosphoric Acid in the fertilizer. It is this grade of goods that pays you and your dealer best. The quantity and quality of the crops are better and the actual plant food costs less per pound.

A LOVE LETTER.
From a Country Schoolmaster to the Lady of His Affections.

Dear Madam:
If there be yet no proposition toward a conjunction with you, be pleased to accept of this interjection of my pretences, for I do pronouns ad verbum, that I desire to be adjective to you in all cases, for positively I declare that, comparatively speaking, I should be superlatively happy might I engender with you in all moods and tenses. I hope you will not think me so singular as not to desire to have the plural number in my family, or that I am too masculine to be neuter in regard to the feminine; wherefore, dear madam, let us have our affections in common of two. Far be it from you to decline this conjugation, though I am not the first person, nor the second, nor the third, that has solicited you to be subjunctive to his love. I presume you will not be in the imperative, whilst I pass from the optative to the potential, and that you will permit me to make a conjunction with you. This will make a participle of happiness, if you please actively to give your voice to be passive herein; be you but supine, and I'll be deponent. Thus you will find it the optative part of my soul to be a lawful concord with the genitive; my whole income shall be a dative to you for the present; nothing shall be accusative against you for the future, and your dear name shall ever be my vocative till death, the great ablative of all things, part us.
I am, dear madam,
Your most obsequious adorer,
PAUL PEDAGOGUE.

Coker-Coker.

Bethel, December 2:—A beautiful wedding took place at the home of Mr J L Coker, Wednesday evening, November 27, at 4:30 o'clock, when Mr L C Coker of Hebron was united in marriage with Miss Eva Coker, of this place. The bride is the oldest sister of Mr J L Coker.
The home was filled with relatives, friends and visitors, some coming quite a distance to witness the ceremony. The house was beautifully decorated in white, blue and pink.
Miss Belva Broadway of Paxville presided at the organ, the selection being the "Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin." As those soft strains came forth Miss Louise Wilson of Bethel entered with Mr Francis Buddin of Kingstree, then followed Miss Mary Burgess of Bethel with Mr Arthur Cooper of Bethel, next came Miss Ruth McElveen of Bethel with Mr John Lewis Coker, a brother of the bride, then came Miss Jeddie Coker, a sister of the bride, with Mr J Ollie Gowdy of Lake City, last came the bride and groom. The couples stood within the chancel, facing each other, while the bride and groom stood beneath an arch of white and evergreen.
Rev Mr Clark of Olanta in a very simple yet impressive manner, performed the marriage ceremony, after which the newly wedded couple slowly left the home, followed by the other couples.
The bridal party then left for a drive and returned about dark, when a reception was awaiting them. Several courses were served, after which an evening of pleasure was enjoyed. Messrs Hardy and Letcher McElveen acted as ushers for the occasion, being assisted by Messrs Des Gowdy of Lake City and Lee Cooper of Bethel.
Mr and Mrs Coker will make their future home in the Hebron section.
A FRIEND.
